Gale Robbins Aims For Dramatic Acting Roles

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Behind the screen: It's make the grade as a dramatic actress or bust in the case of Gale Robbins.
Gale wants to rest her singing voice long enough to try the Duse racket, and it looks like she's going to get her chance.
The offers to make like Greer and Jennifer have been coming in, she told me, since the release of Columbia's "The Brigand," in which she plays her first straight role.
"I really haven't done anything important in Hollywood until now," she declared. "Just chucking Red Skelton under the chin and making eyes at Fred Astaire."

Jack Benny has finally decided to retire from the screen—a good seven years after release of his last feature film. Jack's reason: "I simply cannot afford to make a bad picture."
"The Horn Blows at Midnight" was released in 1945 and Jack has not starred in a movie since. He told me:
"Now, with television, I doubt that I ever will. Making movies is a full-time job. You can't do it and radio and TV at one time and be successful in all three. And failure in one field hazards your chances in the others."
Jack plays a bit, as himself, in Betty Hutton's new film, "Somebody Loves Me," but he did it only as a favor to his long-time pal, Producer Bill Perleberg.

Author Norman Katkov's forthcoming biography of Fanny Brice will tell this anecdote: When Billy Rose was gallivanting around with Eleanor Holm in 1939, Fanny stayed put in Hollywood, keeping her counsel. She said not a word until one day, irked at the gossip that Billy was leaving her, she asked a friend:
"What does Billy see in that Eleanor Holm? There isn't a thing I can't do better than her—except swim."

Look alike: Nancy Olson and Clarissa Churchill, bride of Anthony Eden.
The name of Steve Cochran's newest flame—a lass on the Warner lot—would curl your hair.
Nita Naldi is the latest silent screen star to try for a comeback. She's also up for a role in the

Oregon Farm Taxes Down

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farm real estate taxes levied by state and local governments averaged 91 cents an acre in Washington and Idaho this year, and 89 cents an acre in Oregon, the Agriculture Department reported Tuesday.
The department said the national average was 68 cents an acre, compared with 64 cents last year and a pre-war average of about 38 cents.
The report said it was the seventh annual increase in farm realty taxes since World War II and reflects a need by state and local governments for more funds to meet mounting costs.

Maclean To Join Insurance Firm

PORTLAND (AP)—Robert D. Maclean, who is resigning as state tax commissioner, will join an insurance firm owned by State Treasurer Walter J. Pearson.
Pearson made the announcement Tuesday. He also reported that Maclean would remain with the commission until the end of October. Earlier it was reported that Maclean would quit in September.
Maclean's post probably will be filled by someone now employed by the commission, Pearson said. The appointment will be made by the State Board of Control of which Pearson is a member.

Dunninger Deplores New Crop Of Pro Magicians

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Being a mentalist has its drawbacks, admits Joseph Dunninger, the famed mind reader and magician.
He is here to help mastermind the filming of "Houdini," based rather loosely on the life of the great escape artist.
Dunninger, who was a colleague and friend of Houdini, has performed his mind-reading feats in night clubs and theaters and on radio and television. While this has been extremely profitable to him, there are other considerations, too.
"Of instance," he began, "a few years ago I was to be interviewed by a magazine writer. When she arrived, she didn't ask any questions. She wanted me to guess what she was asking."
"I tried to explain that I could only ascertain certain isolated thoughts, such as her mother's name or a series of digits. We argued about it for half an hour, but she wouldn't give in. Sure enough, the story came out that I had failed to read her mind."
Dunninger's reputation naturally precludes any card play. When he was appearing at a Las Vegas Casino, the management requested that he stay away from the black jack table.
We discussed the current state of the magic business, Dunninger scribbled on the paper. The answer was correct.

Then he asked me to think of four digits. I picked the battle of Hastings—1066. He asked me for the number and then showed me what he had already written—1066.
Houdini, if this guy knows so much, maybe he's got the answer to the flying saucers, I asked him.
"I only believe in things I can see," he replied succinctly. "I have never seen a flying saucer."

PARDON MY GUST!
ROADMASTER CUSTOM BUILT BY BUICK
BENEATH that big broad bonnet is the reason for this headline.
It's a four-barreled automatic carburetor—Airpower by name—which has a way of gulping in what the dictionary defines as "a sudden blast of wind" when extra power is needed.
When extra power is wanted in a hurry—the "reserves" swing into action—feeding extra fuel and extra air in an ever-thrifty mixture, which delivers the greatest horsepower in Buick history.
This is one of many distinctions that endear ROADMASTERS to fine-car owners.
It's a car as rich in finish as it is in power—a car of expansive room—restful silence—level in gait—beautifully responsive to your mood and will.
And it offers the effortless ease of Power Steering* especially engineered by Buick to save your strength in parking and slow-motion maneuvers, and still let you feel a proud sense of command and a sure sense of control on the highway.
There's just one question we'd like to ask: When are you going to come in and enjoy the ride of your life?
Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Optional at extra cost on ROADMASTER and SUPER only.
