

REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

FROM FRESNO — At the Matt Finnigan cottage at Lake O' the Woods...

ELSIE SIEMENS — had as houseguest recently — her sister — Jo — Mrs. Hugh Worcester — Berkeley...

FIRST GRANDSON — for the G. C. Lorenzen — was born to Totie and Glenn Lorenzen, in Alameda Hosp. — Alameda — 6 lbs 3 oz — Sept 6 — 4 a.m. — just too late for this dept last Sat.

VIRGINIA WHITE BROWN — whose artistic talents are being recognized beyond the "Klamath Pond" — won top honors in the professional water color division at the Oregon State Fair...

THE GALS AT REAMES — are staging another "fundraising" rum party at the club — a dinner dance Sept. 27 — Mary Juckeland in general chairman — also a reminder that the family dinner tomorrow is from 5 to 7:30 p.m. and reservations should have already been made through phone numbers 6331 or 4614.

ON CRUTCHES — He goes — Red Hard to see his spouse — Pat — who is recovering from major surgery in Klamath Valley Hosp. — (Red broke his foot in a swimming pool — jumping in feet first to rescue son Greg — who was 2 yesterday.)

IT'S A GIRL! — Dr. and Mrs. William R. Sweetman — Portland — proud parents of a baby girl — September 9 — young miss is only

Four-H News

JOLLY CANNETTES — Members are quite proud of themselves, because they all did well at the Fall Fair.

In Canning III, Roberta Pruitt won a blue ribbon, Nancy Pruitt won a blue ribbon in the Canning Contest and a red award in Canning.

In Canning II, Sharlene Kirkpatrick placed second in canning third in the Jam and Jelly contest. Jeanette Thornton placed third in Canning and third in the Jam and Jelly contest.

In Canning I, Ruth Roenicke won a blue award, Maureen Lyon won a white award.

In Freezing II, Roberta Pruitt placed first and Nancy Pruitt placed third.

In Freezing I, Ruth Roenicke placed second and Maureen Lyon placed third.

The members that will be representing the club in the judging contest at the State Fair are: Nancy Pruitt, Maureen Lyon and Ruth Roenicke.

Nancy Pruitt and Ruth Roenicke will give their demonstration on freezing peaches in the treated sugar syrup. Also projects winning blue awards will be shown at the State Fair.

Ruth Roenicke

HENLEY SHEEP CLUB — The Fall Livestock show and auction sale held the interest of the club members at their meeting Aug. 21.

Dale Flemming, leader, discussed cleaning and decoration of the sheep barn, which the club members were to do on Aug. 22, in preparation for the exhibits of the club members, taken in on Saturday.

Twenty-four members answered the role call at the home of Ray Jackson. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jackson.

Marilyn Mack

...and was really a bundle of joy — her mama Maxine of city of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson — Summers Lane.

THE BOB SCOTTS (Carmel Finnigan) — left yesterday to set up housekeeping in Eugene — while Bob goes to U. of O. — popular couple was married this summer.

ON THE "FRESHOLD" OF CAMPUS LIFE — To U of O — Ray Bell, Bill Wright, Patty Teale, Patty Young, Brent Heuberg, Shannon Oldham and Jerry — To Lewis and Clark — Harold Metter and Gay Clark — To SOCE — Margaret Powell and Chick Quimowski — OSC — Virginia Van Doren, Ralph Carroll, Phil Schroeder and Jim Davidson — Willamette — Lee Klamark — and Dick Geary and Marvin Nersech to Stanford — And as this was being written — Darrell Coker — who was KHS's vll leader in '51 — called on his way through town — will be a sophomore at Willamette — His parents moved from here when they bought his dad's father's grocery and meat market in Roseburg — N.M. — the Cecil B. C's — while here he saw his grandparents — Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vance.

YACHT CLUB — will have homemade mince pie on the menu this Sunday — a choice of barbecued chicken or Southern baked ham — make reservations at the club.

KLAMATH COLONY — at Harbor — all reported OK by Ellenor Stoner — who just returned from a couple of days with her mother — Rose Poole — the ex-KIP coast dwellers busy with bulbs — bridge — etc.

MORE FRESHMEN — off to school — Polly Haynes — who was runner-up as "Fairness of the Fair" — at the state fair in Salem — to OSC — Lucille Wood — also Tulalake — to Lewis and Clark — and Sharon Strand — to OCE — Monmouth.

