Stocks

market moved into its second straight new 1952 high Thursday, and prices were right around their best at the close.

Railroads provided the incentive for the rise and made the widest gains.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced 50 cents at $109.80, a new high for the year and the best since June 10, 1930.

The carriers extended their gains around 2 points at the outside either way.

Business amounted to an estimated 1,100,000 shares.

LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO (AP) — Hog marketing developed a generally steady price tone Thursday although a few early sales were strong to 25 cents higher.

A partial quarantine because of suspected disease in the yards still kept outside order fillers off the market, but this bearish influence was offset by a deep cut in the fresh supply of hogs from the country.

The Department of Agriculture said the embargo on cutgoing shipments might be lifted Monday, allowing additional time for a thorough cleaning of yard areas possibly contaminated by the hog virus vesicular exanthema.

Most butcher weight hogs sold from $21.00 to $23.15 with the $23.25 top paid sparingly. Sows were mainly $17.25 to $21.00.

Good to low-prime steers, yearlings, and heifers sold from $28.00 to $34.00 while cows topped at $21.00, bulls at $24.00, and vealers at $33.00.

Sheep which sold were steady to firm although there were no sales of old-crop lambs and yearlings in slow activity. Good to choice native spring lambs were $28.00 to $30.00.

Iranians Elect House Leader

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Ayatullah Kashani, Iran's most powerful religious leader, was elected speaker of Parliament's lower house (Majlis) Thursday, forging the final link of Nationalist control over the legislative body.

The grim old Mullah (priest) replaces Dr. Hassan Imami, an anti-Nationalist, who left for Geneva last week.

Kashani received 47 votes. A Nationalist deputy, Abdullah Mozami, received 10 votes.

There was speculation whether Kashani will function in the new post, which solidifies his position as one of the strong men behind Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's government. It was believed he might delegate the duties to the deputy speaker, also a Mossadegh man.

Kashani was elected a deputy in exile in 1950, but refused to take his seat.

He jumped into the political arena during the recent crisis which toppled Ahmed Qavam as premier and sent him into hiding.

Qavam, who disappeared after his government was driven from power, maintained in a letter Thursday that he could not be blamed for the deaths and bloodshed in the July 21 riots because he had resigned the day before.

The letter, delivered to leading newspapers by messenger, gave no indication of the former premier's whereabouts.

Informants said unofficially that Mossadegh will impose an annual two per cent tax on all land holdings, most of it owned by Iran's wealthy upper class.

One source close to the government predicted the new levy would bring in at least 330 million dollars yearly — slightly more than the government now is spending.

Iran has edged toward bankruptcy since it took over the property of the British-run Anglo-Iranian oil company last year.

Man Jailed On Morals Charge

James Russell Barnett, 29, of Merrill, is under sentence of eight months on the rock pile at Portland's Rocky Butte jail.

He pleaded guilty yesterday afternoon in District Court to a charge of indecent exposure, the complaint brought by a woman to whom Barnett admittedly exposed himself at Washburn and Eberlein July 28.

Barnett was sentenced to eight months, with the stipulation that the time be served at the Portland jail.

The Merrill man had previously been arrested for another offense—drunk driving—on July 28, after he outsped a State Police car in a chase between Klamath Falls and Merrill, and paid out his fine after a few days in the county lockup.

He was taken into custody again by State Police at Merrill yesterday.

Police Ban Bare Legs

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP) — Women in bare legs have been giving too much competition to the natural beauty of the city's parks, according to the Park Board.

So police have been ordered to hustle women in shorts out of such public places.

"The only limbs we want to see in our parks are those growing on trees," said Paul L. Snyder, chairman of the board.

Circus Tent Imitates Saucer

PRINEVILLE (AP) — The thing that floated around in the sky here was a circus tent. Only the top of it, to be sure, but still a tent.

It took off from the Crooked River Roundup grounds Wednesday while employes of the Davis Amusement Company of Portland were setting up for the coming show. Spectators said it went up several hundred feet, lofted by one of those desert-country whirlwinds called dust devils.

When it came down, it landed not far from its launching site.

Baker Plans Public Hearing

BAKER (AP) — A public hearing will be held here Monday night to determine public sentiment on a $300,000 street improvement program proposed this week by the city planning commission.

Tentative plans call for paving and a through-street system involving 90 to 100 blocks. Property owners would be asked to pay half the cost and the city would propose a 10-year bond issue for the rest.

Correction On Store Sale

The sale of the Midland Store, printed in Wednesday's Herald and News, had Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burke and Mr. and Mrs. John Mistler as buyers.

The Mistlers had nothing to do with the transaction, it was learned reliably today. Mrs. Edna Travers sold the store after 28 years operation, not 17 years as reported.

REDS DECREE PROHIBITION

SRINAGAR, Kashmir (AP) — China's Communists have enforced prohibition in Tibet because of the food shortage there, according to reports reaching here. A directive forbids the use of any foodgrains for the preparation of alcoholic beverages. In the past a type of wine made from barley was widely consumed in Tibet.

Wreck Kills 1, Iniures 4

ROSEBURG (AP)— An evening drive to cool off, cost the life of one man and brought injuries to his four passengers late Wednesday.

