Civil Defense Test Studied

SALEM (U) — Oregon's civil defense leaders Monday were wearily compiling the results of a marathon 40-hour practice emergency which ended Sunday night.

Described by State Director Jack Hayes as "the most worthwhile project yet undertaken in civil defense," the practice alert included such emergencies as air attacks, forest fires, sabotage and coastal landings.

The "emergencies" were described in messages sealed in envelopes with the "time of occurrence" written on the outside.

When the emergency was pronounced to have occurred, real radio, phone and teletype messages calling for help were dispatched from the state headquarters in Salem to county civil defense units.

The county offices, in turn, contacted doctors and emergency equipment in their areas and checked the availability of equipment, blood plasma and personnel. Although no equipment was moved to the sites of the supposed disasters, an estimate of the time needed was compiled.

Success of the eight western state civil defense operation will be determined at a critique to be held at Ft. Lewis, Wash., Aug. 28 between the military and civil defense personnel of the Pacific Northwest states. An Oregon critique is set for Sept. 3, Hayes said.

Three Facing Theft Charge

Three young men arrested here Saturday have been taken to Lakeview to face charges of taking a dump truck without permission of the owner.

The three men were Jack Treat, 18, his brother, Burr Treat, 21, and Bob Totten, 18, all of Klamath Falls.

They have been employed by a Klamath Falls firm, the Burns Paving Company, on a street surfacing project in Lakeview. Lake County Sheriff Tommy Elliott said they were reported to have taken a dump truck belonging to the Burns company and later wrecked it near Quartz mountain.

The three were arrested here Saturday by Sheriff Murray Britton and taken to Lakeview late that day by Sheriff Elliott.

Sparkman Hits Steel Case

WASHINGTON (U) — Sen. John J. Sparkman, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, describes the steel case as "badly mishandled" in a copyright interview published Monday by the U.S. News & World Report.

"I think that the steel case was badly mishandled from the very first day," Sparkman was quoted by the weekly news magazine.

Truce Talks Due Tomorrow

MUNSAN, Korea (U) — United Nations and Communist truce delegates meet tomorrow at Panmunjon, ending a week-long recess that produced no visible hint of progress.

The delegates are scheduled to meet at 11 a. m. Tuesday (9 p. m. Monday, EST) in the faded conference tent.

They probably will pick up right where they left off last week—arguing fruitlessly over prisoner of war exchange, the only issue blocking an armistice for Korea.

4 Saved From Burning Boat

ASTORIA (U) — Four Portlanders were rescued from the Columbia River here Sunday after their 25-foot cabin cruiser burst into flames.

Other sports fishermen who were at the mouth of the river pulled to safety Oscar Ahlsten, William Melidormut, Louise Cornelius, and Walter Smith.

CAMEL

...big league choice for Mildness and Flavor

ED LOPAT, Yankees, has tried different cigarettes. Says Ed: "I picked Camels for mildness and flavor! No other cigarette gives me so much pleasure!"

JOHNNY PESKY, Detroit Tigers, states, "I've compared Camels with other brands. I'm staying with Camels! Camel mildness and flavor suit me to a 'T'!"

RAY BOONE, Cleveland shortstop, says, "30 days of smoking convinced me Camels are the cigarette for steady smoking. They're mild and taste great!"

VERNON STEPHENS, Red Sox, has been smoking Camels for years. He knows why people say, "Once a Camel smoker, always a Camel smoker!"

MIKE GARCIA, Cleveland Indian hurler, reports, "I've smoked Camels a long time and I know how mild and flavorful a cigarette can be!"

"PREACHER" ROE, Brooklyn Dodger left-hander, tried different leading brands. Says "Preach": "I picked Camels for mildness and flavor!"

DICK SISLER, St. Louis Cardinals first-base man, states, "Camel mildness and flavor made a hit with me. I'd walk a mile for a Camel any day!"

HANK BAUER, Yankee outfielder, says, "Camels have everything I want in a cigarette — mildness and taste! My own 30-Day Test proved that!"

BILLY COX, Dodger infielder, tried out different brands and has this to say about cigarettes: "My choice for steady smoking is mild, flavorful Camels!"

WILLIE JONES, Phillies third-sacker, states, "I made my own 30-Day Camel Test — judged Camels in my 'T-Zone'. Camels are mild and taste great, too!"

VERNON RICKFORD, Boston Braves pitcher, reports, "Take it from me, no other cigarette compares with Camels for flavor and mildness!"

EDDIE ROBINSON, Chicago White Sox, says, "Camel flavor keeps tasting good, pack after pack. And Camel mildness suits my throat just fine!"

ANDY SEMINICK, Cincinnati Red catcher, made his own 30-Day Test and says: "I proved to myself how mild and good tasting Camels are — puff after puff and pack after pack!"

JIM BUSBY, Washington Senators outfielder, says, "Nobody can tell me about cigarette mildness. I've been smoking Camels for years and know how mild a cigarette can be!"

WITH THE FANS and players, Camel is America's most popular cigarette! Smoke Camels yourself for 30 days. Test them and compare them in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste). See if you don't agree with these Big League stars that Camels are mild and have a rich, full flavor. You'll soon see why Camel leads all other brands.

America's Choice
Camel leads all other brands by billions of cigarettes!
