

TIME OUT!

"Doggone it, ump, I tell you he didn't even tag me!"

The STANDINGS

By The Associated Press AMERICAN LEAGUE

Table with columns for team names (New York, Cleveland, Boston, etc.) and their win-loss records.

Thursday's Results Chicago 6, New York 1 Boston 4, Cleveland 1 Washington 3-1, St. Louis 2-8

Table with columns for team names (Brooklyn, New York, St. Louis, etc.) and their win-loss records.

Thursday's Results Chicago 8-5, New York 6-10 St. Louis 3, Boston 2 Brooklyn at Pittsburgh, rain

Table with columns for team names (Hollywood, Oakland, San Diego, etc.) and their win-loss records.

Thursday's Results Oakland 2, Seattle 1 Los Angeles 4, Portland 2 San Diego 10, Hollywood 6

Table with columns for team names (Victoria, Spokane, Vancouver, etc.) and their win-loss records.

Thursday's Results Victoria 4-4 Tri-City 0-5 Yakima 7, Spokane 4 Lewiston 4-4 Wenatchee 2-13 Salem 11-4 Vancouver 2-2

Yanks, Indians In Crucial Set

By RALPH RODEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

A month ago the Cleveland Indians were pronounced dead as an American League pennant threat.

Today, the Indians could well recall Mark Twain's famous quotation: "Rumors of my death are greatly exaggerated."

The Indians appeared to be knocked out of contention on Black Tuesday July 22 as they dropped a doubleheader to the New York Yankees and fell 7 1/2 games behind the Bombers.

But the Indians never entered the happy hunting grounds. Instead they climbed back into the thick of the race and today they invaded the Yankee Stadium for a two-game series with first place at stake.

Cleveland, trailing the Yanks by one game, could take over the lead by one percentage point by beating the Bombers in the series opener.

Big Mike Garcia (15-8) has been nominated to face the Yanks' Albe Reynolds (15-7) in the first game.

Early Wynn (16-10) is scheduled to go against New York's Vic Raschi (14-3) in the concluding game Saturday.

SHOWERS Showers are forecast for today and if the game is rained out the teams will clash in a doubleheader tomorrow.

If both games are rained out the series will have to be played in Cleveland as this is the Indians' last visit to New York.

The Yanks play the Tribe a single game in Cleveland Sept. 14. The next day is an open date for both clubs.

Garcia sports a 3-0 record against the Yanks and will be pitching with four days rest. Reynolds has won two out of five from Cleveland and will be starting his first game in five days.

Both the Indians and Yanks suffered defeats yesterday. The third place Boston Red Sox knocked off the Indians, 4-1, and the Chicago White Sox upset the Yanks, 6-1, to sweep a three-game series.

Washington and St. Louis divided a twilight doubleheader, the Senators winning the first game, 3-2, and the Browns the second, 8-1.

winning the first game, 3-2, and the Browns the second, 8-1.

SPLIT In the National League, the Chicago Cubs impeded New York's pennant bid by splitting a doubleheader with the Giants, winning the first game, 8-6, but losing the second, 10-5.

The Mexican standoff kept the Giants seven games behind front-running Brooklyn. The Dodgers game with Pittsburgh was rained out. Philadelphia and Cincinnati were idle while in the circuit's only night game, St. Louis nipped Boston, 3-2, for its sixth straight victory.

Sid Hudson scattered seven hits in beating the Tribe's "spot pitcher," Steve Gromek. The Red Sox nipped Gromek for all of their eight hits and runs in seven innings.

The Yanks, conserving their best pitchers for Cleveland, opened with a second liner for the third straight time and failed. Rookie Tom Gorman was beaten in the first inning and had no one to blame but himself.

WILD THROW Gorman walked home one run and his wild throw permitted two more White Sox players to score. The three runs were more than Billy Pierce required. The ace Chicago left-hander held the Yanks to five hits in gaining his first triumph in six attempts over the world champions.

Spec Shea turned in his 10th victory for the Senators in the first game at Washington. Shea allowed only five hits but was in trouble throughout because of nine walks.

The game was held up an hour and 43 minutes in the fifth inning because of rain.

Big Hank Sauer smashed a pair of three-run homers to beat the Giants in the opener at Chicago. The three runs were more than the Cubs scored twice in the fourth and then Sauer went to work. He hit his first homer off loser Larry Jansen in the fifth and then won the game with another three-run blast in the seventh off Hoyt Wilhelm. The homers boosted Sauer's output to 33 and increased his runs batted in to 106.

HELEN DETTWEILER (right), didn't steal the whole show yesterday at Reames with her variety of shots in an exhibition match with Donna Sproat (left) and Luster Nurseth, club members. The famous golf instructor's dog, Mr. Chips, a miniature French Poodle, toured the course with her and performed all the duties of a first-rate caddy.

Oakland, Twinks Knotted

By The Associated Press They're even-temper again, Hollywood and Oakland.

