Mary Stone Pretty August Bride Of Alan Davidson

In a lovely all-pink wedding on Sunday, August 3, Mary Stone, daughter of Mrs. Harry S. Stone of this city, became the bride of Alan Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson, Roseburg. Gladoli formed the background for the 2:30 p.m. ceremony, which was read by the Rev. Donald Cassidy of the Congregational Church.

Given in marriage by a close friend of the family, Warren Ochs of Merrill, the blonde bride was radiant in a gown of blush pink slipper satin, with scalloped yoke and sleeves of lace. The full skirt ended in a short train, and with this she wore a fingertip illusion veil, falling from a Mary Stuart cap of lace. A white orchid and fleur de amour formed her bridal bouquet, atop a white Bible, loaned to the bride by Mrs. Denny Lily.

Mrs. Bill Allen of Roseburg, the former Lois Larson of this city, served as matron of honor. She wore a gown of pale pink dotted swiss, fashioned with a low scalloped neckline and full floor-length skirt.

Similarly dressed, in a deeper shade of pink, were the bridesmaids, Peggy Hall, Seattle, and Virginia Oberg of this city.

The attendants carried flat baskets containing pink gladioli. Peggy Bryan was flower girl, carrying a basket of pink and white sweetpeas.

After the candles were lighted by Evelyn Ochs, Merrill, and Marilyn Hardin; Marie Nelson sang "Because," and, during the ceremony, "Bless This House." She was accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Denison, who also played the traditional wedding music.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of navy blue lace with host accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Davidson was dressed in open blue with black accessories, and her flowers were bronze roses.

Serving as best man for the bridegroom was his brother, James, of Coquille. Stuart Knapp, Moscow, Clint Agee, Jerry Coen, and Archie Rutter, all of Roseburg, were ushers.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's mother on Darrow avenue. Mrs. Arthur Oberg and Mrs. Warren Ochs served the cake after the bride and bridegroom had cut the first piece. Miss Martha Lou Allen, Portland, assisted at the punch bowl.

For going-away, the new Mrs. Davidson wore a pink linen dress and navy linen duster with complementing accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. After a wedding trip to Canada, the young couple will be at home in Hillsboro, Ore., where the bridegroom has accepted a teaching position at Hillsboro High School. He was graduated from Pacific University at Forest Grove in June. The bride will be graduated from there next January.

Attending the wedding from out-of-town, besides those in the wedding party, were: Mrs. Stuart Knapp, Moscow, Idaho; Mrs. William Hensen, The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Brown, Rogue River, Mr. and Mrs. William Larson, Springfield, Mrs. James Davidson Jr., Coquille, Gieve Ochs, Merrill, Charles Taylor, Mrs. Archie Rutter, Mr. Bill Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson Sr., all of Roseburg.

BPW Meets At Petroff Home

BPW members met at the home of Blanche Petroff, 2134 Stukel Street, Monday, Aug. 11. Mrs. Petroff held the club's annual picnic in her yard. A ham dinner was enjoyed after the members had a delightful swim.

The committee for the get-together included the following: Eleanor Reel, Beth Griggs, Dorothy Lowell, Nell Stewart, Kitty Hanville, and Blanche Petroff.

Beth Griggs announced that a no-host dinner would be held at the Winema Hotel, Tuesday, Aug. 19. The state president, Fern Trull, Grants Pass, will be at the meeting. She is making an official visit to Klamath Falls.

MERRILL — Senior regent Rose Bailey presided at the Aug. 5, meeting of Merrill Women of the Moose, Chapter 18. Two candidates, Elsie Wolfe and Vera Howell, were elected to membership. Lucille Drago and Cella Young are reported to be ill.

The resignation of Lorena Honeycutt junior regent, was accepted, and Susan Williams nominated to fill the unexpired term of office.

Gloria Vanderhoff Wed In Klamath Lutheran Church

In an impressive candlelight ceremony Gloria Vanderhoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Vanderhoff Sr., exchanged vows with Virgil P. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Nelson.

The Rev. Richard E. Graef read the service which took place at the Klamath Lutheran Church, Saturday, Aug. 9, 7:30 p.m.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her matron of honor was Mrs. J. H. Brown, the bride's sister. Bridesmaids were Mary Nelson, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Eileen Nelson, sister of the bridegroom, and Shirley Alexander, Judy Nelson, cousin of the bridegroom, served as flower girl.

The bridegroom's best man was Bill Hilton. His ushers were Don Hilton, Bud Brown and Hubert Vanderhoff, brother of the bride, Hubert Vanderhoff and Bill Hilton also were candlelighters.

Soloist was John Carter who sang "At Dawning," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Organist was Mrs. Arthur Denison.

The lovely bride wore a floor length, solid embroidered nylon net and satin gown designed and made for her by Mrs. H. Altman. The bodice had a scalloped sweetheart neckline and the long sleeves were pointed at the wrists. The bride wore a headband beaded with mother of pearl flowers from which flowed a scalloped fingertip veil of illusion net. Her only jewelry was a single strand of white pearls.

A white orchid surrounded by red roses and narrow white ribbons tied in love knots formed the bridal bouquet.

The matron of honor wore a strapless pink satin and net dress with a matching satin jacket. The carnations in her headband and bouquet were the same shade of pink as her dress.

The bridesmaids' dresses were the same style as the matron of honor's but the colors were all different. Mary Nelson wore pastel blue, Eileen Nelson wore a soft gold, and Shirley Alexander wore a pastel green. Their carnation headbands and bouquets matched the color of their gowns.

Blonde, curly haired Judy Nelson, looked adorable in a floor length dress which was a miniature of the bride's gown; the only difference between the two being the BONANZA — A large group of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Partridge and Mrs. Grace Blaser gave them a pleasant surprise the evening of August 1, when they brought the makings for a weiner roast and nice gifts for the new home Mr. and Mrs. Partridge are building. A social evening was enjoyed following the outdoor meal. About one hundred persons attended the party.

MULLINS-O'CONNOR NUPTIALS IN ST. AUGUSTINE'S IN MERRILL

At a ten o'clock wedding Saturday, July 19, in St. Augustine Catholic Church, Merrill, Eileen O'Conner became the bride of James Mullins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Mullins of San Francisco. The Rev. John Phelan officiated at the ceremony.

The attractive bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Conner of Malin, was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a gown of white imported French eyelet marquisette over white satin and her veil of net and lace fell from a white satin Juliet cap trimmed with white seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Edward McCulley, matron of honor, wore a dress of yellow and white carnations. The bridegroom's sister, Patricia Mullins, served as bridesmaid, and wore a gown of orchid marquisette over orchid satin and carried a yellow and lavender bouquet.

Mary McAuliffe, was Eileen's pretty little flower girl.

Organist was Ann Mullins, sister-in-law of the bridegroom and his brother, Bernard, was soloist.

Large arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums were used and Carl O'Conner, brother of the bride, lighted the altar candles.

Another brother of the bridegroom, John Mullins, was best man and Joseph Fox served as usher. Assisting Father Phelan as altar boys were Carl O'Conner and Randy Miller.

A navy blue lace dress was chosen by Mrs. O'Conner for her daughter's wedding, and she wore a white orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Mullins wore a two piece dress of aqua silk print and with it she wore a purple orchid.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Merrill Recreation Hall.

The four tiered wedding cake centered the white linen covered refreshment table and bouquets of pink rosebuds in crystal bowls were placed at either end. White candles completed the table decorations. The cake was served by Joan Murphy, assisted by Barbara.
