

REEVES-SMALLEY

MRS. RICHARD VERLE REEVES . . . the former Illys Ann Smalley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Smalley, Malin. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Reeves, Merrill. The wedding on September 5 in the Malin Community Church was of Basin-wide interest.

IN WHITE LACE . . . the bride with her attendants, Connie Reeves, left, sister of the bridegroom, who was bridesmaid; and Sally Smalley, maid of honor.

BEFORE THE RECEPTION . . . and after The Reverend George Shuman read the double ring service. Maid of honor Sally, the new Mr. and Mrs. Reeves, and Bill Hill, best man.

September Brides

FINE SILVER-GRAY . . . over blue satin, was chosen by Barbara Carolyn Orr, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Orr, for her marriage to Donald Everett Wiman, son of Mrs. Franklin W. Young, 2044 Reclamation Street; and Mr. Everette Wiman, Quincy, California. The Reverend Galen B. Onstead read the 8 p.m. service in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, September 10

BRIDEGROOM'S MOTHER . . . at the left, chats with Mrs. J. E. Wood, aunt of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Samuel E. Woodward, his grandmother.

A STORM OF RICE . . . in apparent sunshine, pelted the couple as the new Mr. and Mrs. Reeves left for their honeymoon.

S o c i e t y
By MILLY
RAMSBY

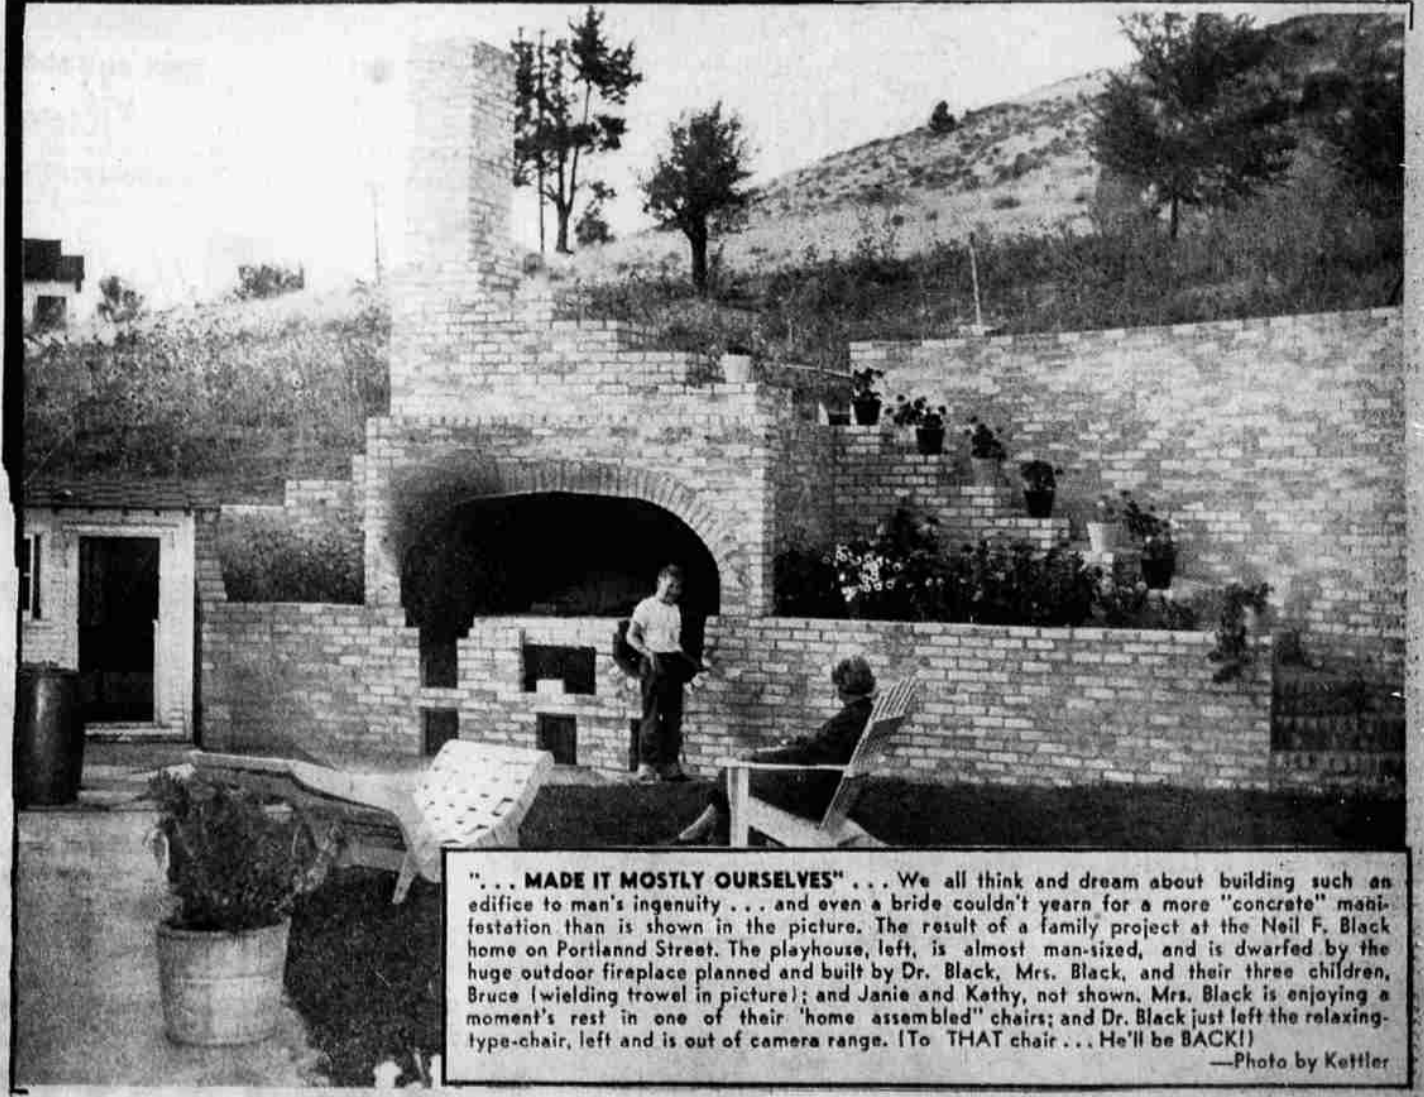

WIMAN-ORR

AT THE RECEPTION TABLE . . . Mrs. Charles S. Houston, left, cuts the cake; next to her, Mrs. C. O. Borsting, who assisted; Mrs. Frank C. Tarr, pouring; and in the right foreground, Lowell Collins, guest.

—Wiman-Orr Photos by Floyd, Underwoods.

Herald & News
Klamath Falls, Oregon

"... MADE IT MOSTLY OURSELVES" . . . We all think and dream about building such an edifice to man's ingenuity . . . and even a bride couldn't yearn for a more "concrete" manifestation than is shown in the picture. The result of a family project at the Neil F. Black home on Portland Street. The playhouse, left, is almost man-sized, and is dwarfed by the huge outdoor fireplace planned and built by Dr. Black, Mrs. Black, and their three children, Bruce (wielding trowel in picture); and Janie and Kathy, not shown. Mrs. Black is enjoying a moment's rest in one of their "home assembled" chairs; and Dr. Black just left the relaxing-type-chair, left and is out of camera range. I TO THAT chair . . . He'll be BACK!

—Photo by Kettler