FRIENDS LOOK FORWARD — to seeing Mamie Boyd Wagner — sister of Mrs. Guy (Nell) Hancock — when she comes to KF to visit the Hancocks — the only reason she cannot be claimed as a native — is that her parents were on a trip to Yreka when she was born — Always has some new happening of her interesting life to add to the conversation — and her zest for living is reflected in all she does and says — a recognized poetess — she is Past President of the New York City Branch of the National League of American Pen Women — was last year's president of N.Y. State Penwomen — is now National Librarian of the American Poetry League — a poet that league — member Poetry Society of America — and other leading literary organizations — over 500 of her poems have appeared in about 150 periodicals — newspapers, magazines and anthologies — She's founder of the magazine "The New York Penwoman" — published an anthology of contemporary poetry in Braille — while pres. of N.Y. City branch — and has acted as judge for numerous poetry contests — All of which adds up to a busy life — Her visit to the West Coast included some fascinating social functions in Southern California — at the homes of the literati — a name-dropper's veritable heaven! — her nephew Boyd and his wife Myrtle and their son Boydie who were here for part of her stay have returned to Arizona after a month in the Northwest.

MANZANITA CHAPTER 172 — The first fall meeting of Manzanita Chapter 172, OES was held Friday evening September 5, in the IOOF Hall, Vera Fritsch, Worthy Matron and John Larson, Worthy Patron presided and greeted members and friends.

Reports on the chapter's activities and projects during summer vacation were given by various members and officers.

The social hour was held in the dining room which was attractively decorated with autumn flowers. Everyone enjoyed an alphabet game supervised by Thelma Creswell. Refreshments were served by the committee: Thelma Creswell, Clella MacDonald, Freda Jackson and Colleen Creswell.

The Kirby Co. Call 2-0131 No. 3 Lytton

MR. AND MRS. EUGENE HAWKINS—who were married in the First Presbyterian Church, August 24. After a wedding trip to Banff, British Columbia, the couple will be at home, 933 Eldorado.

COUPLE TO LIVE HERE AFTER TRIP TO BANFF, B. C.

A pretty, informal afternoon wedding, August 24, in the First Presbyterian Church, united June Sylvia Spicher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kelly, Baker, Ore., and Eugene Sylbert Hawkins, son of Mrs. A. E. Bergloff, 2748 Ward Street, in marriage. The three o'clock service was read by the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr.

Mrs. E. A. Veatch, organist, accompanied Ruby Gehring, soloist.

Escorted to the altar, flanked with large baskets of salmon and white gladioli, before a background of greenery, the bride wore a gown of deep salmon net over satin, styled with a skirt of tiered pleated net, and with it she wore a matching stole.

Her headband was of white gladioli petals on apple green ribbon, and she carried a crescent bouquet of white gladioli with apple green streamers.

The bride's attendants were all dressed alike, in net over satin, with matching stoles, except for color. Matron of honor, Mrs. Dick Spicher, wore an orchid gown, and her headband was of yellow gladioli petals. Her bouquet was the same as the bride's in yellow with yellow ribbon streamers. Mrs. Albert Bonotto, bridesmaid, wore blue and her headband and bouquet were salmon hued, in the name flowers as the bride's.

Flower girl, Marlys Spicher, daughter of the bride, was dressed similar to the other attendants. Ring bearer was Billy Hawkins, son of the bridegroom.

Roy Hawkins attended his brother as best man, and ushers were Wayne Bergloff, step-brother of the bridegroom, and Bob Hoskinson.

Mrs. Kelly wore a wine sabbardine suit with matching accessories and her corsage was of yellow roses and gold pompon chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Bergloff wore a green sabbardine suit to her son's wedding, and her corsage was the same as the bride's mother's.

The reception was in the banquet room of the Willard Hotel. Cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and the wedding cake were served, and dancing followed. Bernice Hawkins carried the guest book.

For her going away costume, the bride wore a brown and white checked suit, with brown accessories.

After a wedding trip to Radium Hot Springs, Banff, B.C., the couple will live at 933 Eldorado. Hawkins is general manager of Chiloquin Forest Products.

RE-CREATES BROADWAY ROLE

Helen Hayes charmed Broadway in "The Wisteria Trees." Sunday she stars in its radio premiere with Joseph Cotten, to open Theatre Guild on the Air's eighth season on radio. Listen every Sunday evening to the U.S. Steel Hour, 5:30 p.m. KNBC.

BONANZA

By CORA LEAVITT

C. J. Andrews has been on crutches for a week suffering from a mached ankle suffered in a logging accident.

Mrs. Florence Horn and Jackie spent several days in Langell Valley with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frasier and Lindal. Mrs. Mary J. Smith mother of Mrs. Frasier spent several days in Klamath Falls at the Winema.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Marchant and children of Tullalake were visitors at the Bill Burnett home. They spent the last day with Mrs. Burnett.

Charles Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Walker arrived home from a year in the Pacific to spend his through with his parents. He is in the U.S. Navy.

A large crowd of Klamath Basin folks came for the dedication of the beautiful new Catholic church "St. Francis Cabrini" which was held on Sept. 7. Following the services most of the crowd enjoyed a delicious chicken and ham dinner on the lawn of the Cecil Hunt home.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Givan of Coquille spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Givan and attended the dedication services. The Givans daughter, Mrs. Joe Haynes and family, Klamath Falls were also here.

