

Shaw Tea Event of Summer

HOSTESSES . . . and honored guests, Mrs. James R. Shaw, Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, Mrs. Laurence Shaw, Mrs. John A. Shaw and Mrs. Robert M. Wallace, seated. Over 150 friends were invited to greet Mrs. James Shaw and Mrs. Wallace, Thursday afternoon, July 17.

"A GARDEN PARTY INDOORS"

. . . the hostesses all dressed in cool, crisp, gay summer cottons, was the refreshing note struck at the tea given in the Pelican Party Room for Mrs. James R. Shaw and Mrs. Robert Wallace (Wanda Shaw), by Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, Mrs. Laurence Shaw and Mrs. John A. Shaw. Blue and white delphinium were used in large bouquets on the tea table and about the rooms; with interest centered on one huge arrangement illuminated by indirect lighting, which dramatically pointed up the gorgeous shades of blue, and accented the chalk white of the blossoms.

MRS. ROBERT BALDERSTON . . . (Dorothea Ellingson) Unity, Oregon, who poured during the first hour, serves Mrs. Robert Chilcote.

MRS. HOWARD P. LEWIS . . . Portland, and Mrs. James W. Kerns Jr., during the hour that Mrs. Lewis poured. Mrs. Lewis is the aunt of Mrs. Wallace and her brother James Shaw.

IN TOWN FOR THE TEA . . . Mrs. Rollin Rodolph, from San Francisco, visits with friend of many years, Mrs. Edward Hall Pike.

—All Tea Photos by Guderian

SUMMER VISITORS . . . at the Fred Southwell home, 114 Pacific Terrace, were Mrs. T. J. Massey, Clarksdale, Mississippi, and daughters, Sally, 15, center; and Mary Alice, 12. This is Mrs. Massey's first visit with her sister in about 18 years, and much of it was spent in showing the enthusiastic girls scenic spots of the Northwest.

—Photo by Kettler

Society

By MILLY RAMSBY

MRS. RICHARD M. CALLAHAN . . . (Joan Campbell) and daughter, Luvia, two and one-half, who have been visiting with Mrs. Callahan's parents, the Hugh Campbells, 1245 Pacific Terrace. Young Luvia and her parents are now living in Portland.

—Photo by Kettler

Herald & News
Klamath Falls, Oregon