

FROM LAKEVIEW — comes the news that Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Carmody, of that city, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Anne, to Donald M. Megale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Megale, Coos Bay. The bride-elect is a graduate of Lakeview High School and has attended Oregon State College for the past two years. Megale is a senior at the same college. He is remembered here as a tennis instructor at Moore Park last summer, and his participation in the tennis tournaments sponsored by the Herald and News, September 13 is the date set for the wedding in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Lakeview. —Photo by Hise, Corvallis

JEAN HILTON AND JOHN EITREIM EXCHANGE VOWS IN ST. PAUL'S

White and shades of pale to darker blue delphinium was the striking color scheme chosen for the beautiful wedding of Jean Marian Hilton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James M. Hilton, 435 Hillside, to John (Jack) Raymond Eitrem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eitrem, 2012 Main Street. The Rev. Galen Onstad read the 8 p.m. service in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Aug. 24, before a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The lovely bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, who gave her in marriage. The pews were marked with arrangements of white gladioli, pompon chrysanthemums and greenery. The same type flowers were banked at either side of the altar, illuminated by tall lighted tapers in floor candelabra.

Radiant in all white, the bride's gown was of chantilly lace over taffeta, floor length with full court train. The bodice neckline was boat shaped and medallion edged. The long fitted sleeves were pointed over the hands. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was edged in the same Chantilly lace as the dress and the crown of lace was pearl trimmed. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls. The sixpence worn in her shoe was given her by Mrs. T. D. Case.

Ann Mills, Florence Hansen and Doris Ethridge, were all dressed as the maid of honor, except that their caps and bouquets were of light blue delphinium.

Organist was Janice Larson. Golden-haired Helen Dianne Bertelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bertelson, Laguna Beach, was flower girl. She is the bride's cousin. Her frock carried out the color scheme used throughout the wedding.

Willis (Mike) Eitrem attended his brother as best man; ushers were Harold Eitrem, also brother of the bridegroom, Bob Barnes, Robert Risnes and Richard Hilton, brother of the bride. Mrs. Hilton, mother of the bride was charming in a floor length dress of powder blue nylon net with pink accessories and her corsage was of pink gladioli.

Mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Eitrem, was handsome in a floor length dress of rose crepe, lace trimmed with matching accessories and her corsage was of deep purple gladioli.

Nuptial Rites In Malin Church

MALIN—At an informal wedding held before relatives and close friends, Dorothy Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Saunders, became the bride of Lloyd W. Fields, son of Mrs. Blanche Fields. The double ring ceremony was held Saturday, August 9, at two o'clock in the afternoon at the Malin Community Church, with the Rev. George Shuman officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina length dress of blue lace and nylon net. With it she wore a small white satin hat and carried a single white orchid on her white Rainbow Bible.

Mrs. Lorene Bauer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and her dress of pink nylon, with pink accessories. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias, baby gladioli and stephanotis.

The wedding march was played by Sandra Fields, sister of the bridegroom.

Andy Fields, served as his brother's best man.

Mrs. Saunders chose for her daughter's wedding, a dress of navy blue with navy blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore pink with white accessories.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the yard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bauer.

After the wedding cake had been cut by the new bride and bridegroom, it was served by Bertha McKoen. Sally Smalley presided at the punch bowl. In charge of the guest book was Dena Fields, another sister of the bridegroom.

The popular young couple left immediately for a short honeymoon along the Oregon Coast.

TULELAKE MAN CLAIMS BRIDE IN PEACE MEMORIAL CHURCH

Golden-Schumacher Wedding In Anaheim St. Boniface Church

A white Chantilly lace gown, styled with a bouffant skirt with tier upon tier of ruffled lace, fitted bodice with wide vee neckline just tipping the shoulders was worn by Elaine Elizabeth Schumacher for her wedding in St. Boniface Catholic Church, Anaheim, Calif., to Jack Ronald Golden.

Her illusion net fingertip veil was topped with a pearl trimmed lace crown, and she wore matching lace mitts and carried a Chantilly lace fan with a cluster and cascade of white cattleya and phalaenopsis orchids, pale pink bouvardia and diminutive ivy. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Emil Schumacher, of Anaheim and Balboa; and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clarence Golden, formerly of Tulelake, where they still own and operate ranches. Their present address is Santa Ana.

The sixpence in the bride's slipper was sent from Germany. The "borrowed" was a patterned pearl choker necklace; the "old" was her mother's lace wedding handkerchief; the "new" was her gown; and she wore the traditional blue garter.

She was escorted to the chancel rail by her father, who gave her in marriage. The Reverend Michael Casey read the service at 11 a.m., Saturday, August 23, in the presence of 400 invited friends and relatives.

A pale green runner carpeted the aisle and the pews were garlanded with greenery and pink shattered carnations. Large baskets of pink asters were arranged at the altar end of the church.

Maid of honor was Neida Louise Schumacher, sister of the bride, and she was gowned in white embroidered organza over shell pink tulle. Her hair length, she wore a coronet of pink bouvardia and ivy and carried a matching eyelet fan with pale pink tuberous begonias, bouvardia and ivy.

The bridesmaids all were dressed the same as the maid of honor and carried the same flower arrangements. They were: Catherine Cam-

plion, Linda Heffern, cousin of the bride; Jacqueline Logan, Charlotte McAllister and Mrs. Richard Taylor. Robert McGlymonds, from Tulelake, was best man, and ushers
