Stocks

NEW YORK (U) — The stock market was mixed Tuesday with trading quiet. There was a tendency to sag at the close.

The upside of the market extended to around a point, with few exceptions, and the downside was fractional.

Volume came to less than a million shares.

GRAINS

CHICAGO (U) — Feed grains developed a little rally toward the close of Tuesday's board of trade session.

Wheat went along with oats and corn in a mild manner, and soybeans got above the previous close in some deliveries.

During the greater part of the session most deliveries showed minor minus marks. Soybeans, however, were off around three cents at times.

At the finish wheat was higher to 1/4 lower, September $2.27 1/2, corn was 1/4 to 1/8 higher, September $1.78 3/4, oats were unchanged to 1/8 higher, September $2 1/2, soybeans unchanged to 1/4 lower, September $3.15 1/2, and lard was 2 cents a hundredweight lower to 10 cents higher, September $11.10.

PORTLAND (U) — Coarse grains, 15-day shipments, bulk, coast delivery: Oats No. 2, 28-lb white, 72.50; Barley, No. 2, 45-lb B. W., 72.50.

Wheat (bulk) to arrive market, basis No. 1 bid, delivered Coast delivery: Oats No. 2, 28-lb white, 2.36 1/2; Soft White, 2.36 1/2; Soft White (including Rex), 2.36 1/2; White Club, 2.36 1/2.

Hard Red Winter: Ordinary, 2.40; 10 per cent, 2.40; 11 per cent, 2.40; 12 per cent, 2.40.

Comparatively, it was famine day in the cattle pens, however, as the supply pendulum swung to the lowest Tuesday level in seven weeks after Monday's huge run, which was the largest since early last November. Cattle prices steadied all along the line.

There were no firm sales recorded by mid-session in the sheep market. Bidding was 50 cents to $1.00 lower in most departments.

Best early bids on native spring lambs were at $29.00 and below. A weak undertone prevailed on slaughter ewes.

FINDS SON KILLED—William Guzy, called to the accident scene, prays over the body of his son Ronald, 18, while awaiting arrival of the coroner. Ronald was killed in an auto collision only a block from the Guzy home in Minneapolis, Minn. Police said Ronald was thrown from the car in which he was a passenger and then run over. The drivers escaped serious injury. One of the autos involved is shown in the background.

CHILQUIN — Impact of attendance of children from families of homesteaders who have arrived in the last three land drawings will be felt for the first time this year in the high school.

Chiloquin School Set

CHILQUIN—A full staff of 18 teachers reported yesterday at the Chiloquin school to begin the current school year. Today the group is meeting with all county teachers at Altamont, Wednesday and Thursday meetings will be held at Mills and on Friday a trip to business establishments will complete the first in-service week.

Students report for the first time on next Tuesday morning for at least a half day and probably a full day of school.

Melvin Ray, principal of the grade school, announces only one new teacher for the lower six grades, Mrs. George Hobbs. She raises the number of the grade school faculty from eight to nine.

Joseph Mercer, principal, reports only three of the faculty have returned, Frank DiUlio, Margaret Molitor, and Mrs. Frank Bell. Five new ones have reported for this year.

Extensive remodeling of buildings and grounds is being completed before the opening day.

A completely new system for heating the elementary building with gas has been installed, roofs have been repaired, floors re-laid, and the tennis courts have been re-surfaced and other repair work done at the high school.

First call for football is expected on the opening day of school.

Grade school teachers will be Maxine Van Buskirk, kindergarten; Mrs. Hazel Tucker, 1st grade; Mrs. Florence Short 2nd; Mrs. Margaret McLain, 3rd; Hazel Baker, Elizabeth Clark, 4th; Mrs. Florence Hite, 5th; Mrs. E. L. Coyner, 7th and Robert Fries, 8th.

Donald Phillips, athletic coach last year will be assisted by Harry Santos, graduate of Santa Jose junior college. Santos will also teach science and math.

Tom Pierce will be in charge of music in both buildings. Verne Bernhardt will continue as Smith-Hughes instructor and Alice Wells and will teach home economics.

Mrs. Dorothy Schupp, member of Klamath Union High School for several years and member of the faculty at Merrill last year, has joined the faculty for science and math.

Beatrice Willard, Oakland, biologist this summer at the Lava Beds National Monument will teach biology, English and orientation.

Returning also will be Dorothy Coprovica and Mrs. Louise Thompson.

In The News

there will be sharp teeth to find it. It works the same way with money.

This time there was a new twist. SMART COPB figured it all out quickly, nabbed the robber, he confessed, showed them where he had buried the loot and in a matter of hours they had the whole $60,000 back in the hands of its owners.

