

MR. AND MRS. LAMARR CUNNINGHAM—married in Reno, July 12. Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Linkhart, 4644 Cannon avenue, and Cunningham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Nelson, live in Aberdeen, Washington. Cunningham was a student at KUHS before joining the U.S. Navy; and Carol was graduated in 1951. She will be here until her husband is permanently stationed. —Photo by Evergreen

RAYMOND FOX—and his bride are at the right, and her brother, Donald Cordell and his bride are shown after a double wedding ceremony in the Immaculate Conception Church, in Watertown, S.D. The 9 a.m. service read by the Rev. Fr. Aloysius Krzyzooloski, was followed by a nuptial high mass. Mrs. Fox is the former Regene Cordell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Cordell, and her brother's wife was Louise Shults, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shults. Raymond was a popular member of the Sacred Heart Academy Student Body, and was graduated in 1950. He is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. James Casey, 120 South 8th Street. They are now at Camp Kessler, Miss., where Raymond is stationed. —Photo by Gray's, Watertown, S.D.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY HARRISON MORGAN — who were married July 18 at the Roland Wright home, 635 Alameda Avenue. Mrs. Morgan is the former Ruth Sims of Florence, Alabama, and her husband is the brother of Mrs. Wright. He has spent several summers here with the Wrights, and chose his sister's home as the setting for the informal wedding. The service was read by the Rev. Gordon Ashbee, of St. Barnabas Church, Langell Valley, before a group of intimate friends. White gladioli, snap dragons and delphinium, arranged with greenery decorated the living room; and a multi-colored bouquet of garden flowers was used in the dining room. They will be at home in Florence, Alabama, after their wedding trip. Prior to the wedding, Mrs. Russell B. La Fontaine, Florence, Oregon, a house guest of the Wrights entertained at a luncheon in the Pelican Cafe for the bride. —Photo by Guderian

REFLECTIONS FROM Milly's Mirror

ADDED TO—the pleasure of a honeymoon "family visit" while Mrs. Richard M. Callahan (Jean Campbell) and Mr. Lina were visiting here, was that husband Dick joined her and family on the weekend of the 19th to celebrate a wedding anniversary—the 37th for the Campbells—and the 4th for the Callahans.

MRS. T. J. MASSEY, after a 2 weeks stay here with her sister—boarded again for the return trip to Glendale, Mississippi—with her two young daughters, Sally and Mary Alice—who will have glowing reports to give their father whose large cotton plantation kept him busy at home, while they explored the "territory."

THEY GOT THE WORD—and wherever they were and whatever they were doing—they hurried into fetching summer frocks — hid themselves to turn from Lake O' the Woods—where children — Old friends and admirers in honor of Dode Baldwin—Joan Callahan and Walter Wallace—when Gwen Lorenz decided hastily to entertain for them on July 24—Old Miller and Nellie Garrett, from Iowa City, who is visiting with her parents, the John Gardners, 1038 High Street.

FROM THE EAST—to visit with her sister, Mrs. Guy Hancock, 701 Pacific Terrace—Mrs. William Wagner (Mamie Boyd). She arrived just as the Yadens—Boyd—Myrtle and Boydie — left for the coast—Boyd to recuperate from a serious virus infection—they're all serious—but this one really had him down—they'll be gone for a long week.

ETHEL ROBINSON—Mrs. M. E. and son Jimmy left yesterday by plane for Denver—A big family reunion is planned there for all Henkes—During the two weeks she and Jimmy are gone, Dr. Robinson's mother, Mrs. Lillian Robinson—Iowa City — will stay here with her son and young grandson—who is too young to know one relative from another at reunions.

THE ARCH CAPE CREWS—are getting started in that direction—the Paul Daltons left today—and the Paul Daltons left today—Neil Hicks and family to follow later.

LAKE O'WOODS—is a busy spot—added to those already up there are the McCullochs — Ralph — Dorilla—and daughter Carol — at the stills—who have spent much of the summer up there with their sons—Steve and Doug — AND a series of houseguests — ROSE POOLE—over from Harbor — at "THE OTHER HOUSE"—with Mr. Eleanor Stoner—Lee goes up on weekends—GENE OLDENBURG—and Mrs. Jean Rae and Diane are up at the Ellington Lake home — Lucy went up Sunday—surprised to see Gene back in town—She'd made a quick trip to have a tire fixed—a big nail had been picked up—and who knocked it? — the reply nearly knocked her down—Diane and housepet Sue Ramsby — a tire stayed on!

BREEZES IN THE BACKYARD — at the Juckland's on Auburn Blvd. — a Sunday late afternoon — blew through the many shade trees — after a most perfect polka birthday party for George Clark and Larry Brown—who are both "just the same age as Jack Benny" — Host Jack and spouse Mary staged the main event and Jack turned out some superb "Schaschlyk" — cooked over charcoal — and they served homemade ice cream — like at Amy Brown's "famous family 4th of July picnic."

HELEN AND GEORGE BURGER—at the Winema for a couple of days—with Olga Froemke out here from Chicago—where she is buyer in silks at Marshall Field — has been with them at their El Cerrito home—and George's 17 yr old niece—Doris Munsterman — SP—all on their way back after a trip to Vancouver and Victoria—BC—pleasure for the girls and business for George.

DOWN ON THE DESERT—cooling off in the Country Club Patio adjoining the swimming pool at Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn — Las Vegas—Lola and Marilyn Hemingsen were spotted by our resort reporter—far from their 1304 Crescent Ave address.

Merrill Moose Attend State Conference

MERRILL—A group of Merrill men and women attended the state conference of Loyal Order of Moose and Women of the Moose held in Corvallis, July 25 to 27. Marjorie Ehrmson of Portland, deputy grand regent, was conference leader. Official visitor was Kay Mahaffey of Oakland, member of the grand council of the Women of the Moose. Chapters throughout the state have as their project the establishing of a fund to purchase hearing aids for the aged at Mooseheart.

Joe Chotard was the lucky winner of an electric deep fryer, and a car was also given away as part of the benefit project. Jerry Allan was one of fifty new members initiated at the conference. He will be a member of the Merrill Chapter. The 1953 conference will be held in Coos Bay.

Attending from Merrill were Mr. and Mrs. Max Hartlerode, Mr. and Mrs. John Baley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Allan, Dovie Reeder, Julia Broz, Ray VanMeter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams, former Merrill residents, also attended with the local group.
