

REFLECTIONS FROM

I POINT with pride—at Peterson School Patrons (practically) "ALL MALE" office holders—President is Ray Garrison, 1st v-p is Van Mollison, 2nd v-p—Esin Kiger and treasurer is Bill Francisco—Miss Charles Miller—secretary—only woman on the list—all the rest are "Misters"—Even the program chairman is "Mr."—Known to his parishioners as the Reverend Edw. H. Lander Jr. The meeting Wednesday night was "REALLY peppy"—the women are intrigued and delighted—and to me—something new has been added to the Patrons' picture—and it's GOOD!!!

IN THE PAST—names of students going out of town to college have been published—and as a Basintie—I had a slow-take last Saturday—when I met the Frank M. Shaw and daughter Colleen at the Don Drummers—then I learned that they were here to enroll her in OTI—Frank Shaw is with the Heinz Lot operations in Seneca, Oregon—in the John Day country—and they brought with them Jack Mitchell (son of Merrill M. who is Supt. of logging operations)—also to enroll at OTI—Colleen—Jack and any other students from Seneca will enjoy our balmy climate—they rode a bus 25 miles EACH WAY to High School in John Day—where the temperature reading hit 42 BELOW!—but what hit ME—is that they DID finish and they ARE here—and how many of us actually realize that there is an INFLUX of students seeking training and education HERE—and the potent and potential factors involved in "Building a Better Basin."

AND TO CONTINUE—with education—Mel Leonard—now living in Grants Pass—reports that his wife Joada—who had taught school—and worked in social welfare etc.—has decided to go back to school—and will commute daily to Ashland—gleaning in more credits at SOC.

SMOKE SIGNALS—were sent up at the H&N announcing the arrival of John Robert Daniel Chariton—born 6:22 p.m., Sept. 15—at Klamath Valley Hosp.—5 lbs 12½—and that's some smoke signal—Proud papa Jack Chariton provided "planky panatelas to the fellas"—to make—no doubt—the first smoke signal in history with a Spanish accent—Wile and new mother—Yvonne—busy with plans for going home with son to be spoiled by grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Chariton—and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard P. Rochon—young John Robert Daniel's first grandson on EITHER side!

SELF-CONCIOUS??—"Don't be!—If you're an Elk or Elkess—if you have to be is conscious—to join the Beginners' Square Dancing Class—8 p.m. in the Elk's Club Ballroom—where there's plenty of room for patterns—and with Otto Eilke calling—AND instructing—the embarrassment—of "first" reticent Elkess—give it a whirl with your girl—Classes will continue every other Tuesday—starting at 8 p.m.

PROFESSOR—they call him—because that's what he is—teaches mechanical and electrical engineering—in which he has a masters degree—John Balentine—27 year old professor at Texas College of Arts and Industries—with his wife Ruby and sons Dickie—9 and Dougie—4½—(just the age he was when he left KP with his parents Richard and Maud Balentine—brother Kelly—and sister Lilybell)—was recent houseguest at the U. S. Balentine home, 547 Eldorado—Mrs. B's first visit to the Pacific Northwest—A Texas gal—the experienced several "firsts"—First time to see any ocean—first time to see the Redwoods—Crater Lake—our majestic high mountains and rushing streams—not duplicated in Texas, YET!—she was enthralled—but her zeal paled before the spell that our commonplace TAME squirrels and chipmunks cast upon her sons at Crater Lake.

FINAL WINDUP—before the return trip—the U. S. Balentine home was the gathering place—They all met for a last get-together—the Gus Lindsay's and Virginia—the Dan Balentine—Bill Goodman—Ulys Goodman—wife Jenny and small son Bruce—Kenneth Goodman and the U. S. Balentines and—Rex, Ulyssa—and of course the John B's and sons.

KELLY AND FAMILY—are in Canberra (Fed capital) of Australia—Flew there in July—He's with the U. S. diplomatic service in a consular capacity—previously

HER FRIENDS—and there are many—hated to see the Shasta Daylight leave the KP station with Mrs. J. A. (Lottie) Gordon aboard—She had a leisurely visit with old friends here—and was a houseguest at the Earl Weimar home—and at the home of Mrs. Leslie Rogers—She and Ruth Weimar went on a jaunt into Nevada and Calif.—Reno—Carson City—then to Bishop where Harry Weimar (the Earl W's son)—and his wife and young daughter, joined them—in the other direction they went to see friends in the Rogue River Valley—With Ann Ricket's she drove to Fort Klamath country—spent a day "just visitin'"—in Clatsop with Jean and Harry Ravizza and children—her hostess's dr and family—back to Alameda to see another dr—Zephra and Scott Warren and drs—the James Rogers—also in Alameda—James—Cora and children—Wednesday her hosts entertained at an informal luncheon in the Green Room of the Elk's Club—and that afternoon had a special guest at the lovely tea given by Mrs. Dick E. Miller Sr.—and Mrs. Kenneth Lambie—in the Pelican Party Room—Friends from years ago were there from all over the Basin—the conversation was lively—and lots of it.

