Chemult

By VIRGINIA TAYLOR

School bells claimed all those over six today when the local children piled into the bus and were off to Gilchrist to register for the 1953 school year. While they were gone a conflagration broke out near the post office and the entire community was shocked into realization how poorly we are protected in case of fire. Due to the inadequate water supply and lack of pressure it was very difficult to get the fire under control. Many of the volunteers suffered minor burns from inadequate facilities and lack of training for such an emergency. The Crescent ranger station sent a fire truck to the scene as soon as possible. There is a rumor growing in volume that the community may try to purchase a small truck to be used in just such cases.

Over the weekend many Chemult homes had visitors: the Hugh Porters had visitors from Nevada, Hood River and Fort Lewis, Wash. Mr. Robert Newton arrived to visit his wife who is managing the Hotel. Mrs. Rebecca Gentry accompanied Cpl. Harrison Pirtle and his wife. Cpl. Pirtle is with the Army Engineers and stationed at Fort Lewis.

Mrs. Ida Leighner of Redlands, Calif., visited over the weekend with her niece, Mrs. G. C. Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Thompson and daughter, Mavis, Portland, were weekend guests at the George Bourne. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are the aunt and uncle of Mr. Bourne.

Mr. Jack Bradley reports the construction of a new sheep bridge on lower Miller Creek. Jerry Aheist and Patrick Angland are in charge of construction. The crew consists of several men from Bend. It should be completed within the next two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reidland and children of The Dalles have moved to Chemult. Mr. Reidland is employed by Morrison and Knutson. They are originally from Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. V. I. Brander want to thank all their many friends who helped save their home and the local post office building yesterday during the fire which destroyed several buildings on their property.