Piper Davis hit a ninth-inning homer that gave Oakland a 2 to 1 decision over Seattle Thursday night, and, it's hard to believe, but San Diego shook off the Hollywood jinx and buried the Stars by a 10 to 6 count.

That pushed Oakland into a first-place tie with Hollywood in their fight for the Pacific Coast League flag.

Los Angeles beat Portland, 4 to 2, and San Francisco downed Sacramento, 5 to 1, in 10 innings, to round out the evening.

Al Widmar of Seattle and Lefty Rox Bowman of Oakland engaged in a hurling duel in Oakland, with Bowman having the edge.

Bowman fanned eight, didn't walk a man, and only in the seventh did Seattle get more than one hit in an inning.

Seattle's only run was Clarence Maddern's homer in the eighth that tied the score.

Chuck Connors, Los Angeles first baseman, cracked a low pitch into the right-centerfield bleachers at Wrigley Field to give the Angels a decision over Portland.

Eddie Chandler, who walked three men in the first inning, steadied and came up with a two-hitter to score his 14th win.

Connors' homer, coming in the seventh inning, followed Bob Usher's single, his fourth hit of the night. Red Adams, the loser, gave up nine hits.

Friday's schedule: Vancouver at Victoria, Yakima at Salem, Wenatchee at Tri-City and Lewiston at Spokane.

Helen 'Has It'

Helen Dettweiler convincingly demonstrated to a Reames Golf and County Club crowd yesterday why she is ranked as one of the top world's women golfers and instructors.

The attractive blonde showed splendid technique as she ran through her clubs in a 45-minute clinic. Then she joined two Klamath Falls golfers, City Champ Donna Sorast and Luster Nurseth, for an exhibition round.

Last evening, Miss Dettweiler was feted at a dinner at Reames. Miss Dettweiler is pro advisor for the MacGregor Golf Company of Cincinnati.

Three former Michigan State football stars are members of the Spartan coaching staff, including backfield coach Steve Sebo and assistant coaches Hal Vogeler and Don Mason.

Senators Move Up On Twin Win Over Caps

By The Associated Press

The Salem Senators took both ends of a Western International League twin bill with Vancouver Thursday night to move within three games of the third-place Capitanos.

The Senators clubbed the Caps 11-2 and 4-2 for a sweep of the five-game series at Salem. It left the Caps, who a month ago were fighting Spokane for second place, eight games behind the Indians and 19 games back of the pace-setting Victoria Tyees.

The Tyees split a doubleheader at Kennewick, blanking Tri-City's Braves 4-0 in the opener but dropping the nightcap 5-4.

Lewiston and Wenatchee also divided, the Broncos winning the final game 4-2 and the Chiefs the finale 13-4. Yakima dropped Spokane 7-4 to even the four-game series at Spokane.

Vancouver rookie Jim Meyer was the goat in the seven-inning first game at Salem. The Senators scored all their runs in the two innings Meyer was on the mound.

Jim McNulty notched his 16th victory in the second contest.

At Kennewick, Bill Bottler pitched a three-hit shutout for Victoria in the opener. The latest hit was a double. Tri-City hurler Dave Brittan won his own game in the afterpiece, driving in the winning run in the bottom of the ninth.

Wenatchee jumped on three Lewiston hurlers for 17 hits in the wild second game at Lewiston. The Chiefs took a five-run lead in the first inning and were never threatened. Lewiston pitcher Dale Thompson spaced seven hits in the opener.

Friday's schedule: Vancouver at Victoria, Yakima at Salem, Wenatchee at Tri-City and Lewiston at Spokane.

Mathis Calls Henley Grids

John Mathis, new coach at Henley High School has called his football players and prospective players out for equipment issue next Monday, 4 p. m. at the school.

The Hornets will practice each day next week at 6 o'clock. Their first game, the traditional opener with Lakeview, comes Sept. 13, at Henley.

Mathis said he expected about 40 or 45 boys to turn out for football at Henley this year.

Advertisement for Red Barn in Dorris, featuring dance nights on Saturdays with Tinky's Ragtime Western Band. Includes details on dancing, admission, and tax.

Here's real refreshment ...from the land of sky blue waters...to you!

Large advertisement for Hamm's beer, featuring a bottle of beer, a scenic background, and the slogan 'Hamm's the beer refreshing!'.

Advertisement for Herman's Sport Shirts and Tee Shirts, highlighting a 'RED-HOT SPECIAL' and 'SHORT SLEEVE' shirts for 99 cents.

Advertisement for Dick B. Miller Co. featuring the slogan 'DON'T TRUST TO LUCK!' and services for budget car repairs.

Large advertisement for the Klamath Forest Protective Association, featuring a fisherman carrying a sign that says 'Don't let this one get away!' and a tree with the text 'KEEP KLAMATH GREEN'.

Advertisement for Good Year tires, offering a 'ONE DAY' recapping service for $10.50.