Egg Throwing Yegg Wins Race

ELYRIA, O. (AP) — Grocery clerk Roland Roberson gave chase when the yegg ran out of the store with a bag of stolen eggs, Tuesday.

But every time he got near his quarry-splat!—the yegg hit him in the face with an egg.

The eggs decided the race and the yegg escaped.

A few hours later, however, police arrested Tarlee Jones near a railroad track, identified him as the egg-thrower, and charged him with petty larceny.

ACTIVATED

SALEM (AP) — The state control center of Oregon's civil defense system will be activated for 40 hours Saturday and Sunday during an eight-state military-civil defense test, Jack Hayes, Oregon civil defense chief, said Wednesday. The control center is in the state office building at the capitol.

G.E. Offers Wage Boosts

NEW YORK (AP) — The General Electric Company offered wage increases and insurance benefits to about 200,000 employes Wednesday.

A spokesman estimated that under the wage offer a majority of the workers would receive total increase benefits ranging from 7 ½ to 13 cents an hour.

Lemuel R. Boulware, vice president in charge of employe relations said in announcing the offer that it would be effective Sept. 15, if various unions had accepted it by that time.

Basically, he said, the wage offer would grant 2½ per cent increase with a 3 ½ cent hourly minimum increase in addition to a raise based on increased cost of living.

Present average hourly earnings of General Electric employes have been estimated at $1.75.

The company now is negotiating with several of the larger unions of its employes.

The two largest are the CIO Union of Electrical Workers, claiming 70,000 workers in 60 G.E. plants; and the independent United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, which claims 50,000 members in 40 plants.

Meetings between the company and these two largest unions are to resume here Wednesday. They began last week.

Sawyer Blasts High Price Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Sawyer says those who predict sharply rising prices are just guessing, and that their unfounded forecasts could help speed up inflation.

He said yesterday he plans to make a survey to get at the real facts.

Retiring Office of Price Stabilization Director Ellis Arnall has said the drought will have "disastrous" effects on prices and that the $5.65 a ton steel price increase will cost the average family $100 a year.

Without mentioning Arnall by name, Sawyer said inflation often is stimulated by public fear that prices may go up.

Danger To Pa's Health Halts Kettle Film Series

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD— (NEA) —Exclusively Yours: It's Percy Kilbride's frail health—not Marjorie Main's unhappiness with the series—that's temporarily halted the "Ma and Pa Kettle" pictures at U-I. With two years of his studio contract to go, Percy told his U-I bosses that film work was too exhausting for him.

And Marjorie's reason for stepping out of the cast of "Dangerous When Wet" at MGM is just what the title implies. Her medics warned her against doing a swimming scene vital to the script because of surgery that removed her sinus membranes four years ago.

Staff members of a movie fan magazine with an upcoming feature predicting that Lana Turner and Fernando Lamas will never wed are quietly chewing their nails to shreds.

Jack LaRue, the heavy who hasn't been in flickers lately, doesn't like it that a pianist named Jack Larue is thumping the ivories at a night spot right across the street from MGM.

English Producer Michael Balcon has writers working on a new Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy comedy feature, to be made in England.

Richard Burton, the British actor who plays young Philip Ashley in "My Cousin Rachel," draws England's top movie project when he leaves Hollywood. He will star in "The Last Enemy," life story of war hero Richard Hillary, who was shot down as a fighter pilot and horribly burned. Plastic surgery gave him a new face and hands, then he rejoined the R.A.F., and was killed at the age of 23.

Rory Calhoun insisted so Lita Baron called off all her night club stints to await the stork in December. The Calhouns had a 1949 date cancelled and aren't taking any chances this time.

Corinne Calvet was helping Dale Robertson with his French pronunciation when he became tongue-tied over the French word for "happy."

"It's really very simple," said Corinne, "you just make a noise like a chicken when it lays an egg."

Those flying-saucer headlines are sweet music at Paramount. The studio's got 'em, with men from Mars yet, in the soon-to-be-released "War of the Worlds." . . . Recommended listening: Marlene Dietrich and Rosemary Clooney's recording of "Too Old to Cut the Mustard." . . . Olivia de Havilland's determined to make the grade as a Shakespearean star. She'll enroll in Lawrence Langner's school for the study of the Bard's works in Westport, Conn.

Bad luck is still dogging Mercedes McCambridge. A few days after she agreed to make her screen return in "The Number," Fox shelved the picture.

Fighting words for actors: In "Mississippi Gambler," Ty Power goes to the home of an old aristocratic southern gent and says, "I'm afraid you wouldn't ask me if you knew my profession."

The old gent glares, "What do you do?"

"I'm a riverboat gambler," says Ty.

"Lord love you son," says the aristocrat, "I thought you were going to say you were an actor."

Argentina finally lifted its ban on 20th Century-Fox movies, invoked before the war when Carman Miranda starred in "Down Argentine Way." The dove of peace settled over the feud when the studio sent Rory Calhoun and Gene Tierney to the land of the gauchos for "Way of a Gaucho."

Two major studios are cooking up ideas for all-sepia musicals on the order of "Stormy Weather" as a starring vehicle for Billy Daniels, who is equalling Martin and Lewis, Josephine Baker and Joe E. Lewis as a Sunset Strip money attraction.

Fox's "Man on the Tightrope," to be filmed in Europe, is the studio's big anti-Communist blast for the year . . . Helen Mack, the former film star who became a radio producer, and hubby Tom MacAvity, TV executive, are denying the separation rumors. It's just that Helen's plans to retire and live in New York didn't work out.
