Two Hit By Stray Bullets

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—An estimated 900 rounds of .50-caliber machine-gun slugs were sprayed over this capital city Tuesday night by an Air Force F51 Mustang which crashed in flames at Trux Field.

The pilot walked away from the crash but Ethel Pierce, 40, and William Falkenstein, 15, were wounded by slugs that ripped into their living rooms. They were believed to be in good condition. Capt. William Brown, the pilot, a member of the Iowa National Guard, said he turned back with a leaky fuel line after taking off for Sioux City, Ia. Flames burst from the plane as he came in for an emergency landing.

Air Force officials said the fire may have triggered the guns.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS UP

PLEASANTVILLE, Ia. (AP)—This small Central Iowa town is probably the first in the country to have its Christmas lighting in place this year. The lights are already set up. In fact, they have been hanging over the main street since before last Christmas. No one got around to taking them down.

ALLEY OOP?—Armed with war club and tin-pan helmet, this fellow, who would only give his name as Perk "because that's how everyone knows me," stopped into the Herald and News for a chat and a picture. He says once a year it seems he forgets to shave, so the beard. Perk is an employee on the Royce Ranch on the Klamath Marsh.

Red Blockade Starts Again

BERLIN (AP)—Armed Russians reimposed their blockade of a highway between Berlin's American sector and a U. S. checkpoint to West Germany Wednesday after a brief let-up that followed a strong protest from the U. S. High Commissioner.

Russian troops halted an American patrol due to go on duty at checkpoint at 7 a. m. Wednesday. Three U. S. soldiers in their jeep did not force the issue with the Soviet Tommy gunners. They took a detour which enabled them to reach the checkpoint without leaving the American sector.
