Royal Shaw invited the same group and their children to meet Jamie and Peter—young sons of Wanda and Robert Wallace—A large plastic auxiliary pool was set up especially for the children—but anticipatory as the safety measure was—after all had arrived—everyone was amazed to discover that TWENTY - FOUR young ones were having a "splashing good time!!"

The Eugene Favells, Alice and Janet—the Richard Callahans' dtr Luvia—Sally and Bob Kent's Barbara and Susan—Young scions of the Tom Watters, Paul and Scott—The George Brosterhous' three boys, Ricky, Gregg and Geo Jr.—the John Moehls' children, Jeff and Nancy—Kathy and Beth, dtrs of the Wesley Lorenz—the Bob Erlandsons' sons, Sig and Niki—Melvin and Virginia Miller's Cindy and Chuck—The Denis Babson's Ann, Steve and Joan—The John O'Neill's dtr Shelley—and the Morris Garrets' sons, Stewart and Mark—To those who claim that KF's population is on the wane — I claim that even tho some of the gals live elsewhere—it looks like an assured "bang-up" summer roll call!!

SOROPTIMIST DELEGATES — Isabelle Brixner, Edna Albrecht, Dena Backes and Ruth Adams are home from the natn'l convention in D.C.—all glowing from a wonderful trip—but glad to be back—At one of the convention banquets—delegates indicated the type of business they represented by wearing a corsage with a clue—Ruth Adams won the prize at her table with a potato — a potato with sparkling vari-colored sequin eyes—further embellished with deep orchid florist ribbon—To the statement, "Oh, you're from Idaho!"—Ruth's ready "NO!" was amplified with a dissertation on KLAMATH NETTED GEMS—and their superior qualities—even to the fact that they are grown in the Klamath Basin with built-in sequin eyes!—It takes more than one to "Build a Better Klamath Basin"—and credit must go to Dena for creating the corsage while the others were busy delegatin'.
