5 Booked On Drunk Charge

Five persons were arrested in this area by State Police on charges of drunk driving over the holiday weekend.

Four were placed in the County Jail and the fifth released to relatives and cited for a District Court appearance today.

He is Ernest Gerald Paulk, 27, of Merrill, whose car was involved in an accident on Oregon 39 a mile south of Merrill early Sunday morning with a 1952 Chevrolet operated by Kenneth O. Hummick of Merrill.

It was a rear end collision, Paulk's 1952 DeSoto hitting Hummick's Chevrolet.

Several hours after the wreck, Hummick reported to State Police that a Mercury 35-mm camera and case and a pair of binoculars had been stolen from his wrecked car.

Alvin Bernard Kirkpatrick, 31, of Eugene, posted $400 bail today for his release from the County Jail, and another $100 bail for his wife, Abbie Ruth Kirkpatrick, 45.

A Medford man, Charles Truman Gault, 52, was booked at the County Jail early Sunday morning for being drunk on a public highway after he rolled over his 1952 Nash panel on Oregon 66 near the Weyerhaeuser mill. Gault was uninjured.

State Police said that the woman and man, who live at Diamond Lake siding, had been involved in a drunken brawl at the Beaver Marsh cafe, beating up Mrs. Ruth Frickley, wife of the proprietor, so severely she had to be brought to Klamath Valley Hospital.

In driving away from the cafe, the Indian woman's car sideswiped another vehicle.

Malin Plans Skywatch Post

Plans are being formulated in Malin for the running of a ground observation post, in accordance with a U. S. Air Force request.

Malin community Supervisor Ivan Ottoman has appointed as her Irene Freitag as chief observer. She in turn has appointed as her chief assistants Mrs. Florence DeMerritt, Mrs. Rose Van Meter, Mrs. Mary Alice Stastny, Mrs. Hazel Kalina and Mrs. Anna Lahoda. Mrs. Gladys Halousek is post publicity chairman.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Freitag and her assistants, work is progressing with the manning of the new post.

Thursday evening county air defense supervisor Wallace Reed and Mrs. Reed accompanied Lieut. Lanagan and Sgt. Bilow of Portland to the Broadway Theater at Malin where they showed the moving picture which helps acquaint the volunteer ground observers in their duties. Lieut. Lanagan gave a very instructive address to a large audience.

All interested in volunteering for this important duty are requested to contact either Mrs. Freitag or Mr. Ottoman.

A good time was reported by those attending the joint Lake and Klamath County picnic held at Booth Park on the Lakeview highway. Insurance agent Frank Hadley reported on several new policies written during July. A rummage sale on Oct. 4 has been planned, the place to be announced later.

During the lecturer's program an article was read telling of the amount of damage done to forests by fire, and ways to prevent same. Discussion was held on having booth during the potato festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Icenbice served refreshments following the meeting. The next Grange meeting will be Sept. 22, when Booster Night will be held. This will be an open meeting with program and refreshments. The meeting will start promptly, at 8 p.m., and all members are urged to come and bring a friend, or prospective member.

The car of County Assessor Otis Metker was robbed sometime over the weekend, and some of the loot belongs to the county.

Metker, who is also a candidate for Klamath Falls police judge said he lost a brown leather sipper, brief case which contained various papers and notebooks relating to his county work, a set of box wrenches, set of wood bits, a set of steel drills, combination square and engineer's rules.

The car was prowled either while it was parked at 8th and Pine Sunday night or while parked at his home on Oregon Avenue, Metker said.

23 Years Ago

Monday, September 2, 1929—Showmanship contest, held at the Klamath county fair on Saturday in which boys and girls of the livestock club participated, closed with first award going to Claude Puckett. Second award went to Audrey Kiger and third to Donald Frazier. A prize of $10 was given by Bruce Dennis which will be divided among the three.

Tuesday, September 3, 1929—Harry Goeller's boat, Miss Klamath, was the winner of the free-for-all event in the water carnival at Lake O' the Woods Labor Day. Mr. Goeller had two boats in the races and in the class C race was ahead the first four laps when he headed into two other boats and was forced out of the course, allowing the next boat in line to pass him. At that he almost overcame the handicap.

Wednesday, September 4, 1929—Word of the marriage of Ulysses S. Balentine, police judge of Klamath Falls and Miss Helene J. Gardner, Ashland on Saturday August 31 at Ashland has been received here by friends. Mr. and Mrs. Balentine are now on a wedding tour, planning to return to Klamath Falls in another week to reside. During the absence of Police Judge Balentine, persons brought into police court must tell their troubles to Mayor T. B. Waiters, acting judge.

Thursday, September 5, 1929—Led by Johnny Houston and his quartet, the Klamath Kiwanis club put on a varied but extremely entertaining program at a meeting of the Keno grange on Friday night. Other numbers on the program: George Myers, vocal; Mr. Roberts, assistant manager at Woolworths, vocal solo; George Cunningham, reading; J. McCluskey, several songs; Marvin
