

LOCAL DRIVERS TRIUMPH

Locals Trail Behind

For the second showing in a row California drivers caused the money and the honors out at Gens speedway last night.

The night's champion hand-top operator was Mac Maggard of Sacramento, who got into the main event by the back door but lagged practically all the field to finish first, a good third of the length of the track from his nearest competitor.

Maggard had qualified for the semi-main, a 12-lap race, and placed second in it, close on the wheels of Woody Thomason of Yreka out of a field of 10 hopped up cars.

Ten cars also were starting the 20-lap main, plus the two leaders from the semi-main, Thomason and Maggard, who were entitled to tail positions. Thomason was out of it almost from the start, but Maggard jumped up to about third place in a hurry behind Frankie Johnson and Jerry Barlow, both of Mt. Shasta.

For the first half of the run it was a duel between Johnson and Barlow, and then Johnson had to depart with motor trouble and Maggard's little coupe (No. 61) leaped to challenge Barlow's blue and white speedster.

At about the 16th lap the Sacramento driver went into the lead and gained from then on in a narrow war with the Phillips of Yreka third, Dick Johnson of Sacramento fourth, and Bob Hooper, Sacramento fifth.

The only Klamath Falls driver in the main event, Dale Hankins, finished seventh in the field.

The first heat race was won by Don Floyd of Mt. Shasta, with Arthur Betch of Klamath Falls second and Dick Harchus, Weed, third. Woody Thomason won the second six-lap race, followed by Hankins and Dick Johnson. Maggard was the third heat winner; Chuck Robinson of Yreka and Al Rossi of Mt. Shasta second and third, while Hooper won the fourth heat, trailed by Jerry Barlow and Slim Swenson of Weed.

Maggard and Thomason duelled in the four-lap trophy dash, the winners of the first four heats competing, and Maggard inched into the lead on the last turn.

Still another six-lap race was won by Chuck Robinson, with Barlow second and Maggard third. Robinson and Barlow duelled all the way, with 11 cars starting.

PIT MEN RACE

A special five-round run with pit men taking over the cars was won by Ralph Martin of Becks, driving a usually piloted by Ray Torry of Mt. Shasta, and the second special — featuring the driving of Sam Neslin, operator of the Oregon Woolen Store, and Dick Maguire, manager of Becks, driving K-F-11 — was won handily by Neslin.

He drove a car belonging to Bob Hooper, a vehicle that showed good in every event entered, while Maguire piloted a sedan entered by Al Shasta of Mt. Shasta. It was five laps and Neslin took the lead on the first one.

The semi-main provided the spills. George Smith of Klamath Falls rolled his coupe on the near turn in the eighth lap and Jesse Freitas went into the wall at the same time. But both got help in time to finish. Freitas 7th and Smith last out of 10 cars.

The races drew a full house at the speedway.

Bullard For Rick

Robert Bullard, Umatilla, was chosen to replace Malin's Wayne Rick for the East team in the Shrine All-Star Class B football game in Pendleton, Aug. 30.

Rick was counted out when he signed a professional baseball contract with the Salem Senators of the Western International League. Roy Robbins, captain of last year's Echo team, will take the place of Clarence Boston, Joseph, on the East team; Stanley Falk, Halsey, substitutes for Eddie Graham, Creswell, on the East team. Boston is in the Armed Services; Graham quit because of sickness.

The two teams opened practice yesterday, the Westerners at Pendleton, the Easterners at La Grande.

Huge Shoot Gets Going

VANDALIA, O. (AP) — More than 600 of the nation's top gunners, plus several from Cuba and Canada, were on hand Monday for the opening 200-target event of the 53rd Grand American Trapshoot.

Seven championships were to be decided during the day's firing.

