AP Survey Shows Food Prices Continue To Climb

By The Associated Press
Retail prices of pork, eggs, chickens and potatoes moved higher in many stores this week. The only foods generally lower were a handful of fresh fruits and vegetables.
Most fresh cuts of pork advanced, with some of the more popular items like center-cut chops rising as much as 8 cents or more a pound. Smoked hams and shoulders and bacon rose less or held unchanged.

Pork usually is relatively expensive at this time of year when hog marketings are on a small scale. A few dealers said recent quarantines of some stockyards to halt the spread of a disease which affects only hogs also may have helped tighten supplies.
Top grade large eggs climbed 2 to 3 cents a dozen, also reflecting a seasonal shortage as hot weather limited production and farmers culled their laying flocks of older birds and replaced them with younger pullets.

Butter prices at the wholesale level edged higher as more milk was diverted to fluid channels and ice cream manufacturers.
Broiler and fryer chickens were up as much as 8 cents a pound in some areas.
Beef, lamb and veal prices held at about last week's level except where storekeepers posted special reductions to attract customers.
Spinach and lettuce also worked a little higher, but beets, cabbage, celery, eggplant and peppers were lower in most markets. Corn, cucumbers and onions were in the good buy class price-wise.
As for fresh fruits, peaches, cantaloupes, honeydew melons, lemons, limes, cherries and eastern apples all were a little lower, and grapes were down sharply. Nectarines and plums advanced slightly.
Pears were described as of excellent quality and were among the best fruit buys.
This is National Turkey Week and many store chains and large prime ribs of beef, fowl, cooked hams, grapes, peaches, pears, cantaloupes, corn, cheeses and fresh and frozen fish.

Other foods frequently mentioned as specials for shoppers in the next few days: rib and chuck roasts, independent markets featured turkeys at special prices.

Experts Say Food Adequate

WASHINGTON (AP)—A prominent geographer said Wednesday he believed the world's "food potential" to be adequate for all the people likely to inhabit the earth during the present century.
He thinks the best prospects lay in increasing the yields of existing farm areas rather than trying to tap new land.
Dr. George B. Cressey of Syracuse University, president of the International Geographical Union (IGU), said estimates are that the world's population, now at 2,400,000,000, may approach four billion by the dawn of the next century.
Asserting that improved seeds and more efficient methods will produce larger yields in the more advantageous areas, Cressey told the IGU's 17th international congress.
"Our expanding population will certainly call for more food. The easiest source is through increasing yields on existing farm land."
"The good earth is essentially all in use, and the major map boundaries of cultivated land have become stabilized. This must be emphasized, for there are no longer empty areas worth developing. Idle land does exist, but it is of very unattractive quality."

Stevenson To Visit In Oregon

PORTLAND (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois has given reasonable assurance he will be in Oregon early in September, Monroe Sweetland, state Democratic national committeeman, said Wednesday.
Oregon party leaders hope to have Stevenson, Democratic candidate for President, here for the state Democratic picnic, and have set the date tentatively for Sept. 7. The picnic was originally scheduled for Aug. 24.

TO QUIT
BOSTON (AP)—Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam says OPS Director Ellis Arnall probably will resign Sept. 1 against the wishes of President Truman.

Ding Dong Daddy Of D Line Dashes Into 15th Wedding

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Ding Dong Daddy of the "D" line has taken his 15th bride, but he's in the dog house. She locked him out of their apartment last night, nine days after their marriage.
He is Francis H. Van Wie, 66, former San Francisco streetcar conductor, lion tamer and boxer. His disillusioned bride is 73-year-old Amelia Pritchard, Los Angeles widow.

of her apartment. "No, he's not here. I don't know where he went. No, I didn't know he'd ever been married. I'm going to stay right here until I can make up my mind what to do. I have five children. It's hard to believe he has been married so many times."
Van Wie left home shortly after newspaper stories told of his marriage to Mrs. Pritchard in Las Vegas, Nev., Aug. 5. She said he had been getting telephone calls, one after the other, after the news of their marriage became known.

Byrnes Signs Ike Petition

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—Gov. James F. Byrnes, a lifelong Democrat, signed a petition Wednesday for an independent slate of presidential electors pledged to General Eisenhower.
The former secretary of state told the state Democratic convention last week that as of that time he would vote for Gov. Adlai Stevenson. But he added that he is reserving the right to make up his mind fully before the November election.
Although Byrnes advised the convention to place Stevenson's name on the state party's ballot, he added: "At the same time, I feel strongly that every voter should have the opportunity to vote his convictions."
He noted that the state Republican party was then involved in a legal dispute that could prevent Eisenhower's name from appearing on the ballot. A court ruling since then, however, apparently has assured the Republicans a place on the ballot.

Crewmen Escape Stricken Bomber

SPOKANE (AP)—All 15 crewmen parachuted to safety from a stricken B-29 Superfort just before it crashed and burned early Thursday about 65 miles southwest of Spokane.
The flyers, who bailed out in pitch darkness over sparsely settled wheat farming country, were found by farmers who scoured the area with flashlights.
Fairchild Air Force Base said the pilot ordered all members of his crew to jump after the plane developed engine trouble and before he bailed out.
Base officials did not disclose names or whether there were any injuries to the crewmen, attached to the 11th Strategic Reconnaissance Wing at Fairchild.

Young Navy Men Captured

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two tough-talking Navy prisoners, one 19, the other 18—were behind bars Wednesday after a spectacular but short-lived escape from heavily-guarded Treasure Island Navy Base.
Recaptured within an hour Tuesday after a 90-mile-an-hour automobile chase down a San Francisco peninsula highway, the two were sullen and defiant.
Larry Stout, 19, seaman apprentice from Loveland, Ohio, snapped: "I want to go to a federal pen. I'll kill some Marine guard if they ever send me back."
He told police he wouldn't have been taken alive if it hadn't been for the attitude of his companion, Seaman Apprentice Robert D. Marshall, 18, of Redding, Calif. "He chickened out and talked me out of it," Stout said.
