A rally-day session was the kick-off meeting for the Lindley Heights home extension unit, Dale was Sept. 10. The meeting at Joan's kitchen at the Fairgrounds was called to order by Mrs. Myrtle Allen, chairman. All meetings will be held at the kitchen this year.

Mrs. Allen appointed standing committees for the year as follows: Membership, Helen Owen; Hospitality, Louise Borton; Recreation, Myrtle Cammock; Publicity Mary Schlegal; Standard Units, Myrtle Allen; 4-H Clubs, Kathryn Billings; Azalea House, Helen Owens; World Citizenship, Florence Oppelet.

The first regular meeting is planned for Tuesday, Oct. 8 for a lesson on Repair of Inner Springs.

Ten o'l members and eight new ones were present on rally day.

MIDLAND

The Midland Home Extension Unit had a Rally Day meeting, Thursday, Sept. 11, at Joan's Kitchen. New officers this year are — Mrs. Leon Andrieu, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Sukrow, vice chairman; Mrs. William Wilson secretary-treasurer.

The meeting was called to order and year books distributed. The year's activities were discussed and Project Leaders assigned. Delores Bracken, new Extension Agent, was introduced and discussed the Standard Unit Goals. Mrs. Clive McPherson, the new County Committee member gave a report on the recent Committee meeting. She has been appointed Chairman of Standard Unit. A card and hankie shower was sent to Mrs. Charles Chaffee who recently moved out of state.

The Chairmen of Standing Committees are as follows: Membership and Hospitality, Mrs. Donna Hayes; Luncheon and Publicity, Mrs. George Overmire; 4-H Club, Mrs. John Mistler, assisted by Mrs. Alvin Collins who will have the girls and Mrs. LeRoy Houck who will take the boys; A.C.W.W. Mrs. Alvin Collins; Program Planning, Mrs. Joe Horsley.

The new officers served dessert and coffee to the 12 members present along with three new members and a [illegible] Mrs. Audrey Ager, Mrs. Bertha Tingley and Mrs. Bertha Lund.

Among the many interesting subjects for the coming season will be: Making Aluminum Trays, constructing a lazy susan, building a fireplace screen, re-upholstery as the workshop.

The first regular meeting will be held October 9, at Joan's Kitchen starting at 10:30. The subject will be, Repair of Innersprings, led by Mrs. Clive McPherson and Mrs. Stanley Rayson. All those interested are invited to attend.

MERRILL—Merrill Home Extension Unit met September 12, at the Merrill Recreation Hall with Rudy Mitchell, chairman in charge. During the business session project leaders for the coming year were appointed, as well as the standing committee chairman; they are as follows: membership, Hazel Mowell; hospitality, Mildred Rexford; recreation, Myrtle Rippy; publicity, Geraldine Moore; standard unit, Iva Jane Will; 4-H club Leona Beesley; Azalea House, Iva Kilpatrick; and World Citizenship, Cleo Denham.

Margaret Loper and her assistant, Myrtle Rippy, will be in charge of setting up a booth at the potato festival to display the work that has been accomplished by the Merrill Unit during the past years.

Seventeen members and one guest were present.

The next regular meeting will be Friday, October 10, at 1:30 p.m. in the recreation hall. The subject to be discussed by Miss Dolores Bracken "Poise and Charm Can be Yours." All those interested are welcome to attend.

The Klamath County Home Extension committee meeting Sept. 8 at the home of Mrs. William Drew for a potluck luncheon had a busy session in preparation for the coming winter's program.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Claude Williams, chairman. Mrs. Williams appointed three members to serve on the Azalea House committee, Mrs. Gene Woods, Mrs. A. J. Scott and Mrs. Claude Williams.

Each county in the state will choose two high school graduates attending Oregon State College to live in the Azalea House, new Women's cooperative now being built with funds raised by Home Extension units. Policy of decision will be worked out by the individual counties.

October 20-21 were announced as the dates for training for making aluminum trays with Delores Bracken, Home Extension Agent instructing.

The fourth annual Arts and Craft leadership training institute will be held in the YMCA building, Oct. 6-1-10 and Oct. 13-16. Frank Staples will be in charge and anyone interested is asked to contact Paul S. Campbell, YMCA director not later than Oct. 4.

Advance registration fee is $1 and the entire course of eight lessons is not expected to exceed $5. Cost of the classes depends on attendance.