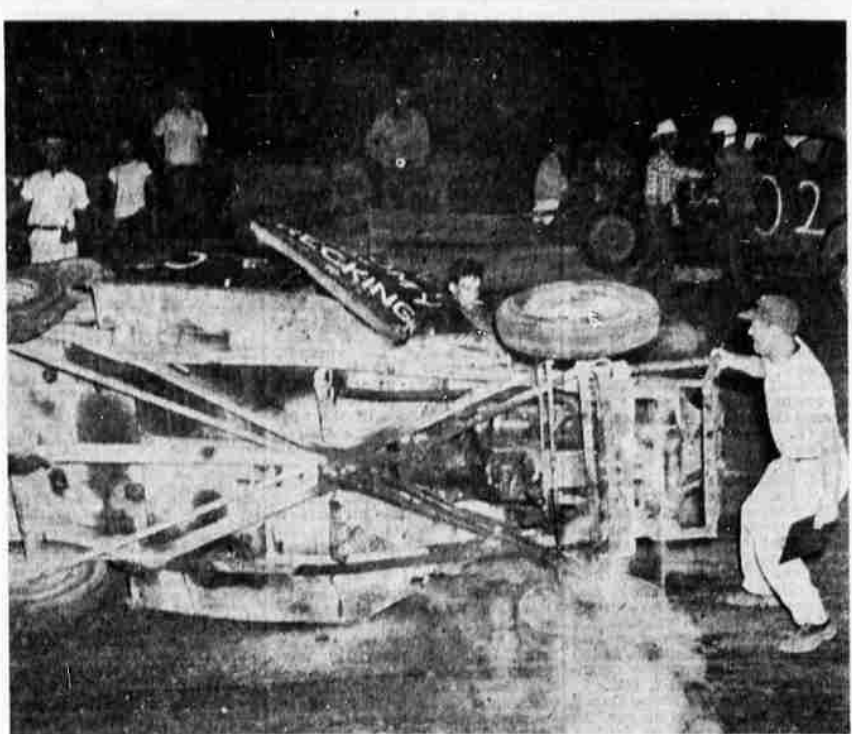

Thirty-three more will be won before the curtain falls next Sunday on the 1,000 target program. Although the entry list for the annual classic is expected to be off about 100 percent from last year, more than $200,000 in purses and optional pool winnings will be picked up by the hot shots.

Three days of preliminary firing wound up Sunday when three men tied for first place in the Dayton homecoming event. They were to compete in a shoot-off Monday to decide the winner.

Phil Miller, Reno, Nev.; Herb Bush, Canton, Ill.; and C. J. Baker, Warren, O., each broke 200 straight birds in the 18-yard homecoming preliminary.

Jockey Nick Shuk rode 101 winners in Maryland in 1951. This was more than double the total of some other riders.

SPEEDWAY SPILL—George Smith, Klamath Falls driver entered in last night's hard top races, rolled his car over on the 8th lap of the semi-main event, but wasn't hurt. At the same time Jesse Freitas, also of Klamath Falls, went into the wall on the same curve. Both managed to finish the race despite the mishaps.

Sports Editor In Hospital

Red Hurd, sports editor of the Herald and News, is at the Klamath Valley Hospital with his left foot in a cast today.

He broke his heel in three places yesterday afternoon, jumping into a shallow swimming pool to pull out his 20-month-old son, Gregory.

The incident happened at the private pool at the Howard Barnhill residence on Conger Avenue.

The boy was playing around in the shallow water when he got his head under the surface. Hurd jumped to the rescue — and landed in the hospital. Gregory is all right.

Hurd will be on crutches for a few days.

LIKE TO FITCH

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Hague, who helped pitch the Yankees to their third straight American League pennant last fall, has been flying around in circles. Cut adrift by the Yankees while they were in St. Louis, Hague flew to New York to await reassignment of his contract. A day later he flew back to St. Louis after the Browns picked him up at the $1,000 waiver price. Hague came to the Yankees from the Browns via Kansas City last year.

CARY, BURKE IN TITLE PLAYOFF

By SKIPPER PATRICK

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Gary Middlecoff breezed into his second tournament playoff within a week today, meeting Jack Burke Jr. of Houston, Tex., for the Kansas City Open golf title.

The Memphis, Tenn., pro and Burke tied at 276 strokes, 12 under par, at the end of the regulation 72 holes in the $15,000 tournament.

The 18-hole medal play match for the $2,400 first prize was scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m. over the 6,208-yard, par-72 Milburn Country Club course.

Just a week ago today Middlecoff lost a playoff to Julius Boros, Mid Pines, N. C., in the $25,000 "World" Golf Tournament at Chicago.

In yesterday's competition, Burke turned in a sizzling 5-under-par 67 after missing a 30-inch putt on the last hole. He blamed the bark of a dog, which came just as he started his putt, for the miss. Middlecoff played his last two holes in a driving rain and got a 69.

Burke, who won four consecutive tournaments earlier this summer, played eight rounds of sub-par golf in the Tam-O-Shanter and "World"

Amateurs Go At It

SEATTLE (AP)—The United States Golf Association lifted the curtains on its 52nd annual National amateur golf show Monday with a cast of 200 selected performers ready to begin the week-long competition for the championship.

Veteran observers of the event think the title fight is wide open, and few expect the defending champion, young Billy Maxwell from Dallas, Tex., to hang on to the crown he won at Bethlehem, Pa., a year ago.

This prediction is hardly of the bold variety, for no champion in the U.S. amateur blue ribbon fixture has scored twice in succession since Lawson Little subdued the field in 1934-35.