Harold C. Tomlinson, 25, of Dillard was killed when his car went end-over-end down a rocky embankment after missing a turn to the Lone Rock Bridge 21 miles east of here.

The left arm of Mrs. Carol Amundsen, 17, Winston, was cut off at the shoulder. Her condition was reported to be fair.

Cuts and bruises were suffered by Barbara Johnstone, 15; her brother Jerry Johnstone, 13, and Jerry Davis, 20, all of Winston, south of here.

The turn at which the accident occurred is a sharp one and scene of several previous mishaps. A new highway now under construction will eliminate it.

Candidate's Dog Bites Small Boy

SPRINGFIELD Ill. (AP) — A three-year-old boy bitten by Gov. Adlai Stevenson's dog, Artie, played Thursday with toys sent by the governor in an effort to make amends.

A toy tractor, a toy duck and a tiny chair, gifts of the Democratic presidential nominee, were presented to John Bierman, 3, by Mrs. Ernest Ives, Stevenson's sister.

Artie, the governor's dalmatian, bit John when the child sought to pet the animal. Artie, who had roamed from the executive mansion grounds to the Bierman yard, was locked up in his kennel.

Zupan Trial Re-Scheduled

A District Court trial scheduled for tomorrow morning has been continued until Aug. 21, to see if by that time Klamath County has a prosecuting attorney.

Mike Zupan, 40, of 429 Commercial, is to be tried on a drunk driving charge. He already is serving a 30-day jail sentence for driving while his operator's license was suspended.

The county has been without a district attorney since last Friday when D. E. Van Vactor resigned to become district judge. His deputy, Frank Alderson, is conducting the office but to prevent any possible question as to his authority to conduct a court trial, Zupan's day in court was postponed by stipulation between Alderson and Ben Goddard, Zupan's attorney.

Gov. Douglas McKay is expected to have made an appointment of a district attorney by that date.

Nation Sees Polio Increase

WASHINGTON (AP)— The government Thursday reported 2,290 new cases of infantile paralysis last week, the highest weekly total so far this year.

The Public Health Service listed the year's total through Aug. 2 at 10,697 cases.

That compared with 10,719 in the record year 1949 and 6,838 last year up to this time.

For the "disease year," which began with the week ended April 5, the total was 9,377 cases, compared with 9,714 in the same period of 1949 and 5,640 for the 1951 period.

August is usually the month of highest incidence for poliomyelitis.

During 1949 the new cases in that month ranged as high as 3,100 to 3,500 a week.

But the Health Service said the peak may have been reached in Texas, which has led the nation with 2,079 cases, nearly one-fifth the national total.

Last week's total of 2,290 cases was 37 per cent greater than the preceding week's 1,667, which had been the 1952 weekly high.

"The disease in epidemic proportions continues to be concentrated in the north and south central states," the service said.

Long First To Die In State Gas Chamber

SALEM (AP)—Wayne LeRoy Long, 28, will meet death Friday morning in a small gas-filled room only a stone's throw from the state penitentiary walls, within which he has spent all his adult years.

When he was 18, he was sent to the prison to serve an eight-year term for assault. Within 25 hours after his release in June, 1950, he had kidnaped and killed a truck driver, Walter Rucker, near Oregon City, had robbed a Portland bank, and had been captured after seriously wounding an FBI man.

He was sentenced to die in the gas chamber and was sent back to prison to await execution. He spent his time trying to escape.

Among the many times he tried to gain freedom, the closest to success was on Sept. 2, 1951, when he escaped from death row, climbed the prison wall, dropped to the other side and was pinned down by guards armed with rifles.

Early Friday morning, he will be taken from his cell in the segregation block, where the most dangerous criminals are kept, to the administration building where he will eat his last meal.

He will have no visitors, except for the prison's Catholic chaplain, Father William McClory. His only relative, as listed on prison records, is a grandmother in Eastern Oregon who is too elderly to make the journey to Salem.

Before the trip to the new death house building outside the prison wall, he will hear his sentence read.

He will ride the few hundred feet in an automobile to shield him from the view of the women prisoners who are housed directly above the administration building.

Present to witness the execution will be prison officials and a few representatives of press services and newspapers, probably no more than 15 or 20 persons.

The gas chamber itself sits in the center of the windowless, concrete death house, with enough room on all sides to form a corridor. The chamber has a large window on each of its six sides.

Long will sit on a chair in the center of the chamber. Under the chair will be a crock filled with hot acid. The chamber will be securely sealed. When a lever is pulled, a few pills will fall into the acid.

The result will be byanide gas which will make him unconscious within 30 seconds, and dead shortly thereafter.

Approximately 15 minutes after the execution, huge blower fans will clear the room of gas, funnelling it up through a tall flue which rises from the center of the building.

Long is the first person to be executed in the new building outside the wall. The last person to die in the gas chamber was Wardell Henderson, who was executed Jan. 23, 1948 for the murder of a Portland man.

Long will be the 14th person to be executed in the gas chamber since it was put into operation in 1939. Prior to that time, hanging was the means of execution.

Two other persons await execution at the prison, Morris Leland, who killed a Portland girl he had been holding captive, and Frank Payne, who killed a Portland grocer during a holdup attempt.
