SEEING IS BELIEVING . . . might be what Mrs. Bill Allen, left, matron of honor and Peggy Hall, bridesmaid, are thinking as bridesmaid Virginia Oberg holds the mirror for the bride.

THE COUPLE . . . admire their wedding presents before leaving on a honeymoon trip to Canada.

AFTER AN ALL PINK WEDDING . . . held Sunday, August 3, at the Congregational Church, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Davidson (Mary Stone) traditionally cut the first piece of wedding cake at their reception held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Harry Stone, 2204 Darrow Avenue.

A HELPING HAND . . . is given to the bride by her mother as she adjusts the Mary Stuart lace cap and blush pink veil.

WARREN OCHS . . . of Merrill, close friend of the family who gave the bride away, escorts her to the church.

Mullins - O'Conner Wedding

SMILES AND A FRIENDLY HANDSHAKE . . . show the newlyweds' appreciation to Rev. John Phelan who officiated at the ceremony, Saturday, July 19.

MR. PATRICK O'CONNOR . . . escorts his daughter, beautiful in a gown of French imported embroidered eyelet.

FOLLOWING THEIR MARRIAGE . . . Mr. and Mrs. James Mullins (Eileen O'Conner) pause for a formal portrait at the altar in the St. Augustine Catholic Church, Merrill.

A TOKEN OF GOOD LUCK . . . as placed in the bride's shoe by the matron of honor, Mrs. Edward McCulley.