This is Seattle's first view of the amateur, and the scene is the Seattle Country Club. Its rolling acres offers a quality test of golf that measures 6,323 yards and par of 35-36-71.

Ordinarily club members play to par 73. But the exacting USGA trimmed a stroke off the par five sixth and 16th holes, doubtless to the chagrin of those familiar with the place.

Seventy-two matches were on Monday's schedule, and 56 players drew a day's respite via byes in the blind draw. As has been the custom the past few years, there is no on-the-spot qualifying. The boys simply start hammering away at each other in match play on the first day.

Walcott, Marciano Sept. 23

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A crown resting uneasy on his brow, carefree Jersey Joe Walcott will put his world heavyweight championship on the line here September 23rd against undefeated Rocky Marciano, a swarming, club-fisted puncher from Brockton, Mass.

This marks only the second time in more than 7 years that the 38-year-old Cinderella man of boxing from Camden, N. J., ventures to place at stake the title he wrested from Ezzard Charles with a seventh-round knockout in Pittsburgh last year.

Marciano, undefeated in 41 bouts where Charles failed last June to knock the teetering royal headpiece of boxing from Walcott's time-weathered brow.

And indications are the New England clubber would go into the ring at vast Municipal Stadium an approximate 2 to 1 favorite.

Walcott will place the title in jeopardy for 40 per cent of the gate in a battle which will be televised only to theaters and blacked out even for cinema-viewers in Philadelphia and New England.

Marciano has cut himself in for 20 per cent of the take.

The formal signing of the pact is expected here Tuesday or Wednesday.

Portland Bashes Rainiers

By The Associated Press

Seattle and Portland played their last scheduled games of the 1952 Pacific Coast League season Sunday, and there were few regrets in Seattle when the Beavers headed south for a series at Los Angeles.

Three weeks ago when the two teams played at Portland, Seattle was in fourth place when the series opened and in the second division when it ended.

History repeated at Seattle. Seattle was in fourth place with a 2 1/2 game buche when the Beavers dropped in last Tuesday. They were in fifth place, half a game behind the Oregonians after Sunday's 4-2, 6-0 sweep by Portland.

The Beavers took the series 6-2 — the same margin in the earlier clash.

Right-hander Art DeDucca was coasting along on a no-hitter for five innings of the first game. In the sixth, the Beavers unloaded for five hits and all their runs. Fred Sanford twirled a one-hitter in blanking the Rainiers in the nightcap.

Hollywood had an easy time of it taking the opener from San Francisco 15-5. Then the Stars staged a clean inning rally to make it a clean sweep 7-6.

They didn't gain any ground as Oakland whipped Los Angeles 8-4 and 10-1.

Sunrise Loses

The Sunrise boys baseball team lost to Mt. Shasta 4-3 Saturday at Mt. Shasta in an 11-inning strike-out duel.

Modesto Jimenez of Sunrise fanned 11, while the Mt. Shasta pitcher fanned 12. Each team got five hits.

Sunrise is playing Heilbronner's at Recreation Field this evening.

Waivers

KERRVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Four members of the Dallas Texans professional football squad were put up for waivers Monday by coach Jim Phelan. Among them was Bill Pray, former University of Idaho guard.

Tribe Pushes Toward Top

By The Associated Press

Cleveland's Indians and New York's Giants continued to apply the pressure on the league leaders but the spotlight was lifted off the pennant races and shifted to the two St. Louis clubs Sunday.

In the mound city, rookie Stu Miller was deprived of a chance to join seven other rookies who have hurled a pair of shutouts in their first two major league starts.

Shortstop Billy Hennes made a double error, with two out in the ninth inning to let in the lone Cincinnati run in the Cardinals' 2-1 triumph. The Columbus, Ohio, grad had pitched a 1-0 shutout win over the Chicago Cubs in his first start last week.

In Detroit, the Tigers and Browns got a standoff in their big "waiver" swap of a week ago.

Ned Garver pitched Detroit to a 4-2 victory over his old Brownian mates after outfielder Vic Wertz had whipped his ex-Tiger mates with a two-run homer for a 4-2 triumph in the first game. Wertz also homered and hit two stingles in the second game.

Cleveland closed to within a game and a half of the American League-leading New York Yankees, sweeping a pair from Chicago's White Sox, 6-2 and 2-1, behind Bob Feller and Mike Garcia. The Yanks, meanwhile, nipped the Red Sox in Boston, 3-2, on Yogi Berra's double and Gene Woodling's single in the ninth inning.

The Giants missed a fine opportunity to cut deep into Brooklyn's huge first-place lead in the National by splitting with the Boston Braves while Philadelphia's Phillies were shading the Dodgers 2-1.

