

VOWS WERE EXCHANGED in a simple ceremony September 7, in Tulelake Presbyterian Church, when Donna Wright, Tulelake, became the bride of W. Montague Robertson, son of Mrs. Eleanor Robertson, Ashland. The Reverend Marvis Keyser read the double ring service in the presence of immediate members of the two families.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gray suit with black accessories. She wore a single white orchid and carried a white prayer book.

Mrs. William Stauton Jr., the former Joyce Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barber, Tulelake, was the bride's only attendant. Richard Reedy, Ashland, was best man.

After a short trip to the Oregon Coast the couple is at home in Ashland.

REEVES-SMALLEY NUPTIALS IN MALIN COMMUNITY CHURCH

MALIN — On Friday afternoon, September 5, Ilyis Ann Smalley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Smalley, Malin, became the bride of Richard Verle Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Reeves of Merrill.

The four o'clock service was read at the Malin Community Church before a large crowd of friends and relatives. The Rev. George Shuman officiated at the double ring ceremony.

White gladioli pompon chrysanthemums and greenery banked the altar and tall lighted tapers in floor candelabra were placed at either side.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Lucile Gray and Mrs. Vesta Shogren sang "On Perfect Love," "A Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The lovely blonde bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white tulle with a full skirt and a bouffant skirt and a fitted bodice and her long sleeves were pointed over the wrists.

She wore a white lace Juliet cap, trimmed in seed pearls which held a white illusion veil. She carried a single white orchid on her white Rainbow Bible, and wore the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue.

Maid of honor was Sally Smalley, sister of the bride, who wore a gown of blue satin and net with a full skirt and short bolero jacket. In her hair she wore a flower tiara and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Bridesmaid was Connie Reeves, sister of the bridegroom, who was dressed identical to the maid of honor except that her gown was dusty rose in color and the bouquet she carried was in a matching shade. She too wore a flower tiara in her hair.

The bridegroom's best man was Bill Hill, and Bob Heaton, Jack Hendrickson and Jerry Smalley acted as ushers.

Attractively dressed in a two piece dress of wine colored crepe, was the bride's mother, Mrs. Smalley. Her accessories were black and she wore a shoulder corsage of pink carnations.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Reeves, chose a dress of white embroidered black net over black taffeta, worn with black accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony. Centering the white linen covered table, was the four tiered wedding cake. Topping it was a miniature bride and bridegroom; and pink baby roses and maidenhair fern circled it.

Large bouquets of summer flowers were placed about the reception room.

At the coffee service was Mrs. Myrtle Crystal, the bridegroom's grandmother; and Mrs. Ben Johnson, aunt of the bride, served the cake. Assisting her was Barbara Cornett. Punch was served by Elaine Paris and the guest book was passed by Jean Rajnus.

The new Mrs. Reeves chose a suit of gray wool for her going away ensemble. With it she wore pink and white accessories and her white orchid at her shoulder.

The bride was a 1952 graduate of the Malin High School and the bridegroom was graduated from Merrill High School this year.

The young couple will tour the Oregon Coast and parts of California and Nevada before returning home. They plan to make their home at Bly, where Reeves is employed.

Guests from out of town here to attend the wedding were: Mrs. Carl Colvin, North Richland, Washington, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Edna P. Reeves, Portland, the bridegroom's grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Warner, Lakeview; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Graten, Seal- tie; Mr. Fred Graten, Medford; Hilary Winebarger, Mt. Hebron; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Parson; and Mrs. J. A. Parsons, Klamath Falls.

Local Man Weds Corvallis Girl

News is received of the wedding of Betty Louise Cook, daughter of Vance Joseph Cook, Corvallis; to Gaylord W. Upington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord M. Upington, 1940 Portland Street.

The informal wedding in Grace Episcopal Church, Martinez, California, was at 5 p.m., September 6, and the double ring service was the wedding guests at the home of the bride's brother and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Rex Cook.

Mrs. Cook was her sister-in-law's only attendant, and Tom Upington served his brother as best man.

The bride wore a ballerina length dress of white net and a matching bandeau in her hair and her matron of honor wore a dress of white eyelet embroidery.

After the wedding, the couple will live in Los Angeles, where Upington is associated with California Research Corporation.

SMITH-HOMER VOWS EXCHANGED IN CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

Gladioli and stock were used as a background for the pretty wedding of Wanda Dale Homer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Homer, 2437 Applegate Avenue, to Frank M. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Smith, Eureka.

