Stevenson Hides From Public In Luxurious Wisconsin Home

MINOCQUA, Wis. (AP) — Gov. Adlai Stevenson hid from the public and politicians today on a huge timbered retreat near here pondering his presidential campaign, doing some speech writing, and resting until Friday for the hard grind that lies ahead.

For the first time since his nomination in Chicago the Democratic presidential nominee could enjoy virtually complete isolation. Even his telephone number was unlisted.

He agreed to see reporters in his hideaway at noon for a news conference—but then the gates were to swing shut again.

He will return to Springfield Friday and plunge into more pre-campaign work.

There were indications the governor will open his Western tour with a speech Sept. 3 in Denver, headquarters of GOP presidential nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower.

This was the date officials of the National Plowing Contest invited him to speak at Kasson, Minn., after vetoing his plans for a twin-bill speaking engagement there Sept. 6, following Eisenhower.

Stevenson said a previous commitment would prevent his appearance in Kasson Sept. 5.

Reporters straggled along after Stevenson by train from Springfield late Monday when he took off by private plane for Chicago en route here. They finally caught up with him here last night.

Canada Minister's Sister Named In Passport Fraud

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department Tuesday named a sister of Canada's minister of public health and welfare as among those involved in its investigation of alleged immigration visa frauds. She is Mrs. Aline Steigerwald of Windsor.

In a statement, the department said she is reputed to have acted as an advisor to Canadians seeking border crossing papers.

Her brother, the department said, is Canadian Public Health Minister Paul Martin.

The Justice Department is looking into the status of some 100 Canadians who have immigrated to the Detroit area.

Attorney General McGranery said 10 days ago that inquiry has established that many obtained visas to enter the United States by misrepresenting their financial situation to the American consul at Windsor.

The Justice Department emphasized that it is without jurisdiction over any activity in which Mrs. Steigerwald may have engaged inside of Canada.

Department officials said there is no evidence that she had committed any offense on American soil.