Dave Koslo outpitched Warren Spahn, 4-2, in the nightcap after the Braves, led by Sid Gordon's three-run homer, had won the opener. 6-3. Koslo's win moved the Giants to within seven and a half games of the Dodgers.

Washington clung to fourth place in the American, dividing a pair with Philadelphia. Bob Porterfield won his 10th with a 7-2 first-game triumph for the Nats but the Athletics overcame a 5-0 deficit to take the second, 12-5.

Ralph Kiner helped Pittsburgh gain a split in the double bill with the Cubs, hitting his 26th homer of the year to lead the Pirates to a 5-2 nightcap win. That was the score of the Cubs' first game triumph as Bob Rush drove in three runs in registering his 12th triumph.

Panter, Snapp In Boise Mix

Ursal (Jack) Snapp, with one warmup win under his belt here, squares off against highly-rated Garth Panter in Boise, Idaho, tonight.

Dick Hronek of the Idaho Statesman will be at ringside to cover the fight for the Herald and News.

Snapp, the Merrill Mauler, cooled Paul Kennedy of Los Angeles at the Armory here Aug. 8, in his first fight for over a year.

Panter is listed among the best middleweights in the country and will probably be favored to beat Snapp.

Snapp, who finished his schooling at the University of Southern California, takes over teaching job in September in Cloverdale, Calif. It's unlikely The Snapper will show before the home folks before he moves to Cloverdale. Promoter Mack Lillard said last night that "no boxing cards are in sight."

Jacobs Wins Jaycee Golf

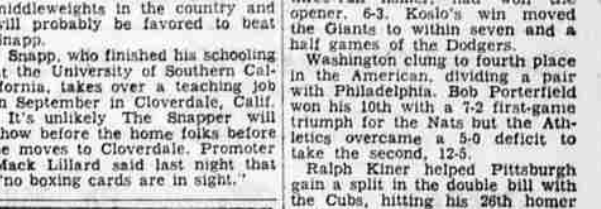

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—Tommy Jacobs of Mountbello, Calif., won the Junior Chamber of Commerce junior golf tournament but Kevin Riley of Vancouver, B. C., carried home the first International Jaycee trophy.

Riley fired a 73 on the par-72 Eugene Country Club course Sunday to capture the international trophy match.

Jacobs, who posted a two-under-par 290 for 72 holes to win the Jaycee tournament Saturday, carded a 74 Sunday to finish second behind Riley.

Wendell Kop, Honolulu, was third at 78 and Gene Howard, Jr., of the District of Columbia, fourth at 79.

Roger Boyd of Tacoma, an early leader in the Jaycee tournament, shot an 81 Saturday and finished with 304 for 72 holes. Riley was next among Pacific Northwest players with 317.

Hall For Paige?

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—A movement is afoot to vote Satchel Paige, the practically ageless Negro pitcher, into baseball's Hall of Fame, and after considerable thought we have decided it is the thing to do.

If you want to go by Paige's rather brief record in the big leagues, then he does not, of course, belong among the statuary at Cooperstown, N. Y. But when all the factors of his amazing career are considered, there can exist little doubt that the slim, slow-talking master of control deserves to be the first of his race to win the game's highest honor.

Here, by all the evidence, is one of the great pitchers, one who almost certainly would have ranked with the Mathewsons and Alexanders and Johnsons but for the fact that he came along too soon, before Jackie Robinson broke down the racial barrier in 1946 with Montreal.

No one can say for certain what

Paige's record would have been if he had come to the big show in his prime, but it is possible to make a mighty good guess. Fifteen and 20 years ago, big leaguers who had run afoul of his fast ball on some winter tour would talk about him in the dugouts, and sometimes you felt they must be exaggerating.

They said he was as good as Dizzy Dean or Lefty Grove and would tell remarkable tales of duels between him and reigning big league aces out in the barnstorming country. We recall one well known batter of the period — possibly it was Paul Warner — saying earnestly, "I'm glad he ain't in this league."

But for all that, Satchmo remained a sort of living fable, a dusky Paul Bunyan of the baseball world, until Bill Veeck ran him down between one-night stands in 1948 and signed him to a Cleveland contract. The most amazing thing of all is that Paige, though by then almost certainly in his high 40's, still retained enough of his ability to make men marvel at what he must have been in his prime.

The final proof, if it were needed, came in that 12-inning shutout Satch pitched against the Detroit Tigers recently. By any yardstick it ranks among the outstanding feats of baseball history — a reliever of 50 years, more or less, showing the youngsters how. After that, who can doubt what the man would have done 20-25 years ago if he had had the opportunity.
