Youth Service At Lutheran
The annual Youth Sunday Service will be held Sunday, 11 a.m. at Klamath Lutheran with young people of the church doing the speaking, reading, ushering and singing.

Those who serve as speakers are: David Weid, Nancy Ambers, David Peebler, Dick Weed and David Larson. Ushering will be handled by Jerry Kirkpatrick and Jerry Ogman. Special music by Mary Ann Munson and Ruby Gehlins.

Sunday School conducts classes at 9:45 a.m. for children of 3-years to the adult age.

Voters Reject School Measure
EUGENE — Voters here have turned down a 3-to-1 margin three measures which would have established and provided funds for free public kindergarten through the school board agreed to put the proposals on a special election ballot following petitions. However, the board opposed the measures, suggesting that all available funds at this time be needed to expand facilities for school-age youngsters. The three measures would have authorized the kindergarten, provided construction funds, and set up a special levy for first year operating costs.

New Church Hall Shapes

Work on the Fellowship Hall addition to the Congregational Church began Sept. 11. A committee of three appointed by the congregation, Wain Bryan, Lloyd Lunt and Virgil Vandiver, are acting as consultants, working with architects and builders.

It is expected that the new building is ready for use in about two months. Already about 40 hours of volunteer labor has been given by the members of the church. All friends and members of the church are invited to participate in building the addition.

Child Home Founder Here

The Rev. Jack Brown, director of Faith Children's Home, Bear Track, Ken., will show pictures and detail work of the home at the Bible Baptist Church, 2444 Ward Street, Sunday, 7:30 p.m. Brown and his wife are graduates of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles and have been in missionary work in the Kentucky mountains for the past 15 years.

The need of a children's home was made evident after a number of babies and small children were left at the Brown home. The Faith Children's Home was established in 1951 and 29 children taken in. Little Jean had been in the home a few days when she asked one of the workers what they were going to have for dinner. The reply was, "Beans, potatoes, cabbage, tomatoes, bread and fruit juice." Looking up, Jean said, "You all have plenty of light here, here, then we won't never have to starve to death no more will we?"

The public is invited to hear the Rev. Brown.

Says SP Man Service Good

PORTLAND — Southern Pacific's Pacific line general manager told an Interstate Commerce committee that facilities were adequate to handle traffic originating and terminating in Oregon.

This was in answer to a complaint by the Shippers' Car Supply Committee that the line wasn't giving proper service and was failing to keep its facilities at a proper level.
