

TIME OUT!

"Don't get much chance to hear the pines, do you?"

RIDIN' HERD

AN UPCOMING back-to-school edition brings up football, regardless of the early date.

So let's take a brief, sketchy dip into the local pigskin picture. On the high school side, there's one big consolation:

It's unlikely the Pels will finish with a shoddier won-and-lost record than they did last year.

Actual statistics don't immediately come to mind, but when the Pels looked back on a 2-5-1 season's run, they were looking at one of the worst football records in the school's history.

But, with nine lettermen back, it's almost a cinch there'll be some improvement.

In fact, early mutterings have the Pels down for a brilliant season, maybe an all-time high.

With last year's state champion Grants Pass team losing almost everybody but the water boy.

LETTERMEN on hand come September-time will include five backfield men and four linemen. Kenny Young leads the pack.

Last year, running for a mediocre team, Young was the only Pelican back who could gain ground with any consistency in ball-packing assignments.

If expected improvement is there and Young has better blocking help than he did last year, he could very well go down as one of the state's best running backs.

Die Lundsten and George (Butcher Boy) Hanson both run hard and another year of experience should make both more dangerous.

George Maskell, who was outstanding as a defensive halfback last year, is also a returnee.

Calvin Gilmore, who didn't live up to expectations last season, is the fifth returning letterman back.

Cal hits his potential. Bossman Bob Henderson will have the nucleus for a high-stepping backfield.

Paul McCall, who takes over as the backfield skipper succeeding Dutch French, should help the situation with his knowledge of duties in that department.

It's too early to tell, but word that has drifted my way indicates that Jim Daugherty, Larry Yarnell and Doug Pence will be quarreling for the quarterback job.

THE RETURNING linemen are Doug Campbell, Matt Del Patti, Jack Horton and Vernon Fryer. Those who follow football closely here are generally agreed that 1952 will be the beginning of a three-year span of gridiron supremacy for the Pelicans.

SNAPP FOE FOUND Giants, Indians Gain Ground

Brooklyn, Yankees Slugged

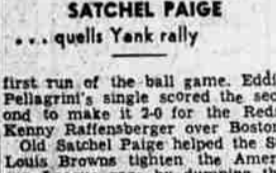

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer

Brooklyn (Dusty) Rhodes clubbed out a three-run homer Friday night to lead the New York Giants to 7-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Giants, who have missed many chances to gain on Brooklyn in the National League pennant chase the past week, picked up a full game when the Dodgers lost to Chicago, 6-1.

St. Louis slugged a parade of Philadelphia pitchers for 11 hits and a 10-5 decision to end the Phils' six-game win string.

Max Surkont threw two wild pitches to batter Andy Seminick in the ninth to give Cincinnati the victory.

Last year lettermen were hard to find. The team was green — and showed it many times.

This year should be an entirely different picture, if the dope sheet is anywhere near correct.

URSAL (JACK) SNAPP, the Merrill Mauler, appears before Klamath Falls boxing fans next Friday night for the first time in over a year.

Kennedy Inks For Main Go

Matchmaker Mack Lillard yesterday signed Paul Kennedy, sensational Los Angeles Negro, to meet Ursal (Jack) Snapp in next Friday's main event spot at the Army.

Local fight fans will remember Kennedy as the lad who looked impressive in an exhibition bout with Merrill's Georgie Price here June 20.

His apparent class resulted in many requests to bring him back. Lillard settled on Kennedy when Snapp, making a fistie comeback after a year of schooling in Southern California, turned down both Wolfe and Turner.

A flock of the ringwise feel that Kennedy will be somewhat more than just a "tune-up" for Snapp.

Snapp will have to get over Kennedy in impressive fashion if he is to land a bout with either Wolfe or Turner.

Sock customers would like to see Snapp against Wolfe with the winner to get a shot at Turner's title.

Snapp still lays claim to the crown, but officially Turner is the champion after winning an elimination tournament with the departure of Snapp to Southern California.

The Oakland Negro was without the title just three weeks after losing to Wolfe in a disputed decision but proved his ability with a three-round knockout of Wolfe.

Turner cemented his claim as the Northwest's best middleweight when he earned a draw with Garth Panter July 28 in Salt Lake City in a pinch-hit bout for Robert Villmain.

