

Shock Kills Eugene Youth

EUGENE, (U) — Nolan Wayne Crow, 16, was carrying a pipe through a corn field five miles north of here Monday. The end of the pipe touched an overhead powerline and Crow was killed by the shock.

The youth's 13-year-old brother, Marvin, in the field at the time of the accident, tried to pull his unconscious brother away from the charged pipe but was unable to do so. Nolan was dead when help arrived.

The boy is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Crow and six brothers and sisters.

Fight Victim Said Fugitive

PORTLAND (U) — A man tentatively identified as William M. Powell, 26, shot and killed in what police said was a dice game fight, may have been a fugitive from Pittsburgh, Pa.

Detectives here said that they were certain the dead man was Frank Sneed, wanted for Miami action violation and jumping $13,000 bail.

Alex Rainey, 46, was booked on a first degree murder charge after the fight Sunday. Police said he told them Powell had threatened with a knife.