By and large, the poor devils of police have a hard row to hoe. When they do a smart job, we forget it all too soon. When they pull a honey, we lift their scalps.

Saturday at 9:08, Judge Landers pointed out one reason he won was his showmanship.

"He never stops showing his animal," Landers said. The youngster was still pressing his showmanship long and hard. Members had stopped and were leaning back or had lost interest in their part of the show.

Sydney Kerns, Keno, took home a blue ribbon in the Hereford Yearling heifer; resident, Vincent Cheyenne Henley, blue ribboned the Hereford cow division; Ida Bohraokoff, Keno, had the champion shorthorn, a cow.

Ken Weatherly, Malin, purple-ribboned the market hog division with his grand champion, while Kenny Albert, Langell Valley, copped the reserve ribbon.

Marcia Kenyon, Malin, held the first place Duroc; Albert's reserve champ was the best in the Hamp class; Weatherly's hog won the Berkshire blue ribbon; Janna Warren's Landrace won that division's blue ribbon; David O'Donahue took first among other breeds, and George Olson, Plevna, won the Crossbred market hog category.

Kay O'Donahue, Henley, won the grand champ breeding swine ribbon with her Yorkshire sow; Glynn Weatherly's Hamp senior gilt won ribbon; resident, Vincent Cheyenne Henley, first place Duroc junior gilt went to Melvin Kenyon, Malin; David Lyons' Hamp junior gilt won in that class; Warren Bohraokoff, Keno, took home the Hamp sow blue ribbon; Bill Weatherly, Malin, took home first award for Berkshire junior gilt; Richard Burnett, Bonanza, took first in Berk sow.

Marcia Kenyon won first in beginner's showmanship, and Wilma Hubble, Bonanza, took the advance showman's blue ribbon.

Leonard Garrison, Klamath Falls, won the advanced beef showmanship title.

Woods Heads Rent Control

WASHINGTON (U) — President Truman Tuesday named Tighe E. Woods, now the nation's rent controller, to be head of the Office of Price Stabilization.

Woods will succeed Ellis G. Arnall in the price post on Sept. 1. Arnall's resignation, effective on that date, has been accepted by Truman's hands for some time.

Roger L. Putnam, chief of the economic stabilization agencies, made the announcement of Woods' appointment after he, Woods and Arnall had conferred with Truman.

Putnam said the three had come to the White House together so that Truman could bid farewell to the outgoing price stabilizer and to greet the new head of O.P.S.

"We lose one wonderful child (Arnall) but promote another one (Woods)," Putnam said.

Putnam said he had not yet got around to recommending a successor to Woods as rent controller. The rent agency comes under Putnam's direction.

Arnall told reporters that he planned to leave Washington this weekend and will return to Atlanta to resume his private law practice and business. He said he will continue as the president of the Society of Independent Motion Picture Producers.

Arnall said he hopes to issue a regulation Wednesday allowing 10 to 15 higher ceiling prices to manufacturers of products using steel, aluminum and copper.

FOOD POISONS POLICE—TURIN, Italy (U) — Food poisoning sent 150 members of Turin's police to the hospital. Only three became seriously ill but 75 others had to stay away from their jobs Monday.

Callahan Case To Grand Jury

After a preliminary hearing in District Court this morning, Ima Sue Callahan, 19-year-old mother of two, was ordered bound over to the grand jury acting on a charge of jarceny from the person.

Earlier the girl had been charged with assault and robbery, jointly with two men, but the charge of all this has been reduced to jarceny.

She is free on $3,500 bail. Mrs. Callahan is charged with taking about $20 from Paul E. Knauss, 2014 Beaver, at his home July 26.

Others named in the charge are Ernest Stanley Gayhart, 27, who is to have a preliminary hearing later, and Michael Joseph Larkin, 28, who has waived his District Court hearing.

Child Loses Summer Earnings

It takes several hours of baby tending to earn $9 to buy school clothes but only a moment to lose it.

Saturday afternoon 10-year-old Janice Juller, who has watched neighbor's children, washed dishes and run errands during the summer, went to the J. C. Penney store to make a purchase. In the excitement of spending her own money, she laid her coin purse on a counter on the second floor. When she returned a few moments later, the purse and money had disappeared.

The finder may return the cash to Penney's.

Seven Die In Plane Crash

SHREVEPORT, La. (U) — Emergency vehicles waited only a mile away as a crippled B29 crashed and burst into flames at nearby Barksdale Air Force Base. Seven airmen were killed.

The pilot notified the control tower his No. 1 engine was dead and that he was making an emergency landing yesterday. Accident vehicles, fire trucks and ambulances were waiting on the runway.

But the craft, a refueling plane heavily loaded with gasoline, dropped a mile short of the runway.
