

Stringer - Terry Nuptials

IN THE GARDEN—at her parents' home, was the wedding of Louann Terry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austen Terry, to Joe Stringer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Stringer, Traver, Calif. Above, in the oval, is the bride, posed before the latticed arch, where the service was read. Upper left, the bride at the gift table; lower left, the new Mr. and Mrs. Stringer and the wedding cake; upper right, the bride and her father; and lower right, Mrs. Terry adjusts her daughter's veil prior to the 2 p.m. ceremony in the garden, July 20.

METLER-ROBATCEK VOWS SAID IN PEACE MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN

A large gathering of relatives and invited guests assembled recently in Peace Memorial Church to witness the marriage of Jacqueline Joy Robateck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robateck, 1519 Oregon Avenue, to John Franklin Metler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Metler, 4445 Boardman Street, when the Rev. Dwayne L. Proett read the double ring service at 2 p.m., July 19.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white nylon net and lace over satin, with long sleeves pointed at the wrists. Her veil of nylon net was anchored with a crown of net trimmed with seed pearls. She carried white orchids arranged with stephanotis on a white Bible.

The necklace of pearls she wore, was a gift of the bridegroom.

Maid of honor, Delores Robateck, sister of the bride, wore a ballerina dress of pink net, with matching shoes and hat. Her colonial bouquet was fashioned of Pinnocchio roses, orchid pompons and stephanotis.

The four bridesmaids, Bette Pinner, Sheryl Metler, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Dillard Shipley and Patricia Cunningham, were all dressed as the maid of honor, with the exception of the corsages, which were made with Elf roses.

Sandra Palles, pretty little cousin of the bride, was flower girl, and handsome young Johnnie Yaucy, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Ronnie Wilkerson was best man, and ushers were: Gaynor Huck, Dick Gay, James Metler and Bob Thomsen. The latter two also served as candlelighters.

Added charm to the wedding picture was that of the mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom wore dresses styled the same; Mrs. Robateck in pink lace with white accessories; and Mrs. Metler in blue lace with navy accessories. Respectively, their corsages were of white and pink roses.

For the occasion, the church was decorated with large arrangements of white delphinium, rhubrum lilies and carnations. Other vases contained rhubrum lilies, gladioli, delphinium, carnations and asters.

At the reception, held in the church parlors, Bonnie May Palles poured, Jean Selby cut the cake, and Ida Tennefoss assisted.

The guest book was carried by Mrs. Delbert Acuff, sister of the bride.

Out of town guests included, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Acuff, Longview; Bonnie Palles, St. Cloud, Minn.; Mrs. Elmer Palles, also St. Cloud; and Mr. and Mrs. August Bolenske, Kelso; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williams, Me.; and Mrs. Howard Earyes, Portland; Mrs. Fred Rose, Castle Rock, Wash.; Mrs. Robert Rockholt, Grants Pass; Robert Thomsen, Hood River; James Metler, San Antonio; Bill Ashley, Dick Gay, Curtis Lancaster and Don Johnson from Vallejo.

A navy suit with white accessories was worn by the bride when the couple left for a Canadian honeymoon trip.

FORNEY - ABBOTT VOWS IN MERRILL

MERRILL — A summer wedding at the L. D. Daniel home August 3, united in marriage Alene Jeanette Abbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Abbott, and C. B. Forney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Odis Forney, all of Merrill.

The Reverend G. A. Milne, pastor of the Merrill Presbyterian church, read the 2:30 p.m. single ring service. Baskets of cream-colored chrysanthemums and green ferns placed before a window formed the setting.

The bride's blue and white net dress was street length, sleeveless, and had a full circle skirt. Complementing her ensemble she wore a white hat with blue band and veil and white shoes. A red rose corsage was pinned at the shoulder.

Alene's only attendant was a close friend, Wilma Paulk, whose dress was of light blue net. She also had a red rose corsage.

Herman Daniel, uncle of the bride was best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Abbott chose a printed crepe street-length dress, and wore a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Forney wore green crepe with white carnations pinned at the shoulder.

A reception followed the ceremony. A three-tiered white wedding cake, topped with a bride and bridegroom, and bouquets of summer flowers centered the linen-covered table.

After a weeks' honeymoon trip to the coast, the young couple will be at home in Merrill.

Latticed Arch in Garden Is Background For Vows in Tulalake

A latticed arch, decorated with greenery, in a picket fence was the setting for the wedding of Louann Terry, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austen Terry at their home in Tulalake, to Joe Stringer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Stringer, Traver, Calif. White gladioli were placed in the ground along the fence, and gave the appearance of actually blooming there.

Erected to the archway on the lawn by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore an ankle length dress of embroidered nylon net over white satin with long sleeved bolero jacket of the embroidered net. Her finger tip nylon net veil, lace edged, was held by a tiara of net and seed pearls. Her jewelry was her mother's, a pearl necklace and earrings. The something blue was a lace trimmed blue garter. She carried a Bible centered with a white orchid. The Bible was one she had used in Rainbow For Girls, and she carried her worthy advisor fan from the same organization.

Maid of honor, Ardis Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Long, Tulalake, wore a dress of aqua satin similar to the bride's except that she wore a net stole and mitts. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of salmon hued gladioli.

Best man was Dennis Egeline, from Dorris.

