Britons Admire U.S. Paper Boy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The carrier-boy who delivers this paper might not know it, but some British newsmen would like to export his technique to England. They wish they had some like him at home, they say, but they don't. The authorities you know, the carrier-boy or "little merchant" comes in for his share of attention in a report, on sale in London and Washington Friday, by a productivity team representing the British provincial press. The team visited the United States in 1951 to take a close look at how American newspapers operate, top to bottom. What it found, plus its recommendations to the British press, is contained in the 88-page printed report. Of the carrier-boys, the report recommended: "Efforts should be made to convince the various authorities in this country (England) that delivery of newspapers by young people, on the lines of the 'little merchant' system seen in the U. S. can be worthy and healthy effort, need not interfere with education and can instill in the youngsters the germ of ability in business." Besides that, it said, the lad picks up six to eight bucks a week from about 100 customers for a hour or so work per day. He usually comes in for prizes, it said, and should be get sick—his family pitches in to pitch the papers.

Crew Loses Ship Fight

PORTLAND (AP) — The seamen who struck against the Liberian freighter Riviera have until 4 p.m. Friday to get off the ship in port here. Federal Judge Gus Solomon, at the request of the ship's owners, issued an order Thursday for the crew to get off the freighter, restoring it to control of the owners. The strike has tied up the ship two weeks. The crew was protesting living conditions aboard the freighter.

Highlights at KUHS

By HAROLD McKAY Tonight the Pelicans take on the Shasta Union High Wolves of Redding. Many so-called authorities say that tonight's game will be the toughest of the year for the White Birds, while others claim that the Pelts will make short work of the Redding boys. Be that as it may, tonight's game probably will be one of the best this year. Undoubtedly Klamath Falls will have a larger representation of the student body than they did at Roseburg where the rooting section was the team members themselves. Go on down to Redding if you can and support the team. If you can't go listen to the broadcast over KFLW.

Phone Building Work Starts

FORT KLAMATH — A small building project got underway last week when work was started on a structure to house the local dial system of the West Coast Telephone Company. It has been located in a warehouse at Joe's Motel since installation of the dial telephones here a few years ago. The change is necessary because it is imperative that the telephone equipment be stored in a fire-proof building. The 10 by 14 fireproof building is being erected across the street from the Fort Klamath Garage, on a lot purchased by the telephone company from Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Wimer.

FRB Reports On Finances

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Reserve Board said Friday that in the past year the American consumer turned from spending to investing. And, the board said, the major postwar change in the financial activities of consumers has been a sharp increase in all kinds of borrowing. The board reported that the great burst of spending after World War II failed to den record overall savings. In fact, the report said, continued high incomes since the war, and credit available to finance purchasing, has allowed consumers to add somewhat to their liquid assets and substantially increase their reserves in insurance and securities. The board made the report in an article on "Postwar Use of Consumer Funds" in the September issue of the Federal Reserve Bulletin.

Gold Bullion Feared Stolen

TORONTO, Canada (AP) — A nationwide alarm was set Friday for nearly a half ton of gold, valued at about $300,000, which vanished after it was placed in an unguarded, padlocked cargo shed at near-by Malton airport terminal. Police said they believed the gold had been stolen but there appeared to be some question as to where the theft might have taken place. Officials were closed-mouthed about details of both the disappearance and the subsequent investigation. If the bullion had been stolen, it was Canada's third major gold theft in four months. Packed in six boxes weighing a total of 848 pounds, the gold apparently vanished late Wednesday. Police were not called in, however, until Thursday morning. The six boxes of precious metal were part of a shipment of 10 in transit to Montreal. Only four of the ten, containing about $150,000 worth of bullion, were checked in at the final destination.

After Chadwick Studio Plays It Straight

By ERSKINE JOHNSON HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Exclusively Yours! Florence Chadwick's heroic efforts to swim the Catalina Island channel, hailed as the year's most dramatic event on TV resulted in an entire rewrite of Esther Williams' English channel swim sequence for "Dangerous When Wet." The original script had Esther being followed by a private yacht loaded with champagne-sipping friends with the stamp of this-is-easy gaiety about the whole thing. "After watching Florence for hours on TV," Esther said, "the studio decided long-distance swimming was a dramatic, serious thing. Now we're filming it that way. There's just a rowboat and a power launch—no yacht."

Ship Sinking Said Mystery

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese authorities said Friday night either a tidal wave or suction from an underwater volcano must have sunk a Japanese observation ship which vanished Tuesday with 31 aboard. Japanese Coast Guard boats and U. S. Air Force planes found no trace of the 210-ton No. 5 Kaiyo Maru, which vanished Tuesday 200 miles southeast of Tokyo. It was on an inspection tour of the Myojin reefs, which rose from the ocean floor two weeks ago in a violent submarine explosion. The missing vessel carried nine scientists and a crew of 22 toward the seething cauldron of smoke, flame and ashes surrounding the reefs.
