

"When The American Legion Goes to a Birthday Party"

"BOY!! . . . What a birthday party THIS turned out to be!" Susan Merryman and Phil Juckeland say to each other. Co-celebrants on their 8th birthday date, July 29, when their mothers, Mrs. H. O. Juckeland and Mrs. John Merryman gave the party for them at Moore Park. In the picture above, is a well organized group of their guests with drum majorettes (imagine!) as they intently follow instructions.

ALL THIS . . . and sack races, TOO! at Susan's and Phil's party . . . highlight of which was a surprise visit from Ancel Page, American Legion Drum Major Chairman of Oregon, and Drum Major of Portland Post 1, Portland. From the left, Ronnie Head, John Phillips, Stephanie Lee, and Janet Fowler.

IN SHAKOES and SEVENTH HEAVEN . . . are Jane Black and Janet Fowler, who, otherwise informally garbed, "strut their stuff" in State Champion Doralee Goodwin's and Ancella Page's shakoes, batons; and jointly hold Doralee's trophy cup. Ancella and Doralee are Drum Corps majorettes.

IT JUST HAPPENED . . . that Ancel Page was looking for the M&N staff photographer, and was informed that he was at Moore Park. So there Mr. Page went. With two charming majorettes, one of them, his daughter. What was chaos a moment before is now a calm group standing at attention. From the left, lower right, John Phillips, Jane Black, Janet Fowler, Stephanie Lee, Kathie Black, Rama La Grande, Kent Hunsaker, Ricky Currin, Gary Head, Alice Hoagland, Marian Roberts, Sandra Garner, Joanne Miller, Marsha Mack, Mary Ellen Miller, Jane Carlson, David Poole, Kathleen Murphy, Linda Bennett, Judy Angstead and Bobbie Keller. —All photos by Kettler.

FIREBUILDERS . . . Mike Gallagher (left) and Carl Gorder approach the problem with contrasting expressions . . . Carl will gladly "throw wood on," once the blaze is started.

WHATEVER IS GOING ON . . . getting the undivided attention of Rama La Grande and Marian Roberts to the right, in that order, doesn't concern Stephanie Lee, busy with epicurean effort.

"Atten—SHUN!! . . . Maybe he said . . . whatever he said . . . that's what it looks like. Mothers couldn't keep them from the table to actually get the food on . . . Now look at how Ancel Page has them transfixed in their tracks. See box center of page for names.
