Stocks

NEW YORK (AP) — Highly selective buying and selling made a fickle affair out of the stock market Friday.

The great bulk of the list held to a fractional range, and most of the time it was on the higher side. But there were wide swings in individual issues that pushed the range to around 3 points higher to 2 points lower.

Volume hit estimated 1,200,000 shares.

Wilson & Co., Chicago meat packers, lost between 1 and 2 points after directors took no action on a common dividend. Three 25-cent dividends have been paid this fiscal year.

GRAINS

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains suffered a mild price mark-down on the board of trade Friday.

Factors tending to send the market lower included week-end selling, reports of freer offerings of cash wheat, a government proposal to slaughter hogs to wipe out vesicular exanthema and heavy buying of cash oats in Canada in recent days by American shipping interests.

Wheat closed ¼ - ½ lower, September $2.34 ⅝-½, corn 1 ⅛-1 ¾ lower, September $1.80 ¼-½, oats ¾ to 1 cent lower, September 84 ¼-⅜, rye ½ to 1 cent lower, September $2.09 ¼, soybeans ¾-1 ¾ lower, September $3.12 ¾-½, lard 7 to 15 cents a hundred pounds lower, September $11.42.
