

Ike Says Adlai's Visit To Capitol Shows HST Still Running Democrats

By EDWARD O. ETHELL
DENVER (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower says Adlai Stevenson's White House visit shows the Truman administration is determined to continue its policies through a hand-picked successor.

Those policies, Eisenhower charges, have carried the nation to a situation "of bewilderment, indecision and fear for the future."

In his sharpest attack on the Democrats since his own nomination for the presidency, Eisenhower declared last night in a written statement the Washington conferences between Gov. Stevenson of Illinois and administration leaders presented these "far-reaching implications":

1. The question as to whether the President and his Cabinet "can possibly contemplate using resources of the federal government to influence the judgments of voters."
2. An implied decision to involve non-political officers, through the inclusion of military and national security personnel in the meetings, in a political campaign "in which they have no part."
3. The obvious fact that the Democratic party, if given another four years to control our destinies, would not change its policies.

"The American people want a change," Eisenhower said flatly. Then he gave a hint of issues he will pound at during his campaign by declaring:

"They want a change in order to replace corruption with honesty; reckless spending with economy; inflation with economic stability; mismanagement in foreign affairs with clear-cut policies and programs for positive peace; brazen assertions of 'inherent power' with constitutional government, both in spirit and deed."

The last remark was an obvious slap at President Truman's seizure of the steel industry under what Truman termed the inherent powers of the government. The Supreme Court later held the seizure unconstitutional.

Eisenhower and Sen. Richard Nixon of California were making it clear they will do everything they can to the Stevenson to the Truman administration in the minds of voters.

Before he left for his speech at the Illinois State Fair today at Springfield, Stevenson's home, Nixon told a Denver news conference that the White House meeting was proof Stevenson is "part and parcel of the Truman gang."

He called the meeting "the fatal mistake" of Stevenson's campaign and said, "I'm just surprised it came so early."

"The most compelling issue of this campaign is the desire of the American people for a change in Washington," Nixon went on. "I am convinced by his own words that Mr. Stevenson is aware of that."

He said the meeting "ties Mr. Truman around Mr. Stevenson's neck and he won't be able to shake him off."

Turning to campaign methods, Nixon said he is "completely opposed to personal attacks and completely opposed to a smear." Then he added that the records of candidates must be discussed thoroughly and said:

"If the record, when it is discussed, happens to bring an unfavorable comment, it will be called a smear. But if there is any smearing to be done, it will be the record which will do the smearing."

Meanwhile, Arthur E. Summerfield, chairman of the GOP National Committee, conferred nearby around the clock with Eisenhower and his chief of staff, Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire. They were talking campaign details but no decisions were announced at once.

Harold Stassen, unsuccessful candidate for the GOP nomination, was to lunch with Eisenhower today, another would be nominee, Gov. Earl Warren of California, is due in sometime Friday.

Nixon was to return to Denver tonight. He'll go to the New Hampshire state Republican meeting Aug. 20 while Eisenhower meets Western Republican governors in Boise, Idaho, the same day.

Nixon said he hopes to be in Connecticut Sept. 4, 5 and 6 and may go on to Maine the following two or three days.

More and more people are changing to Medo-Land Milk!

1. Fold the gable top back — the sanitary, double sealed top is easy to open!

2. To close — press inner seal into pouring vent. This will prevent milk getting any ice flavors.

Look for the sanitary, tamper-proof, GABLE TOP CARTON. It's Red, white and blue!
