

YANKS, DODGERS STUMBLE

Tribe, Giants Narrow Gaps on Loop Leaders

By JOE REICHLER

AP Sports Writer

The weary New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers, stumbling along the road to pennantville, are finding their paths blocked by revenge-minded former teammates.

The Yankees' lead over Cleveland was a skippy one game today following last night's 3-4 loss to the Browns in St. Louis and the Indians' 6-1 triumph over Bobby Sharitz and the Philadelphia Athletics.

Brooklyn's once seemingly safe 10½ game buffer over New York dwindled to four as a result of yesterday's 7-1 loss to the Chicago Cubs, several hours after the Giants had thrashed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 11-7.

Brooklyn's woes were further increased by the rapid climb of St. Louis' "longshot" Cardinals, who pushed back into the pennant picture with a 7-5 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies that left them 6½ lengths off the pace.

Two former Yankees—Dick Kryhoski and Clint Courtney—steamed up last night to bring victory to the Browns. Kryhoski, pinch hitting for winning pitcher Dick Littlefield, doubled off Ray Scarborough to open the last of the ninth. An infield hit and an intentional pass sandwiched around an out, loaded the bases.

Scarborough's third pitch to Courtney hit the catcher to force home Ray Coleman, running for Kryhoski, with the winning run. It was four-time loser Littlefield's first win of the season.

At Ebbets Field, former Dodgers Dee Fondy and Toby Atwell proved the big hatchetmen as knuckle-buster Warren Hacker stilled the Brooklyn hitters with seven safeties. Fondy smashed a run-scoring triple and Atwell chipped in with a single that drove in one of the tallies in Chicago's big five-run.

ON BOARD
Mrs. Nerseth served the first two years for Klamath Falls along with Mrs. Jake Steiger, the first year as secretary of the board, the second as vice president.

Member clubs are at Corvallis, Coos Bay, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Medford, Eugene, Bend and Klamath Falls.

The association sponsors four tournaments a year, rotating between the towns. Klamath Falls Reamers Golf and Country Club was host last year and will be one of four towns to host a tourney next year.

OFFICERS
Other officers named Monday at Roseburg were Mrs. J. F. Wolke, Grants Pass, vice president, Mrs. L. L. Dickson, Corvallis, secretary, and Mrs. Gus Hixon, Eugene, treasurer.

Mrs. John McCulloch and Mrs. Frank Moser currently represent Klamath Falls on the board of directors.

Mrs. Nerseth will serve as the association's president for two years.

PASSENGER SERVICE
AN AIRBASE IN SOUTHERN JAPAN—An air base, Navy planes are considered, the push duty in the Korean war is operating the "codfish airlines" passenger service. About 30 officers and men shuttle service between Task Force 77 off the Korean northeast coast and Iwakuni, in Southern Japan.

The name "codfish airlines" derives from a faulty contraction of "carrier on board delivery service." The planes used are old torpedo bombers. As a safety precaution the planes fly in pairs whether there are enough passengers for the planes or not.

SILK PRODUCTION HITS HIGH
TOKYO (AP)—Kyodo News Agency says raw silk production in Japan hit new postwar high during July with 21-24 bales—8,456 above June of that amount, 6,698 bales were exported.

fourth-inning rally against loser Ray Moore and Joe Landrum.

