"THIS MOMENT" . . . Quiet contemplation. The bride and her engagement ring. Symbolic of yesterday's pledges and today's vows.

ONE LAST SMILE . . . for their friends from "The Rountrees" as they leave the reception to change clothes for their wedding trip.

HAPPY BRIDE . . . and her proud father, who gave her in marriage.

"Summer Echoes"

BUDDING ARTIST . . . Marlene Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jackson, Burbank. The attractive and talented 15-year-old visitor sketched and painted in water colors many of the Lake O' the Woods homes of Klamath people, while she was a summer visitor at the lake home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hohl, Roseburg. In the picture she is shown with a sketch of the Dick Reeder cottage, taken when she and her parents were in town as guests at the Reeder home, 229 Washington Street. —Photo by Guderian

THEY GOT TOGETHER . . . Jackie Jones and Joan Britton, from Portland; and Nancy Clark and Ronnie Olson, from Klamath Falls. Jackie, from Portland, was Ronnie's houseguest. Ronnie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim R. Olson, 1758 Eldorado. Joan Britton was Nancy Clark's houseguest. Joan is the daughter of the Robert Brittons, former residents, when her father was associated with the Standard Oil Company here. The get-together was in the yard of the George H. Clarks, Nancy's parents, 2021 Levey. And Joan and Jackie, after the Brittons moved to Portland, "just happened" to live in the same neighborhood . . . so it was a get-together . . . here! —Photo by Kettler
