

National Meet Draws Republican Women to Hear Eisenhower

With a presidential campaign to win and the Republican candidate—Dwight D. Eisenhower—as speaker, outstanding women leaders from 42 states, Hawaii and the District of Columbia will meet under the banner of the National Federation of Women's Republican Clubs in St. Louis for their 7th biennial convention, Sept. 19-20.

Under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Farrington, National President and presiding officer, the convention will stimulate and organize Republican women for action in one of the most exciting campaigns ever known; will highlight campaign issues, point up immediate Federation responsibilities and set its course for the next two years. Headquarters will be at the Biltmore Hotel.

As previously announced, the General's address will mark the climax of the two-day session and will be made at a huge rally in the Kiel Auditorium on Saturday night.

SPEAKERS
Mrs. Farrington today announced the following additional speakers—Mrs. Homer Ferguson, editor-in-chief of the Federation's Washington News Letter, and wife of the Senator from Michigan, who will speak at a luncheon honoring members of the Advisory Board of the Federation on September 19. Her topic will be the importance of electing a Republican Congress.

A distinguished group of the top women in the Republican Party, who were with Gen. Eisenhower in Denver, will hold a round-table discussion on Women's Role in the 1952 Campaign later that afternoon. They will include—Mrs. Ivy Priest, assistant to the chairman of the Republican National Committee; Mrs. Katherine Howard, member of the Eisenhower-Nixon Policy Strategy Committee, and national committeewoman for Massachusetts; Mrs. Oswald Bates Lord, ex-chairman of the Citizens for Eisenhower-Nixon Committee; Mrs. Carol Arth, co-chairman of the Young Republican National Federation for Michigan, Mrs. Farrington.

That evening at a large banquet for all delegates and alternates the Hon. Dewey Short, Congressman from Missouri, will report on his trip to the Orient, Korea and the Islands of the Pacific, from which he will have just returned. He will then introduce the other speaker of the evening, His Excellency, Dr. Chang Yang, Korean Ambassador to the United States, who, of course, will speak on Korea.

Still other convention speakers announced by Mrs. Farrington include—Mrs. Alice K. Leopold, Secretary of State of Connecticut, who will address a luncheon group on Sept. 20; later that evening the Hon. Howard Elliott, Republican gubernatorial candidate for Missouri, and Sen. James P. Kem, candidate for reelection to the U.S. Senate from Missouri, will speak at the rally.

CHAIRMAN
Mrs. Ann R. Becker of University City, Mo., is chairman of Missouri arrangements for the convention. She is president of the Federation of Republican Women's Clubs of Missouri.

The Executive Committee of the National Federation includes—Mrs. Farrington of Hawaii and Washington, D.C., president; Mrs. Walter S. McNab, Schenectady, N.Y.; Mrs. G. D. Vernon, Des Moines, Iowa, and Mrs. Helen Schluraff, Erie, Pa., vice presidents; Mrs. Jean Fuller, Los Angeles, Calif., secretary; Mrs. Dan Kirkbride, Meriden, Wyo., treasurer; Mrs. Addison B. Green, Holyoke, Mass., past president; Mrs. Ruth G. Jetties, Tucson, Ariz., and Mrs. John E. Wise, Madison, Wis., members-at-large.
