'Come Ona My House' Hit Changes Composer's Life

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD—What a difference a hit song makes.

At least it changed the life of Ross Bagdasarian. He's the guy who was responsible for "Come Ona My House," which was driving the nation crazy a year ago. Yes, his cousin, William Saroyan, also got credit for the composition, but his contribution was reportedly slight.

Anyway, the song completely altered the life of Bagdasarian, between show business and grapes. Ross—let's call him by his easier first name—is a member of that tribe of Americans of Armenian ancestry who have settled in the warm San Joaquin Valley, principally around Fresno. He is a happy extrovert, full of the joy of living. He might have stepped out of a Saroyan play, which indeed he has.

The lad abandoned the family trade—grapes—to follow his famous cousin. Ross appeared in two Broadway "plays" on "Broadway Time of Your Life," in which he played the pin-ball maniac, and "Love's Old Sweet Song," with Walter Huston. Then same the war.

"After I got out of the service, I decided I would settle down in Fresno and raise grapes," he related. "It so happened that my first crop came in the worst grape season in 32 years. I lost everything. So I decided to come to

Bette Davis Saves $66,000

LOS ANGELES—Actress Bette Davis is $66,000 ahead today.

The government said she owed that amount as income tax for 1942-43, but U. S. Judge Ben Harrison ruled for Miss Davis yesterday.

He said the issue was "whether a surviving spouse is liable for taxes of her deceased husband where the latter's liability arose by reason of his community ownership of one half the surviving spouse's earnings. My answer is no."

Miss Davis was married at the time to Arthur A. Farnsworth. He died in 1943.

US Orders Foreign Arms

WASHINGTON—The United States tentatively plans to order a billion dollars worth of weapons, military equipment, and supplies from North Atlantic Pact countries during the year ending next July 1.

The offshore orders will cover planes, tanks, ammunition, electronic equipment, auxiliary combat ships and other gear, mostly for European armed forces.

Informed officials disclosed the size of the new offshore procurement program after Special Ambassador William H. Draper revealed in a report to President Truman that orders totalling $683,800,000 have already been placed. The billion dollar program now being drafted would be in addition to this.

Draper's report disclosed some of the new orders will go to Britain for production of its famed Centurian tank "for certain NATO countries." These countries were not identified but they are believed to be France, Italy and Belgium.

In addition, the United States plans to contribute "slightly more than half" officials said, of the 400 million dollar aircraft production program for European countries.

These officials declined for security reasons to divulge what other weapons would be produced overseas.

Japanese Premier Calls General Election

TOKYO—In a lightning move to save his political strength, pro-U. S. Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida today forced dissolution of the lower house of the Japanese Diet (Parliament) and set the first post-occupation general election for Oct. 1.

The date is at least a month or 45 days before rivals felt they would be ready to defeat the diminutive, 74-year-old Premier.

A dramatic noontime government announcement said the lower house would be dissolved at once. Then the speaker read a rescript from Emperor Hirohito dissolving the house.

That automatically shut down the upper chamber—the House of Councillors—unless an emergency arises. It is only advisory.

The Emperor's rescript was countersigned by Yoshida, who must have worked fast and secretly to catch his opposition off guard. It takes a day or more to prepare an imperial rescript.

Yoshida, sometimes called by his opposition an "American puppet" because he co-operated strongly with Allied occupation authorities, left yesterday for a rest in the mountains 80 miles southwest of Tokyo. He rushed back today to slam through the dissolution, in a manner some observers called a stroke of political genius.

Yoshida's influence is threatened by his predecessor as leader of the dominant Liberal party, ailing Ichiro Hatoyama, 70. Both are considered pro-Western but Hatoyama is regarded as more nationalistic and more indifferent than the Prime Minister toward rearming Japan.

Hatoyama and his followers wanted a November election. They felt by that time their growing strength would mean victory.

The second party in Japan, the Progressives, also wanted a November election. They are led by one-legged Mamoru Shigemitsu, 70, who signed the Japanese surrender on Tokyo Bay in 1945 and served a prison term as a war criminal.

Britons Agree To Study Iranian Offer To Parley

TEHRAN, Iran—A government spokesman said Thursday Britain has agreed to reply by Sept. 3 to the Iranian offer to discuss compensation claims arising out of nationalization of the 1 1/2 billion dollar Anglo-Iranian Oil Company.

The spokesman said this promise was made Wednesday during a three-hour conference of U. S. Ambassador Loy Henderson and British Charge d' Affaires George Middleton with Premier Mohammad Mossadegh.

The spokesman would make no other comment on the conference. Informed sources in London said Henderson and Middleton sought to break the long-standing British-Iranian deadlock with proposals involving U. S. economic aid to Iran, a lifting of the British blockade on Iranian oil sales abroad and negotiations on the compensation claims Iran wants prompt payment of 140 millions in disputed oil royalties as a condition to opening any talks.

Middleton called on Henderson Thursday shortly after the American ambassador had an hour-long talk with Iranian Finance Minister Bagher Kazemi. There was speculation that Henderson and Kazemi talked about a possible American loan.

The government spokesman told newsmen that W. Alton Jones, the American oil man now inspecting the oil installations at Abadan, had requested permission to visit Iran.

This was in contradiction with a statement by A. H. S. Perkhid, president of the sales commission for the Iranian government's own oil company, three days ago. Perkhid said Jones, head of the Cities Service Oil Co., came at the invitation of Mossadegh. When news-
