

PIMENTO BUTTERFLY SALAD is a conversation addition to a summer menu. This one is bright red, appetizing, nutritious. For each salad plate, open up two whole canned pimentos for the wings of the butterfly; adorn them with slices of pimento-stuffed olives. Use stripes of avocado for the body and antenna. Serve on cottage cheese. Or try cutting flowers, stars, leaves from pimentos. Open up one whole one and clip into petals, fill with tuna or potato salad. Serve with favorite French dressing.

PRETTY FOR TRIMMING
You can slice almonds expertly this easy way. Split a blanched almond into halves with the aid of the point of a paring knife. Then place each almond half flat side down on a cutting board and cut into about 3 or 4 long pieces.
