Fort Klamath

By MYRTLE WIMER

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jenkins are receiving congratulations on the birth of their first child, Donna Marie, born Sept. 7, at Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls. The infant weighed seven pounds six ounces, and mother and daughter are back home in Fort Klamath now and doing fine. Arrival of Donna Marie makes granddaughters for the first time Mrs. Jenkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Quincy Buel, owners of the Fort Klamath Hotel—they are proud and happy with their new student, and also doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. (Bill) Bronson, daughter Dorothy and son Carson, were here from Canyonville at their local residence last week. Leaving Wednesday for home. During the month of August, the Bronson family enjoyed a trip to Eastern and Southern states, where they visited friends in Colorado, his relatives in Kansas and Mrs. Bronson's kinfolk in Kentucky, arriving home at Canyonville Aug. 30.

Last week's closure of the frozen food lockers at the Crater Lake Grocery left local patrons with two alternatives of action—that of securing lockers in neighboring communities, or purchasing home deep freeze cabinets, the majority choosing to do the latter. Reason given for the shutdown of the lockers by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder is increase in rates of electric power which would have forced them to run the lockers at a financial loss. The lockers have long provided a convenience for the local population and have been operated in conjunction with the Roeders' Crater Lake Grocery.

At Wilkinson, Klamath Falls, spent Thursday visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Johnson.

With the approach of deer hunting season, local sportsmen are busy getting their winter wood in the sheds and doing other necessary fall chores so as to be all set for the opening of the annual season on October 1. Shooting irons are being sighted up and outfit hunting and trapping equipment is being checked over, and the hunting fever is rising higher every day, with the riders keeping their fingers crossed and hoping that the season opens on time this year with favorable conditions in the forests for the invasion of hunters in search of the antlered game. Many deer and elk have been seen in the 7-mile district west of here, but when the open hunting season comes, many a one will be visible.

Deer hunters are keen to sense their creatures' scent to disappear along instinctively and disappear into the hinterlands.

Mrs. Wilbur Hecock was admitted Sept. 9, to Klamath Valley Hospital for medical observation and care. During her stay in the hospital, her stepmother, Mrs. Frances Brandenburg, Merrill, is caring for the Hecock family at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grant, San Luis Obispo, were overnight house guests of Walter Midkiff at his Wood River Motel Wednesday, stopping enroute home from a business trip to Northern Idaho, having visited during the day with other old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hansen of Neptune Park, Agency Lake. The Grants are former owners of the Wood River Motel, now the property of Midkiff. While here, they also called on other friends in Fort Klamath.

Ralph Vaden and son Billy, returned Sept. 6, from Salem, where Vaden took for exhibition at the State Fair his purebred registered white shorthorn heifer, which was one year old Aug. 3. Vaden and son have reason to be proud of the animal, for at the fair she captured the following awards: a blue ribbon for being first in her class; two purple ribbons, one for being chosen junior champion shorthorn female, the other being awarded for grand champion over all shorthorn females at the fair. Vaden plans to take his prize-winning white heifer to the Cow Palace in San Francisco in October, with a view to selling her. Mr. and Mrs. Vaden, their daughter Anita and son Billy, live at the Hawkins Cattle Company ranch south of here, where Vaden is employed as ranchhand the year round.

Weekend houseguests of Mrs. Myrtle Denton and son Delbert, at the Denton ranch were Ray Jo-hansen, his son Gary and grandson, who drove up from Arcata, for the visit with Johansen's aunt and cousin, Gary was home on furlough from New Mexico, where he is stationed with the Air Force.

IN AERIAL BALLET—Arden Larey, here perched on the shoulder of Dick Faughnan, is one of a bevy of Aeriallovelies appearing in the fourth annual Klamath Falls Shrine Club-Polack Bros. Circus, which comes to the Klamath Armory, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Sept. 20-21-22.

Death came Friday morning, Sept. 12, to Lester Vaughan, well known in logging circles of this vicinity. A former resident of Chillicothe and for the past several years living at Prineville, Vaughan had been hospitalized in Portland at the Veterans' Hospital for a long time prior to his passing and had undergone a series of operations. His daughter-in-law is Mrs. Jay Hughes (Marie Looney) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Looney, pioneer residents of Wood River Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and children live at Rager station 40 miles from Paulina Lake, where Hughes is stationed as U.S. Forest Service ranger.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Sept. 13, at Rose Mortuary in Portland. Interment was in Willamette Memorial cemetery in Portland. Friends here extend their deepest sympathy to Mrs. Vaughan, her daughter Lydia and son Jay, all of whom are well-known here. Mrs. Vaughan for many years operated the Vogue Beauty Shop in Chillicothe, and her clientele included a large percentage of Fort Klamath women.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Owens and their three children left Sept. 15, to spend the fall and winter months at their Red Bluff ranch. Owens is a stockman of Fort Klamath and Red Bluff, and the family this year occupied the former residence of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder which they purchased last spring. Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Bumpus left Saturday for their home in San Francisco, after a week's stay here at the Fort Creek Motel owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roese. The California visitors enjoyed fishing and trips to various scenic points while here, and on leaving, expressed their intention of returning here again next year.

CHINESE MECHANIZED FARMS SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The official Peiping radio says Communist China now has 41 major mechanized state farms occupying 180,000 acres. All are equipped with tractors, combines and other farming machines. In addition, hundreds of smaller state farms are using these improved implements, said the broadcast which was heard here.