Panier is considered one of the nation's top 165-pounders. Lillard said Kennedy would come in around 155 pounds, some seven or eight pounds lighter than Snapp.

The promoter is now working on his supporting card where he said he would use "as many local boys as possible."

Tickets went on sale today at Dick Reeder's, 5th and Main.

Eggert's Double Nips Suds

By The Associated Press

The hard-driving Portland Beavers rallied behind the first division of the Pacific Coast League Friday night as they bounced the faltering Seattle Rainiers in a free-swinging donnybrook at the Rose City, 9-8.

Don Eggert's double in the last of the ninth scored Hank Arrit with the winning margin after the Suds had scored three times in their half of the ninth to tie the game up at 8-8.

In other loop games, the Oakland A's rallied behind the three-hit pitching of Al Gettel to nip the Los Angeles Angels 1-0 and snap an Oak losing streak at five games.

The Hollywood Stars found their shaky perch atop the standings a little more wobbly as they dropped an 8-2 contest to the San Francisco Seals. The Bay City squad has now won four straight from the league leaders.

Bill Boehmer held the Stars to four hits. The San Diego Padres continued to fatten up at the expense of the Sacramento Solons, Lefty O'Doul's crowd coming through with a 6-0 win over the Sacs. Grumpy Guy Fletcher got credit for the win, although he gave way to Jim Hissner in the eighth.

LIKE'S BROTHER WINS TACOMA (AP) — Ed Eisenhower, Tacoma attorney and brother of Republican presidential nominee Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, won the Washington State Seniors' Golf Tournament for the fourth time in five years Friday.

Eisenhower, 63, who copped the title in 1948, 1949 and 1950 and lost in the finals last year, defeated Gerry Bert, 59, Seattle, 1 up with a card of 81.

In other words, when they say Walcott will keep his crown, they are doing something more than just guessing.

What they knew all along was that Matthews was no more than a blown up light heavyweight, and they judged quite correctly that he would come undone in a hurry the first time Marciano tagged him squarely.

Suburban out-hit Elks last night, 6-5, but didn't cash in as did the Elks. The Elks team tied the score 2-2 in the fifth, then added two in the sixth and one in the seventh for insurance while the best Suburban could do was another counter in the sixth.

Gene Favell went all the way for Elks while Suburban used both Gus Gustvang and Darrell Heimelwright.

Hercules went ahead of Bill's Place in the first inning when Al Byers clubbed a two-run home run.

Hercules added two more in the third while Bill's Place was scoring one in the second.

But Bill's Place broke loose in the fourth for seven runs to take an 8-4 lead and stay ahead while Darrell Sorenson added a home run for good measure in the fifth.

But Cal Bonney had to relieve Sorenson in the fifth inning. Jim Palmer went all the way for Hercules.

Pee Wees In 3-Way Knot

Farmer's Lumber knocked over Fluhrer's shaded Thomas Insurance, 7-5.

In other Pee Wee games, Riverside nipped Seals, 10-9, and Juno of the Chamber of Commerce walked over Medo Land, 33-2.

Parkmor won two games in Midget League action to take a percentage lead in that circuit.

The Parkmors drubbed Eastside Electric, 7-1, then edged Exchange Club, 5-3.

The victory sent Heaton's well along the way to a second-round win, after winning the first round.

By GAYLE TALBOT NEW YORK (AP) — Men who have been around the fight game for a long time and whose words carry some authority are being quoted as saying that Rocky Marciano hits as hard, or harder, than either Jack Dempsey or Joe Louis did in his prime and that he will scalp Jersey Joe Walcott when they meet.

Now, wait a minute. We saw Rocky belt Harry Matthews the other night, too. That was a pretty fair wallop, the left hook which dimmed the lights for Harry. But let us not be precipitate and start being noisy we can't afford to lose.

The Broadway characters who make a good living by setting fight odds and then backing their judgment against all comers have been polled in recent days, and without exception they prophesy that Old Folks, the champion, will enter the ring a solid favorite over his unbeaten young challenger. They place the probable odds at around 7-5 on a man-to-man basis.

These are the same fellows who made Marciano a 12-5 choice over Matthews and stuck to it right to the end in the face of a wide-spread, if unfortunate, belief that the price was an overlay.
