Lane Officials Visit Klamath

A delegation of Lane County officials and businessmen were in Klamath Falls today to look over the Klamath Nursing Home — the county farm and infirmary — for ideas which might be incorporated in a similar layout at Eugene.

In the delegation are:

Ted Brown, Eugene chief of police; Ed Surfus, Eugene fire chief; Olaf Hougium, manager of the First National bank; Earl McNutt, construction man; Max Dudley, welfare officer; Victor Morgan, sanitarian; Phil Bartholomew, insurance man; Archie Slough, garbage superintendent; Dr. Anthony Triola, Lane County health officer; Lee Raish, commissioner; and Bob Maclay, commissioner.

At noon the Lane County men were guests at a luncheon at the Willard with Mayor Bob Thompson, County Judge U. E. Reeder, and Commissioners Ed Gowen and Jerry Rajnus.

Two Accused Of Robbery

Two persons are scheduled for preliminary hearings in District Court tomorrow morning on charges of strongarm robbery.

They are Ima Sue Mitchell Callahan, 19-year-old mother of two, and Ernest Stanley Gayhart, 27. Both are charged with robbery by force and violence and were arrested Tuesday.

Mrs. Callahan, Gayhart and another man—unidentified and as yet not apprehended—are accused of stealing about $20 from a man named Paul E. Krauss after drinking with him at his house last Saturday night.

Krauss swore out warrants for the trio Tuesday. Gayhart was arrested at the Ascot Hotel, where he had a room, and Mrs. Callahan at 619 N. 11th, where she lives, and are held in the County Jail.

Attorney Ben Goddard represented Mrs. Callahan at her arraignment in District Court yesterday afternoon, and Gayhart said he would act as his own attorney at his preliminary hearing.

PEACH DEAL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department said Thursday it may buy as much as a half million cases of canned peaches from this year's big crop for use in the school lunch program. The quantity to be bought will depend upon the quantities and prices offered for sale, the department said.

Non-Support Charge Out

A charge of non-support, filed by Mrs. Shirley Jackson of Bonanza and to which her husband, Virgil Durant Jackson had pleaded guilty, was dismissed yesterday afternoon by Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg.

Jackson, an Indian, pleaded guilty Tuesday, but said in court he had given his wife some money only a few days ago and that, in the first place, she had left him after only three weeks of marriage.

He said he happened to be in town preparing to start a divorce proceeding when he was arrested on the non-support count.

After hearing Jackson's explanation, Judge Vandenberg ordered Mrs. Jackson, a white girl, brought to court yesterday afternoon to explain her side of the story. Upon hearing that she had received a sum of money from her husband just a short time before charging him with non-support, the judge turned down Jackson's guilty plea and dismissed the charge.

Jackson has been working in the woods near Prospect.
