FORT KLAMATH

By MYRTLE WIMER

Mrs. Muriel Cooper has returned to her home at Turlock, Calif., after spending three days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Brown, Crystal, where her three children had been staying for the summer vacation. On returning to California, Mrs. Cooper was accompanied by the two younger children, Lucille and Bruce, leaving her older daughter Joan with her grandparents to assist about the Brown home while Mrs. Brown is confined to bed as the result of a severe spinal injury. She has been laid up for five weeks, but expects to be able to be up and around soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren L. Miller Sr. returned last Wednesday from a three-day business trip to Red Bluff, where they were accompanied by Lilya Siyonya, who visited her parents and other members of her family at Red Bluff and her brother in San Francisco, returning with the Millers on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Marshall, their sons, Richard and Robert, left last week for their home in Porterville, after a three-weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. William Zumbrun at the Zumbrun ranch, the two women are sisters. One week of the time was spent on a trip north to Seattle when Mrs. Zumbrun, Mrs. Marshall and sons visited at Sandpoint Naval Air Station with their brother and family, mate first class Irvin Brown and wife, now stationed at Seattle, for six months, his squadron having recently flown to Seattle from Honolulu after a six-month's stay there.

Mrs. Florence Hammer, Seattle, left Friday, July 25, after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Martin Yegge, at her home in Denton Park. Mr. and Mrs. Yegge own and operate the Denton Park cabins and Old Swimming Hole. During her sister's visit, Yegge and son Karol were absent on a business trip to Los Angeles. Other visitors arriving recently at the Yegge home were Albert Denton and daughter Margaret, who came from Portland and stayed overnight, Sunday, July 20. Denton operates a lumber yard at Guam and was called recently to the home of his family in Portland, summoned by news of the illness of his wife, who has now recovered.

Spending last Friday, Saturday and Sunday as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Ericksen at their home west of here at the Modoc Lumber Co. camp were Mr. and Mrs. Sverre Munson, their daughter Mary Anne and son Paul, Klamath Falls. The visitors had only fair luck at fishing in nearby Seven Mile Creek during their stay. While here they especially enjoyed the treat of one of Mrs. Ericksen's specialties, her deluxe Swedish pancake breakfasts, which according to the guests, are "out of this world."

Arizona visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engle were her sister and aunt, Gail Mason and Claire Odes, Tucson, who arrived Monday and left Thursday for home. While here, they were taken on trips to various scenic points of interest, including Crater Lake.

On Thursday, July 24, Joan Loosley left for the summer for Paulina Butte, located in the Ochoco National Forest, where she will act as lookout during the vacation. She is studying home economics at Oregon State College, Corvallis. Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley accompanied her daughter as far as Rager ranger station, fourteen miles from Paulina Lake, where they spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hughes (Marie Loosley) and children. Hughes is forest ranger for that vicinity. Next day, Joan went on to her summer post as forest service lookout, and her mother returned to her home at the Loosley ranch.

On Wednesday evening, July 23, a meeting was held for members of the Wood River Pioneers and Old Timers, who met in the clubhouse to discuss plans for the forthcoming third annual picnic to be sponsored by the organization at Kimball park, Sunday August 17, get-together which will be held in the clubhouse on Saturday evening, and election of officers for the coming year will be held. For this big event of the summer, it was decided that the organization will furnish baked ham, fried chicken, and coffee for the picnic lunch, each member attending to bring a food item and personal table service. Conducting the meeting Wednesday evening was the president of the group, Emmett Sisemore.

Zane Zirkle, Klamath Falls, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Veatch and family from Saturday, July 19, until the following Tuesday. He and his parents were neighbors of the Veatch family during their residence at Wocus.

Arriving at the Veatch home Friday for a visit were Mrs. Veatch's sister and her husband, Mr. andj Mrs. Joseph Zwahler, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Little Diana Ruegg is back with her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wimer, with whom she makes her home, after a two-weeks' stay in Portland with her paternal grandparents and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Ruegg and Betty Lindstrom.

Mrs. Myrtle Denton returned Friday, July 25, from a three-weeks' vacation at Arcata, Calif., with her sister, Mrs. Clara Beall, who accompanied Mrs. Denton here for a visit at her home at the Denton ranch.

House guests arriving Saturday at Mrs. Mildred Castel's home here were her sister, Mrs. Dora Churchman of Springfield, accompanied by her son-in-law, daughter and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaw, son Scott and daughter, Beth, whose home is in North Bend, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell (Mike) Beaulieu moved this past week from the Rightmier apartments to the Marvin Roeder rental residence. Visiting the Beaulieus for a week were her sister and, nephew, Mrs. Lawrence Hare and little Lawrence Gene, who left on Sunday, July 27, for their home in Corvallis. Her husband, Cpl. Lawrence Hare, is stationed in Korea with the U.S. army.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards on Sunday were their two daughters, Mrs. Lee Ferguson and Mrs. Kenneth Morris, both of Prineville; their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Edwards and children, Klamath Falls. The group came to bring gifts and congratulations to their father on his birthday anniversary of July 28.

Visitors during last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Van Wormer and son Douglas were her mother, sister and niece, Mrs. Earl Thompson, Alturas, Mrs. Larry Quinn and daughter, Gay Stewart, Sacramento, Calif. Coming on Sunday to spend the day were other relatives, including Mrs. Van Wormer's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Branham and their two little sons of Bly, her brother-in-law, sister and small nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Chuck) Smith and Leland, Klamath Falls.

Employes of the Palmerton Lumber Co. of Klamath Falls enjoyed a picnic on Sunday, July 27, at Denton Park, where a large crowd gathered for a day of fun, including feasting and swimming in the Old Swimming Hole, perfect summer day ideal for such an outing.

Recent arrivals are a pair of happy young newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. George Cross, who last week moved for the season into a cottage at Denton Park. Their wedding was an event of 2:15, Monday, July 21, the ceremony taking place at the office of a Justice of the Peace in Reno. The pretty bride is the former Lois Wadsillove, Longview, who was employed at Crater Lake Lodge in Crater Lake National Park prior to her wedding. Her husband, originally hailing from Kalispell, Montana, is manager of the Standard Oil service station concession in Crater Lake Park, a position which he held last season also. Friends here join in extending felicitations and congratulations to the young couple and wish them all the luck in the world in their life together.

Originally set for Saturday evening, August 1, the second annual Western style street dance to be held here next month under sponsorship of the C.I. Club will be changed due to the fact that the affair would conflict with the annual get-together and picnic planned for August 1-17th. Announcement will be made later of the definite date on which the dance will be given.

Announcement is made that regular services at the local Methodist Church will be resumed, Sunday, August 3, 9:30 a.m., PST. Sunday School classes will convene at 10:30 a.m., at the conclusion of the church services.

During the month of July, no church services were held here, Sunday school classes only meeting at 9:30 each Sunday, due to the absence of Rev. and Mrs. C. Ellery Echlin and family, who have now returned from a month vacation during which they visited Mrs. Echlin's parents and other relatives at Port Huron, Michigan. Rev. Echlin is pastor of the Chiloquin and Fort Klamath Methodist churches; he and his family making their home in the neighboring town.
