Recipe

EASY DOES IT
Fill pitted cooked prunes with cottage cheese and pack in a small paper cup container for a school-going lunch box salad. Children enjoy foods they can pick up and eat with their fingers. This combination is very nourishing and keeps in perfect condition till lunch-time.

LIGHT-EASY
After a heavy dinner, a dessert like this will please your guests. Cover drained canned fruit cocktail with 1/4 cup or more of kirsch or cognac. Let this marinate while you serve the main course. Then place a spoonful in the bottom of each chilled sherbet glass. Top with a scoop of French custard ice cream and more fruit cocktail.

LOOK, TASTE GOOD
Cream puffs are an easy dessert that look like great works of art. Fill them with vanilla pudding made with pudding mix which has chocolate bits and coarsely chopped walnuts added while it is still hot. Serve hot chocolate sauce over top. Make the puffs small because this is a rich dessert served this way.

NEW TWIST
Here's a new twist to an avocado and lettuce salad. Rub a bowl with artichoke hearts and a sliced California avocado. Toss lightly with a mild wine vinegar and olive oil dressing accented with a little tarragon vinegar. Season with salt. Top with crumbled Roquefort cheese.