WEDDING IN FORT ROCK

The wedding of Bernice Sult and Richard Brown was a colorful event at the Fort Rock Grange Hall, Friday evening, August 15, 8 p.m.
This is the first wedding ever to take place here at the Grange Hall. The bride is a member of the Grange Youth group and the bridegroom a prospective member.
For the occasion the stage was decorated with latticed walls trimmed with manzanita bows and an assortment of small flowers. There were four vases arranged with golden glow, blue, delphinium, cockscomb, white fox, red dahlias, and ferns, on the stage. A lovely floral arrangement of garden flowers was on the piano.
The center aisle was decorated with wide white streamers and old-fashioned nosegays of the rows.
Escorted down the aisle by her uncle, O. J. Monett, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a blue full skirted street length taffeta frock with a pale blue lace cape, a corsage of pink roses and the pearl choker she wore was "something borrowed."
Maid of honor, Fern Pitcher, wore a pale blue organdy street length frock and her corsage was of pink carnations.
Burrion Brown, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, ushers were Jim Saxton and Marvin Enlow.
The bride's aunt, Mrs. O. J. Monett chose a brown checked dress with rhinestone trim and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. James Griffiths chose a navy blue dress with pink trim. Their corsages were both of white carnations.
The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Brown of Brookings, Ore., and the bride's mother, Mrs. K. H. Harbaugh, Passadena, Calif., were unable to attend the wedding.

The Reverend D. L. Penhollow of the Powell Butte Church, Redmond, officiated.
Avon Derrick sang "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony and Edwin Eckelin (violin) and Mrs. Leon Gilder played an instrumental number. Mrs. Gilder was the pianist for the ceremony.
After congratulating the newlyweds, the guests signed the guest book. Mrs. Marvin Enlow assisted with the guest book.
The bride's aunt, Mrs. O. J. Monett served the four-tiered wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Melvin Enlow. Mrs. Floyd Branch served the ice cream. Mrs. Maurice Ward was at the punch bowl, Sharon Carter was at the coffee service, and Mrs. Donald McGee and Mrs. Howard McGee assisted.
Dancing followed the reception in the main hall. The bride and her uncle led the first waltz.
There were over 100 guests present that evening. Out of town guests were: Clifford Brown (twin brother to the groom) Brookings; Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Enlow and Jim, Redmond; Mrs. Della Welch, Covina, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin D. Enlow, Eugene; Orrie Page, Alfalfa, Ore.; Larry and Maxine Ellis, Beni; Richard H. Enlow, Redmond; Edward Thornton, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. James Griffiths and Linda, Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Haughton, Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Lynn, Prineville, Mr. and Mrs. Wahl, Sutherlin, Ore.
Mrs. Donald McGee, grange lecturer and Mrs. Leon Gilder, youth committee chairman assisted Mrs. O. J. Monett with the wedding arrangements.

range and decorations. Mrs. Gilder built and decorated the lattice walls with the flower trimmings. Mrs. Donald McGee arranged the floral arrangements and streamers.
Edith Pitcher, Roberta Miles, Jo Gilder, Helen Parks and Mrs. N.W. Enlow contributed the many flowers from their gardens.
Delbert Wilson took wedding pictures. Many friends helped to make the wedding such a lovely affair.
The newlyweds are now at home at the Bob Neal place.

BRIDGE PARTY
Mrs. Bill Bechholdt entertained at her home in Bonanza on the afternoon of September 19 with three tables of bridge. Mrs. MacGee received high score for the afternoon and Mrs. Owen Pepple second high. Mrs. Frank DeBel received the traveling prize.
Refreshments were served to Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Hese Dunbar, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Frank W. Brown, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. I. B. Morris, Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Mrs. Lealand Harris, Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Mrs. Mae Gale, and Mrs. Bechholdt.