Ushers were Dean and Robert Egeline, also from Dorris.

Robert Terry, brother of the bride, sang "Because" before the ceremony, and "The Lord's Prayer" during the service. Mrs. Wayne Cox, bride's aunt from Grants Pass was organist.

The Rev. Hugh Bronson, former

Housewarming

LANGELL VALLEY—A group of friends gave a housewarming party for Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple, July 26, which was also the 29th wedding anniversary of the Pepples.

A buffet supper was served at midnight after the gifts were opened.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bold, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Ismael Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pepple, Mr. and Mrs. Elva Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Welmer, the Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Ashbee, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haley, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bechoff, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gowen, Mr. and Mrs. K. I. Bold, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pepple and Pam, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeBel, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Partridge, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. House, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rueck, Mr. and Mrs. Ern Givan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess McFall, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Oberheid, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Mr. and Mrs. Dae Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Leiland Harris, Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ferrlund, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCardle, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McFall, Mrs. Nellie Dean, Mrs. Mae Gale, Mrs. Florence Horn, Mrs. Birdie Burk, Mrs. Gladys Kilgore, Mrs. Nonie Pepple and Bud Dean.

SHOWER — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Austen Terry held

(Continued on page 7)

MARILYN NETHERCOTT AND DONALD GOODSSELL EXCHANGE MARRIAGE VOWS IN CARSON CITY

A wedding of interest here was solemnized in Carson City, Nevada, July 11, 1:45 p.m., when Marilyn Nethercott, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nethercott, well known local residents, 439 Jefferson Street, exchanged vows with Donald Edward Goodsell, Del Paso Heights, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Goodsell, Des Moines, Iowa. The Rev. John E. L. Swineford read the service in the presence of close friends and relatives.

For her informal wedding the bride wore a cocoa crepe summer print, black patent bag and shoes, toast colored picture hat of Milan straw, and her shoulder corsage was of yellow roses.

The bridal party left immediately after the ceremony for Sacramento, where a reception was held for other guests at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Emma Mae Senf.

Pouring were Patricia Payne and Mrs. Edward A. Fernandes, friends of the bride from grade school days, and all were college classmates; Patricia now on the society deck of the Sacramento Union; and Mrs. Fernandes lives in Phoenix, Ariz. Her husband is a lieutenant in the USAF, jet fighter pilot, just back from Korea, where he was awarded a Distinguished Flying Cross. At present he is stationed at Luke Field.

Marilyn is a graduate of KUHS Sacramento Junior College, and Sacramento State College. She also attended Pacific University at Forest Grove, where she was affiliated with Kappa Delta Sorority.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Duke University, a member of Cal Delta fraternity, and served with the USAF in World War II.

After a honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe, California coastal points, Yosemite, and Oregon, they are at home, 110 Tinker Way, Del Paso Heights, Calif.

Largest piano stock in this part of the West

- * Knabe
- * Kimball
- * Wurlitzer

Other Leading Make Pianos — Low Prices, Low Terms — Rent a Piano — Rent and Apply Plan — Louis R. Mann Piano Co. 120 N. 7th Hammond Or.

Joan Moore Home From Trip to East And South in July

Joan Moore, returned recently from an interesting trip to the east coast which included attending the 1952 national convention of Alpha Phi at Virginia Beach, Virginia.

With her was Mary Alice Baker, president of the Alpha Phi chapter at Eugene.

They left Portland in June, making stops in Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Philadelphia and New York City, before going to the convention.

After the convention they spent several days in Washington, D.C., sightseeing, and returned home through the south. After a three day stop in New Orleans, the girls visited friends in Houston, Los Angeles and Santa Barbara.

The girls were met in San Francisco by Joan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore and son Tom, where they spent a few days in the Bay Area before returning home.

FLY!
Klamath Falls to Vancouver, B.C.
One Way 31.15
Round Trip 59.20
plus tax
Phone 8873 for tickets and reservations without extra cost.
WORLD-WIDE TRAVEL BUREAU
Winema Hotel

WEDDING INVITATIONS and ANNOUNCEMENTS
Processed or Engraved
From $16.50 For One Hundred
4 Day Delivery!
SHAW STATIONERY CO.
729 Main

SOME WOMEN GIVE THEMSELVES UNTIL "39"

others more... others less. All we know is that a REVENESCENCE-cared-for-skin stays lovely and youthful-looking longer. You see, the moisture time takes away is compensated for by whether you use it as a cream... or a lotion.

Revenescence by Charles of the Ritz

P.S. You'll love the way it helps your make-up glow so radiantly all the day long. $3, $5, $9, $15 sizes (plus tax)

Miller's
Cosmetics — Street Floor

The Integrity of Your Jeweler is Your Best Assurance of Authentic Diamond Value

Diamond buying need not be a risky business... if you place your confidence in a jeweler whose reputation for integrity has been established by years of faithful service.

Over and above our wide choice of styles and scrupulously selected diamonds, we have won countless compliments for our painstaking adherence to one standard... quality.

Before you purchase a diamond ring, let us show you precisely what your diamond dollar can buy. We think you'll find a visit profitable in dollars... and in sense! Terms, of course.

Pickys Jewelers
700 Main St. REGISTERED JEWELER AMERICAN GEM SOCIETY Phone 3151