Mrs. Eva Arthur of Lakeview is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Ida Casabee.

Ted Pepples left Aug. 31 by plane for Anchorage where he is stationed with the U.S. Army. He spent several weeks with his parents, the Owen Pepples, Mr. and

47th Wedding Anniversary

MACDOEL — Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goode held open house Saturday August 23, from 4:30 to 8:00 p.m. in honor of their 47th wedding anniversary. A fish dinner was served to the guests: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Goode and son Kate of Grass Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kappen, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whitt, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Garey, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrus and Mrs. Bud Stevenson all of Macdoel; Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Jimmy and Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hayes, Jane Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Milligan and son Gene, Fern Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gravier, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Goode and Eileen and Juanna all of Dorris; Maude Holmes and Iris Goode, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Pepples and Ted were dinner guests of the F. W. Brown and Mrs. Dunbar and Martin Brown of Langell Valley on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville DeVault had a house full of company over the Labor Day holiday. Guests were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billy DeVault who have bought a home in Grants Pass and their great grandchildren Yvonne and Norma Gayle Cox, and Mrs. Bob Conley and Evelyn and Dayle all of Grants Pass and Mrs. Helen Aiken and children of Klamath Falls. Davie Cox returned home with them after spending the summer with the DeVaults. O. C. Wells spent the weekend with his wife. He is working for the forest service near Bly this summer.

Mrs. Paul Monroe of Langell Valley visited Friday with Mrs. Bonnie Pepples.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Carr spent Sunday evening in Klamath Falls with his parents and brother and family.

Mary Jo Graves who is employed in Klamath Falls spent the weekend with her parents the Ernest Graves.

Chiloquin

By DARLENE WOLFF

Mrs. and Mrs. George Hobbs have moved from Gilchrist to Chiloquin and both are members of the Chiloquin school faculty this year. Hobbs has taught at Sprague River, Merrill and Delbert; in past years and will handle the shop classes. His wife will work with the intermediate grades.

Mrs. Frank Bell returned to Chiloquin a few days ago. She and her husband left as soon as school was out last spring, went to Minnesota for a vacation, travelled back through North Dakota to Montana where they spent the rest of the time and where Bell will remain until November. He is a buyer and seller of cattle there during the summer and fall months. His wife will again be on the high school faculty but she will teach different subjects this year, taking the commercial and library work.

Mrs. Albert Summers was taken to Klamath Valley Hospital last week and might have to remain for major surgery.

Benny Nygren, third grader, was riding double on a bicycle with a friend on Friday afternoon. They took a tumble and Benny knocked out two permanent teeth and cracked a third so badly it will probably have to be removed. He and his grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Nygren, left early on Sunday for Roseburg where they were to attend the wedding of her niece. They planned to return on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ohles and family of Anderson, Calif. were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ohles, Melvin, son of the Floyd Ohles, went to California with his relatives to visit before school starts.

Richard Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hayes, has applied for enlistment into the Navy. He will probably leave within the next few days.

The first PTA meeting of the year is scheduled for Sept. 8 and it is hoped that a large number will turn out for it. The meeting will be all recreation and mainly for the purpose of introducing new parents and teachers in the community. Mrs. Andrew Otis is the club president this year.

Advertisement for Cascade Laundry & Dry Cleaners. Features a photo of a smiling man and text: 'TIME TO GET YOUR WINTER CLOTHES CLEANED and PRESSED! These sharp mornings and evenings mean that it's time to get your Winter wear ready for Winter. Expert cleaning and pressing and we'll give your outer garments the water repellent treatment if you wish. We can also handle your drapes and slip-covers, expertly, efficiently, and fast! Phone 5111 for Pick-Up and delivery service. send your cleaning with your laundry! CASCADLAUNDRY & DRY CLEANERS Klamath's Finest Opp. Post Office'

Advertisement for Lees Interlude carpet. Features a photo of a carpet and text: 'Feast your eyes on INTERLUDE by LEES Introducing a Real Carpet Buy! Lees finest hard-twist and regular yarns are combined to create a rich sculptured effect in a wide selection of colors. The graceful leaf motif enhances the beauty of any room, any decor. Sturdy and dependable, this 100% imported wool carpet is an outstanding buy at $10.50 PER SQ. YD. "Four Floors of Fine Furniture and Floor Coverings" Klamath Furniture Co 221 Main Phone 5353 or 5339 THE LEES NAME ON THE CARPET IS YOUR GUARANTEE OF QUALITY!'

Advertisement for La Pointe's lingerie. Features a photo of a woman in a bra and girdle and text: 'A PROMISE OF LOVELINESS FULFILLED LIFE BRAS and GIRDLES from 1.25 from 8.95 by FORMFIT La Pointe's'