The candlelight service was read by the Reverend Perry M. Johnson, Medford, at 3 p.m. in Calvary Baptist Church, September 7. Mrs. E. E. Hambrick accompanied soloist, Edmund Homer, bride's brother. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

Her gown was of white skinner satin, with yoke of white nylon trimmed with seed pearls. Seed pearls also trimmed the shallow halo of white satin, which held the nylon illusion net veil. Her bridal bouquet was two white orchids surrounded by white carnations and stephanotis.

Maid of honor, Ramona Homer, bride's sister, wore a gown of skinner satin, in a jewel-tone of mauve quartz. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses centered in white carnations and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. M. L. Schloeman, Sacramento; and Diane

Smith, Eureka wore frocks of skinner satin, in shades of turquoise and amethyst, respectively. Their bouquets were the same as the maid of honor's.

Flower girl was Melinda Homer, bride's cousin from Medford; and ring bearer was Gary Homer, also bride's cousin.

Best man was Jerrold Hunt, and ushers were Kenneth Johnson and Bryan Cousins; who were also candlelighters.

Mrs. Homer wore a dark green crepe dress with brown accessories to her daughter's wedding, and her shoulder corsage was an orchid.

Mrs. Smith, bridegroom's mother's costume was of pale yellow and black shantung worn with white accessories. After their Southern California honeymoon, they will be at home, 124 G. Street, Eureka.

BARBARA ORR AND DON WIMAN EXCHANGE VOWS IN ST. PAUL'S

St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the scene of a simple, impressive wedding, September 16, when Barbara Carolyn Orr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Orr, 1966 Lowell, became the bride of Donald Everett Wiman, son of Mrs. Franklin W. Young, 204 Reclamation Street, and Everette Wiman, Quincy, California.

The Reverend Galen Onstad read the 8 p.m. service in the presence of about 80 invited friends and relatives.

Mrs. Sam Mushen, organist, played traditional wedding music. Large arrangements of white gladioli and pompon chrysanthemums with greenery, were used for the church decorations.

Escorted to the chancel rail by her father, who gave her in marriage, the lovely bride wore a ballerina length frock of silver-gray lace over blue satin, with a striking rose-red velvet sash and hat. She carried matching roses tied with white stephanotis.

Her sister, Marjorie Orr, was her only attendant, and she was charming in a ballerina length blue taffeta frock with blue velvet hat and white accessories.

Best man was Thomas Schweiger, and ushers were Tom Orr Jr., Cameron Stewart, and John Westell.

Mrs. Orr chose a navy blue lace dress for her daughter's wedding and her corsage was of carioca roses and carnations.

The reception was in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony.

Mrs. F. C. Tarr and Mrs. John Wessell poured, Mrs. C. S. Houston cut the cake; and Mrs. C. O. Borsting and Mrs. A. L. Moore assisted.

For her going away costume, the bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories. They are on their honeymoon on the Oregon Coast, and future plans will be announced after they return.

Special committees include: Budget Committee, Mrs. Francis Beard, Mrs. A. C. Lavenik, Mrs. Charles Bailey and Mrs. J. McAndrews; Hospitality Chairman, Mrs. Dick Miller Jr.; Program Chairman, Mrs. Otto Ellis; Ways and Means, Mrs. W. G. Ely; and Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Darrell Miller.

Announcement was made that the date of the annual Athletic Fund Dinner is Thursday, October 6.

A ham dinner will be served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph Heiderer.

DELTA KAPPA GAMMA MEET

The first meeting of Alpha Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma was held at the home of Nett Peterson 5169 Summers Lane, Saturday, September 13.

A noon luncheon preceded the business meeting. Beulah Elliott, Elda Fletcher, Mabel Humble and Olive Wilson assisted Mrs. Peterson, as hostesses.

President Mabel Humble, president of the business meeting and summarized the coming year's work.

Beulah Elliott, program chairman, presented a tentative plan for the meetings of 1952-53.

Eva Burkhalter reported on the installation of Alpha chapter of the society, in Vancouver, B.C. on June 7 of the past summer. Miss Burkhalter was one of a group from Portland, traveling north, to install the Canadian chapter.

The local chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma voted unanimously to pay the dues of their retired members. The organization felt this gesture would express appreciation of long and faithful service to it's retired teachers.

A rummage sale will be held by Alpha chapter October 11, on South Eleventh street, with Dea Jean Wright and Lois Rumer as co-chairmen.

Guests for the meeting were, Ensign Kappan, Maadell; and Zelma Cromer of the local high school. Both visitors are members of Delta Kappa Gamma chapters in Oklahoma.

New officers for the coming year are: President, Mabel Humble; First Vice President, Beulah Elliott; Second Vice President, Elda Fletcher; Recording Secretary, Helen Hoffmann; Corresponding Secretary, Velma Tenney; Treasurer, Dorothy Bailey; and Parliamentarian, Dea Jean Wright.
