GRAINS

CHICAGO (AP) — The setback which corn has received from torrid weather throughout the south provided the spark for renewed buying of that cereal on the board of trade Thursday.

Corn gained around 2 cents and the rest of the market also advanced.

High temperatures in the south also brought buying into new crop soybeans as it was felt beans in the southern sections would be damaged.

Oats were wanted on the theory this cereal may be in demand in the south as a feed grain.

Wheat and rye went along with the general market.

Wheat closed ⅜ to 1 cent higher, September $2.34 ⅜, corn 1 ⅛-1 ⅞ higher, September $1.82-81 ⅛, oats ⅛-1 ¼ higher, September 82-82 ⅛, rye ¾ to 1 cent higher, September $2.07 ¾, soybeans ¾-1 ¾ higher, September $3.06⅜-¼, and lard unchanged to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, September $11.87.

JESSIE GILCRIST

Gilcrist Death Told

Jessie Hollis Gilcrist, 85, resident of Klamath Falls for the past 13 years, died July 30, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Phillip B. Hersey, 2540 Reclamation.

Mrs. Gilcrist was born June 25, 1867, at Sherbourne, N. Y. She was married in 1891 to Leonard H. Gilcrist at Rushmore, Minn., who died in 1913, at Cottage Grove, Oregon.

She was a member of the First Christian church, Klamath Falls.

Surviving are four sons, George and Leonard Gilcrist, Klamath Falls, Abner and Letser Gilcrist, Knights Landing, Calif.; four daughters, Mrs. Ada Overton, Cottage Grove, Ore., Mrs. Annabell Hersey, Klamath Falls, Mrs. Jane Craig, Lancaster, Calif., and Mrs. Katy Telford, Spokane, Wash.; a brother, Hiram Hollis, Corning, Calif.; 19 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held from the chapel of Ward's Funeral Home, Friday with the Rev. George Alder, pastor of the First Christian church officiating. Concluding services will be held at the graveside in Taylor Lane Cemetery, Cottage Grove, Ore., August 2, 2:30 p.m. with the Rev. Patterson, Cottage Grove reading the service.

4th Quarter Taxes Due

Fourth quarter property taxes on the current year (1951-52) tax are due and payable now at the tax collector's office in the Courthouse, and will become delinquent Aug. 15.

After that date interest will be charged to payments due.

Taxpayers with delinquent personal property taxes are requested by Mrs. Elsie Siemens, deputy collector, to call at the office in regard to payment because the auditor of Klamath County tax records is insisting that warrants be issued in delinquent cases.

Kidnaper Held

Portland bureau, said late this morning that FBI agents were questioning Russell but that the daring young kidnaper was then denying the Crater Lake murders. He told the FBI men he had bragged of the murders to Lovelace in order to scare the truck driver.

CRACKPOT?

Although Russell might well be merely another crackpot braggart in so far as the Crater Lake murders are concerned, this reporter does note certain similarities between his two known crimes and the Crater Lake slayings.

For instance, there is the currency and watch taken from Lovelace. The killer of Culhane and Jones in Crater Lake took only their currency and wrist watches. Loose change and other valuables were scorned.

There was also evidence of particular viciousness in the Crater Lake murders. Both Culhane and Jones had been kicked or other wise beaten and both had been gagged in an unusually inhumane manner.

Russell's actions in threatening a child and his obvious disdain for others pictures a type person who might have murdered Culhane and Jones.

GUN CALIBER

The one glaring difference is in the guns, Russell had a .45 when captured and the Crater Lake killings were done with a .32 automatic. However, it is entirely possible guns could have been changed in the time between July 19 and last Saturday.

If Russell did commit the Crater Lake murders, how did he escape from the park? Only the car of the two victims has yet been definitely placed at the crime scene at the time it was committed.

Could Russell have hitched a ride out of the park? If he did, why have not the persons who picked him up yet notified authorities?

That raises the dread question: Did something also happen to them?

All this, of course, is nothing but speculation on the writer's part.

On the record, we know only that two men have been murdered in Crater Lake Park and that a young robber has first boasted of his guilt and then denied it.

Cards Good For Entry

Membership cards will get Klamath Elks and their families into the annual Elks Picnic Sunday at Malin Park.

Co-Chairmen Bob Walker and Bob Dragoo have announced all that's necessary for Elks to bring are swim suits, towels and table service. The food and drink will be furnished.

The Malin pool, nearby the picnic site, will be open with life guards on hand at all times. Also the wading pool is to be available for youngsters.

Identification tags are to be handed each member of an Elk family attending, and they must be worn during the picnic, the chairmen reported.

Combs Story Said False

Sam Combs, 69, admitted today that his story of being beaten by Indians in his Holly Hotel room was something of a hoax.

Police Chief Orville Hamilton said that Combs had been questioned and had admitted his principal injury came from a fall against the bed railing in his room yesterday morning.

He was found in the room with his head and face bloodied, and told police some Indians had worked him over after coming to his room asking for money.

Hamilton said the man apparently had been in a scuffle on Klamath Avenue earlier and suffered a bloody nose. That accounted, the chief said, for the trail of blood drops leading up to his room.

Combs was taken to Klamath Valley Hospital for treatment of his injuries.

Advertising Rates
Will Advance
2c per Column Inch
Effective Oct. 1, 1952

The Herald and News has received a price increase of $10.00 per ton on newsprint, and finds it necessary to increase display advertising rates to offset it.

The newsprint raise will add a $6000.00 material cost, on an estimated annual use of 600 tons of paper.

The 2c per inch advertising raise will bring in the necessary $6000.00, on an estimated annual volume of 300,000 column inches of display advertising.

The increase in paper costs was effective as of July 18, 1952. Allowing the customary 60 day notice, the increase of 2c in advertising rate schedules will become effective with October advertising.

There are inflationary costs, other than newsprint, that the paper must meet. When further adjustments are absolutely necessary, it is anticipated that they will be met through subscription price adjustments.

For your information, newsprint cost the paper $53.00 a ton 10 years ago. The new price today is $121.00 a ton—an increase of 128.3%.

The average display advertising rate was 57.4c an inch 10 years ago, for less than 10,000 circulation. The new schedule will average 81.7c, for more than 12,000 circulation—an increase of only 42.3%, for a larger circulation.
