Vanessa Brown Declares It Pays To Be Ignorant

By VANESSA BROWN
For Erskine Johnson, who is on vacation

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—There's a young, imaginative talent agent in New York whom I have offended by my reaction to his proposal that I make a small fortune by becoming a permanent member of a television quiz show.

"You're perfect for it," he reasoned. "You're an ex-Quiz Kid. You're brilliant and witty."

"That's true," I modestly rejoined. "But does Marilyn Monroe, say, sit in on information panel shows?" That stumped him. So I went on:

"Haven't you heard that I've rewritten my life completely and it contains not one reference to my ever having been a Quiz Kid?"

"Nope," I told the agent. "Call me when there's an opening on 'It Pays To Be Ignorant.'"

This is my one-woman losing battle against three national magazines who carried recent stories on the Quiz Kid who became a Glamour Queen.

Now I don't want to lose the friendship and confidence of this particular agent, so I owe him further explanation.

She's never asked to pose for cheesecake pictures by the press agents.

My best friends wouldn't tell me, but I finally learned—the hard way—that I was caught like a rat in the trap of my own I.Q.

Now I'm as dumb as Irma around producers and directors. I wear plunging necklines and splits in my skirts.

And I'm getting the colorful, arresting parts that never came my way when I was a walking encyclopedia.

I had a scare a few months ago when I read that Marilyn Monroe was an omnivorous reader—classics, mind you, not best-sellers—and that she was addicted to

Catholic Sister Reveals Commie Torture Methods

HONG KONG (AP)—A Catholic sister Wednesday said Chinese Communists heaped indignities on Maryknoll Bishop Francis X. Ford and — before his death on Feb. 21 — forced him to undress before her in a Canton prison.

Sister Joan Marie Ryan, in serious condition herself after two years in prison, brought the first word of the 60-year-old bishop's death.

Ford, a native of Brooklyn and a veteran of 34 years service in China, and Sister Ryan, his secretary, also of Brooklyn, were placed under house arrest on Dec. 23, 1950, at Mei-Hsien, Kwangtung Province.

On April 14, 1951, they were charged with spying and were started on a tortuous 210-mile trip to a Canton prison.

The sister related: Their bus stopped at a village, Hinning, and the Reds tied Ford with ropes and led him about the town.

Students beat him with ropes, sticks, stones and refuse. He was knocked down several times, but each time arose and — calmly and with dignity — walked on.

The students were so out of control that the guards fled and she and the bishop had to return to the bus depot unattended.

At a second village the guards bound Ford with wet ropes which contracted as they dried.

She said the final humiliation was in the Canton prison — the Reds forced him to undress before her.

Sister Ryan said she saw him four times in prison up to Feb. 1 and he was "appallingly emaciated and unable to walk."

Sister Ryan said that on Aug. 16 she was shown a death certificate ascribing Ford's death to old age and natural causes.

Monday the Reds took her to a grave told her the bishop was buried there, and forced her to sign a document saying Ford died of natural causes.

Gadget Makes 'Kiss of Fire'

CHICAGO (AP)—Electricity 100 years ago didn't give lights and power, but sometimes supplied amusement.

A science text book of 1850 tells of an electric machine that generated static electricity, and was popular at parties.

"The lady takes hold of a chain connected with the prime conductor. The machine then being put in motion, the gentleman approaches the lady, and immediately (as) he attempts to imprint the seal of soft affection upon her coral lips, a spark will fly in his face, which generally deters him from his rash and wicked intention."

M. D. Hooven, electrical engineer of Newark, N. J., told the story to the Centennial of Engineering today.

reading the poems of Rainer Maria Rilke at odd moments.

Has Hollywood changed, I wondered?

Then I talked to a press agent who sputtered at the idea that Marilyn was a literary woman and accused someone of trying to tag his work on her behalf.

"Maybe," he roared, "she got around with a copy of Rilke, but there are copies of the latest comic books hidden under the covers." There—I ask you.
