

CAMP FIRE COMMUNIQUE

RAMA LA GRANDE

MARSHA MACK

GOLD STAR BLUE BIRDS, junior members of Camp Fire Girls. Mrs. Arthur Anderson and Mrs. Gale Osborn are the volunteer leaders who make the Camp Fire program available for these third grade girls at Mills School. To learn more about our city the group has recently visited the city fire department and the new city jail. For their part in "Design for Friendship," which is Camp Fire's program theme for 1952, the group visited local hospitals and the county infirmary to sing songs and take gifts of candy. For handcraft activities they have made gifts for Mother's and Father's Days and have learned to embroider. Officers of the group are: Carolyn Osborn, president; Barbara Leech, vice president; Nancy Hugelman, treasurer; Marjie Welman, secretary; Julia Chaney, sheriff; and Patty Anderson, judge. Mrs. Gino Carnini is sponsor for the group. Camp Fire Girls is a Community Chest Agency.

"WISH I COULD HAVE DONE MORE" — That's what the volunteer leader for these peppy, seven-year-old Blue Birds said when asked what the group had been doing this year. Mrs. George Bratton Jr. is the leader who organized the group last September and the girls have met weekly at her home to enjoy the varied activities of the Blue Bird program. At Christmas time they made very pretty telephone book covers which were given to the mothers when the girls entertained them at a buffet tea. Blue Belles was chosen for the group name and officers are: President, Stephanie Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Lee; and Vice President, Susan Merryman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Merryman. Mrs. Merryman serves as sponsor for the group. Member not pictured, Susan Merryman.