Mrs. Iva Kilpatrick, representative of Oregon to the 1950 International conference of Associated Country Women of the World in Europe, has announced that she will show pictures taken on the trip to all interested units. The Lindley Heights unit has asked for a showing in October.

Present for the meeting were Mrs. O. L. Brown, Mrs. A. J. Scott, Mrs. Claude Williams, Mrs. H. V. Borton, Doroes Bracken and the hostess, Mrs. Drew.

When changing the color scheme of your bathroom, use a dye-bath to bring the color of accessories into harmony.

SOFT SUEDE GOES NOBLE in a coatdress. This one of forest green has three-quarter push-up sleeves, double pockets just below the beltline and deep turn-back reveres. No collar across the back. The smart sport hat is trimmed with a marching row of white buttons across the crown, tiny edge of white suede around the brim.

Helpful Hints

To protect your brass from tarnishing, clean it and apply a thin coat of fresh white shellac.

Don't pour liquid into a very hot frying pan. The sudden change in temperature may cause warping.

You'll prevent fires in your home, if you take care not to string electric cords or wires under rugs or over nails.

To keep dust and dirt from adhering to your dustpan, wash it well with soap, dry and apply wax.

Your refrigerator door should open away from the work counter or sink, so that your movements are unobstructed.

Before washing crocheted or knitted bedspread, look it over for broken threads. Mending them immediately will prevent their raveling when handled.

An exhaust fan in your kitchen will draw out heat, odors and grease. It will keep the rest of your house cooler and cleaner.

For long, hard wearing wools choose a worsted, gabardine, cheviot, serge, or covert.

If a gas burner in your stove is sputtering, remove the burner clean out the holes with a pine cleaner or stic, and wash in hot soapsuds.

When buying materials for home sewing, check for pre-shrinkage.

Can she bake a chocolate cake, Mr. Goldwyn, Mr. De Mille?

Can she bake a chocolate cake, Mr. Mayer?

That may be a new amendment to the Hollywood screen test soon, since sultry Suzan Ball broke into the movies by baking a cake.

You never know when a talent for cooking may come in handy, says black-eyed Suzan, who looks as if she never got closer to a kitchen than the VIP table at Club 21.

There might be this starving producer, see, with whom you'd be shipwrecked on a desert island. And if you could cook up a tasty shark stew with coconut oil—well, you can see where it might get you.

COULD BE

Or a script might call for a real thousand-volt glamor girl who suddenly slips out of her mink and into an apron and whips up a meal fit for a tycoon in a mountain hunting lodge.

Suzan's ascent to the Hollywood firmament, however, came after she baked a "black-eyed Susan" cake for two soldiers stationed at an Army camp near her family's home in Santa Maria, Calif. The boys were so dazzled at the sight of a beautiful girl who could really cook that they took a picture of her and the cake and sent it to a Hollywood agent, who promptly got her signed under contract to Universal Pictures.

Suzan has made three pictures so far: "Untamed Frontier," in which she was given introductory billing "Yankee Buccaneer," soon to be released, in which she co-stars with Jeff Chandler, and "City Beneath the Sea," set for a January premiere, in which she also gets co-star billing.

NON-SYNTHETIC

Suzan wants to make it clear that she used no prepared mixes or ready - to - spread frostings in making her success cake. She started from scratch. And what other glamor girl do you know who could do that?

Suzan's fame as a cook spread fast in Hollywood, and now she is besieged by swains who came bearing steaks and chops instead of flowers and candy, prepared to stay for dinner at the pretty star's apartment. Says Suzan:

"I'm especially popular on Sunday morning, since I started serving my Mexican breakfast to some of the gang."

The Mexican breakfast is one of Suzan's own inventions, made by frying spicy Mexican sausage and diced potatoes in a heavy skillet, adding diced onions, minced red chili peppers, a pinch of oregano or other spice and then breaking eggs on top of all and scrambling the whole thing together. She says:

"It takes only a few minutes. You serve it with hot tortillas or toast and Mexican chocolate and —oh boy!"

Suzan also prepares Mexican steaks, when the boys come bearing sirloins. This is done by broiling the steaks in the usual manner and serving them with her own Mexican sauce, which she makes thus:

"Mince fresh red and green peppers with pimiento and dice onions and cook with butter in a skillet until the onions are golden color. Then add a can of tomato sauce and spices—oregano, chile powder, salt, pepper and some chili sauce if you like. It's delish!"