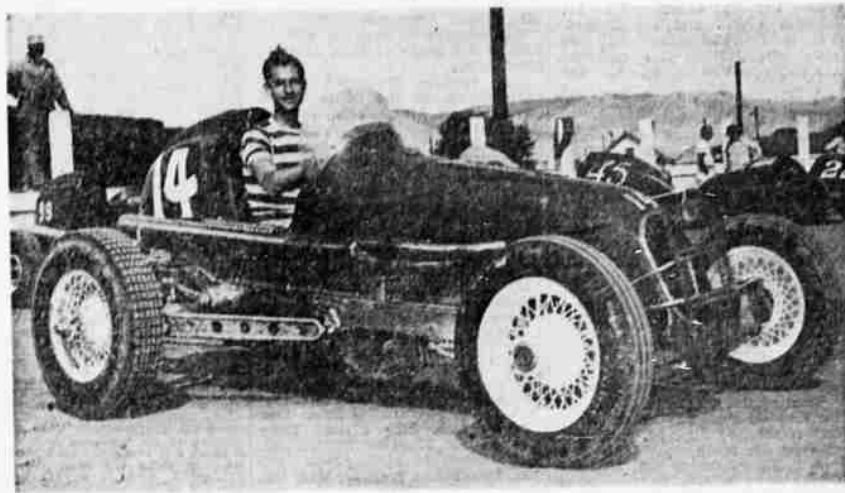

Early Wynn reached his 20-victory goal for the second straight season as he pitched the Indians to their ninth straight triumph, field scorers through five innings by Shantz, the Indians rallied for two runs in the sixth and added six more in the eighth to hand the little lefthander his seventh setback.

A dozen Giant hits, including homers by Monte Ivan, Don Mueller and Alvin Dark, helped rookie Bill Connelly rack up his fifth straight success since joining the club in mid-August. Five Pittsburgh errors helped considerably, presenting the Giants with six unearned runs.

Solly Hemus' bases-loaded single and Red Schoendienst's two-run double proved a five-run, ninth-inning uprising that gave the Cardinals their ninth triumph over the Phillies. Stan Musial got one hit—his 2,000th major league hit for St. Louis.

CHICAGO'S White Sox advanced to third place in the American League, taking a pair of 3-2 decisions from Washington. Pitcher Saul Rosowin batted in the first two runs and scored the winning run on an 11th-inning single by Nellie Fox in the opener. Pinch-hitter Sam Mele homered in the last of the ninth to give Harry Dorish the second game win over rookie Mike Fornieles.

Successful homers by Cliff Mape and Joe Ginsberg in the last half of the 11th gave Detroit a 4-3 victory over Boston, dropping the Red Sox into fourth place. Cincinnati and the Braves swapped shutouts in their twilight twin bill in Boston. The Reds' Harry Perkovich bested Max Surkont, 2-0, after the Braves' Warren Spahn had taken a 1-0 hurling duel from rookie Joe Nuxhall.

FROM SANTA ROSA comes Bill Jenkins, one of the outstanding dirt track race drivers of the west, to compete in the Klamath Falls' first big-car race Sunday afternoon at the Klamath County Fairgrounds. The eight-sprint speed show is sponsored by the American Racing Association, features cars basically the same as used at Indianapolis each Memorial Day. Jenkins is shown here at the wheel of his big Four Port Riley Special. Some 20 cars piloted by outstanding drivers will compete on the five-eighths mile track at the Fairgrounds in a three-hour show, starting at 1 p.m. with time trials.

Brundage, Roby Come up With Conflicting Olympic Theories

By TED SMITH

(For Gayle Talbot)

NEW YORK (AP)—Two solemn, conflicting ideas have been launched by leaders of American sports.

Every Brundage says we shouldn't bother to keep a point score on the Olympic Games. Douglas Roby says we better buckle down and come up with a better team in 1956 or Russia will beat us.

The odds all seem to be for Roby's theory to prevail. Roby is president of the National Amateur Athletic Union. Brundage once held the job but now he is president of the International Olympic Committee. The two are closely allied in amateur sport.

ARGUMENT
The argument will be hammered out over the next four years, and this writer is wagering the United States will produce its strongest team ever for the 1956 games in Australia. Russia raised a mighty challenge at Helsinki and it is not in the American spirit to take it lying down.

Idealism and history are on Brundage's side. The Olympic Games are not a national team competition. They are a series of individual events. Realism is on Roby's side. Whenever men strive together people ask: "What happened—who won?"

WARNING
Brundage sounded his warning note after the games at Helsinki: "If these games degenerate into a national competition we'll have something different than we're supposed to have. If this becomes a national contest between two great nations rich in talent and resources the spirit of the Olympics will be destroyed."

Before the 1952 games most American and some international sports reporters and news services agreed on a point system of 10-5-4-3-2-1 for six places in all events where gold medals were given. This gave the same weight to a gymnastic event as to the blue ribbon 100-meter dash. By this reckoning, the United States—after trailing most of the way—rallied at the very end to win 614 to 553½ for Russia.

