Society
By MILLY RAMSBY

MRS. RICHARD SCOTT (left) and Mrs. Howard Strode... new members.

MRS. GARY E. ROBERTSON... at the left, Mrs. Charles Carlson, center, and Mrs. Chester Newton. Mrs. Robertson is the wife of the General Supervisor for the city schools; Mrs. Carlson's husband is new principal of KUH&S and Mrs. Newton's husband teaches there. Center of page, Dennis Hannan, playing the violin accompanied by his wife. Shown with them, Mrs. Darrel Potter, wife of the principal of Roosevelt School.

AT THE TEA TABLE... Mrs. Forest Hawley, Mrs. Howard Bailey, and pouring, Mrs. Howard Griffith, president of Faculty Wives.

MRS. MAURICE ANDERSON... and Mrs. James Palmer.

YOU ARE ELIGIBLE... to become a member of Faculty Wives, if your husband teaches in the city school system. A woman teacher becomes a member only because she married a teacher. "Faculty Wives" means just that; and they have much fun doing much good.

IOOF Auxiliary World Meeting

Mrs. Robert Henry (Mae) Anderson left September 8, for Dallas, Texas, to attend a meeting of representatives of International Association Auxiliary Post 1000, affiliated with IOOF. The important meeting of auxiliary officers will be in session several days, with representatives from all over the world attending. Mrs. Anderson planned a stop in San Diego, where her grandson, Martin Snyder U.S. Navy, is stationed. His wife, Lois joined him there this summer, and Mrs. Anderson expressed the hope that he would be in port at the time of her arrival. On her return trip, her plans are to stop in Denver, to visit her sister, Mrs. C. M. Ramsby, there with her daughter, Mrs. T. R. Gilgewater, and family.

WHITE SHRINE 5

Past Worthy High Priestesses and Past Watchmen of Shepherds were honored by an impressive bible ceremony at a stated meeting of Naomi Shrine 5, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, Tuesday evening, September 2, at the Masonic Temple.

Flowers in profusion decorated both the meeting and the dining rooms. These came from the gardens of the various Sojourners.

During the dinner hour, the group was entertained by accordion music by Patsy Ruth Miller, daughter of Sojourner Erma Miller. Following the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ward showed a series of interesting moving pictures taken on their recent trip to Hawaii. Both features were greatly enjoyed.

The regular meeting of Naomi Shrine, a surprise reception was held in the banquet room for Sojourners Jack and Blanche Schwaiz, to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. A beautifully decorated three tier wedding cake was served by a committee composed of Past Worthy High Priestesses Charlotte Martin, Nell Retherath and Blanche Marks, Sojourner James Hunter, watchman of Shepherds, read a poem of his own composition dedicated to the Schwaizes. Sojourner Corrine Larson sang "The Anniversary Waltz." She was accompanied at the piano by Sojourner Marie Waddell.

The next meeting of Naomi Shrine will be held at the Temple on October 7, at which time there will be a ceremonial for the in-itation of candidates.