ATTACK
Now comes Roby, ignoring all this talk of Olympic idealism and plunging squarely for a two-listed attack on the team title. "We saw a red danger signal at Helsinki and the red was Russia. The United States excelled in the major events, but in many we were woefully weak and in others we squeezed through by a narrow margin. The AAU program will be expanded so that interest in amateur athletics may be stimulated in all areas large and small wherever talent is available."

HOME RUN
The Oaks broke a 4-4 tie and won the opener against Sacramento when Pete Milne tripled in Johnny Bero in the sixth. In the finale, the Acorns hammered Reliever Bo Palica for five counters in the ninth, including Hank Schenz' second homer of the season.

PORTLAND trimmed San Francisco twice, 4-3 and 12-9, with Joe Brovia the hero in each game. Joltin' Joe whammed a pinch-hit single in the ninth frame of the opener to drive in the winning run and break a 2-2 tie. The Beavers collected another in the same frame. In the Seal ninth, Catcher Ray Orteig countered with a homer, but it wasn't enough.

IN A wild seven-inning nightcap, Brovia's single during a six-run, five-hit uprising in the fourth produced the run which put the Beavers ahead for keeps. Incidentally, Brovia arched a 380-foot homer over the left field wall in the sixth. San Diego pounded four Los Angeles hurlers to overwhelm the Angels 8-3. Tom Alston homered for the Padres with one aboard and Les Peden countered with a towering four-master for the Angels, also with a man on.

BACK IN BUSINESS—J. D. Kimmel pulls on his shoes preparatory to a workout with the University of Houston squad. The 235-pound tackle was one of the United States Military cadets dismissed last year for cribbing.

Durocher Suspended Again by Prexy Giles

NEW YORK (AP)—Leo Durocher started serving his third suspension of the season today as his New York Giants prepared to face the Pittsburgh Pirates in the second of their three-game series.

The latest suspension is a two-day vacation handed to the fiery manager by National League President Warren Giles for the bean-balling incident in the New York Brooklyn game of Monday afternoon.

Durocher was held responsible for Monte Kennedy throwing at Joe Black but the suspension was held to a minimum because the Giant pilot removed his pitcher after a warning by the umpire. Leo also was fined $100.

Other Giants fined were Kennedy and Larry Jansen, who hit Billy Cox with a pitch in the ninth inning and was ordered from the game by plate umpire Lee Ballanfant. Kennedy was fined $50 and Jansen $25. Because of Jansen's excellent record, his fine was remitted.

Durocher was forbidden to direct his club in today's and tomorrow's games. Each time the Pirates are the opposition, Leo has been suspended twice before by Giles, once for the shin-kicking episode with umpire Bill Stewart in Philadelphia June 29 and the other time for his near fist fight with umpire Augie Donatelli Aug. 17 at the Polo Grounds.

Mrs. Nerseth Heads Golf Association

The Willamette Valley Southern Oregon Women's Golf Association named Mrs. Marvin (Luster) Nerseth its second president in an election meeting in Roseburg Monday.

The Klamath Falls golfer succeeds Mrs. David B. Evans, Eugene, who has served as the association's president since its inception three years ago.

Mrs. Evans, together with Hugh Starkweather, then pro at the Medford golf club, were instrumental in starting the association. Two representatives from each of the eight golf clubs in the association were named on the board of directors.

ON BOARD
Mrs. Nerseth served the first two years for Klamath Falls along with Mrs. Jake Steiger, the first year as secretary of the board, the second as vice president.

Member clubs are at Corvallis, Coos Bay, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Medford, Eugene, Bend and Klamath Falls.

The association sponsors four tournaments a year, rotating between the towns. Klamath Falls Reamers Golf and Country Club was host last year and will be one of four towns to host a tourney next year.

OFFICERS
Other officers named Monday at Roseburg were Mrs. J. F. Wolke, Grants Pass, vice president, Mrs. L. L. Dickson, Corvallis, secretary, and Mrs. Gus Hixon, Eugene, treasurer.

Mrs. John McCulloch and Mrs. Frank Moser currently represent Klamath Falls on the board of directors.

Mrs. Nerseth will serve as the association's president for two years.
