The guest list was chosen at random from the high school student body; and 20 who held lucky numbers were given a free pair of shoes. A feature of the event was a display of shoes worn by Hollywood film stars in recent movies. Bob Balaban, local manager of Leon's and Parker Woods, Medford manager of Leon's gave talks on style trends in casual shoes. Invited were: Kay Angsted, Marjory Blind, Trudy Bramlett, Marilyn Brandt, Shirley Chaney, Jean Condrey, Shirley Crawford, Mary Demetrakis, Nancy Elliott, Jean Estes, Alice Geary, Susan Geary, Ruby Gehring, Ann Henderson, Caroline Heilbronner, Joan Juckeland, Roberta Kittredge, Rhonda Lambie, Ja na Langslett, Roberta McCoy, Jackie Murthy, Carolyn and Marilyn Nancarrow, Kay Peterson, Sue Ramsby, Shirley Sehorn, Reva Snell, Pat Taylor, Sylvia Gerber, Carol Elliott and Paula Horn.

Sailors Wait Deportation

PORTLAND (AP)—Striking crew members of the Liberian freighter Riviera were in Multnomah County jail here Saturday awaiting jobs on foreign vessels or deportation. The men struck the ship earlier this month to protest what they said were poor living conditions. They refused either to leave the ship or sail it. Owners of the vessel won a marine libel action to force the 22 foreign crewmen off the ship. They were taken into custody by the U. S. Immigration Services Friday. Shortly after the men left the ship, pickets from the International Transport Federation—whom the officials here said represented sailors from most foreign nations—set up a picket line. Longshoremen who were to load the vessel with grain did not cross the line.

Longshore Funds Garnished

PORTLAND (AP)—Approximately $9,000—the entire bank account of the Portland local of the longshoremen's union—was garnished here Friday by the Hawaiian Pineapple Company. The firm, which recently won a $201,000 damage suit against the union and its international, said the money had been turned over to the U. S. marshal to apply on the judgment. The suit grew out of rioting two years ago at the Dalles, Ore., when the longshoremen attempted to prevent the unloading of a cargo of pineapples from Hawaii. Union officers reported Friday that they had filed an appeal of the damage judgment in the San Francisco Federal Court.

JUMPER 'N' BLOUSE

Raft To End Acting Career Plans To Become Director

BY ERSKINE JOHNSON
 HOLLYWOOD (AP)—(AP)—Excluding yours; face-naired George navi, who took ice came... for the first time a decision about his future that will surprise Hollywood. He says he'll turn movie director after he completes his new starrer, "Cairo Incident," in Rome and Algiers. "It's what I want for the future," he told me on the set of his tele-film series, "In the Law." "I believe I know more about directing than 90 per cent of the men in the industry today."

So you think only Hollywood scribbles play the game of adding two-and-two? A big gamour star who's just returned from a personal-appearance tour had this question put to her over and over again by people who follow Hollywood divorces: When are John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara going to marry? That's one Hollywood didn't think up.

An insider's explanation of Dana Andrews' radio show is now on 710 stations. He has his choice of almost as many scripts for his next film... Constance Moore is burning. A female impersonator is billing himself as "The Male Connie Moore."... Collier Young's ex-wife, Ida Lupino, save him the "marry-the-sir" lecture when he left for Europe to ease Joan Fontaine's loneliness. Between Ida's exes and the new wives of her exes, there's the makings of a whole studio.

Congrats to the Bud Abbotts on their 34th wedding anniversary. Esther Williams is blushing. The censors wanted a peek at a black lace bathing suit she wears in "Dangerous When Wet." "Three men from the censors office waited on the set while she slipped into the suit. Esther opened her dressing room door, stepped out and said, "See—it's not bad at all." Then both shoulder straps broke. "Gosh," flipped Esther, "I'm dangerous when dry, too."

Forget the separation rumors about Dean Martin and his wife. He just gave her a 10-karat diamond ring... Jacques Bergerac, Ginger Rogers' 29-year-old Paf-wan lawyer flame, is telling French pals he'll visit Ginger in Hollywood. He was here once before—as an actor.

Cameras roll Oct. 9 on Mary Pickford's "Circle of Fire" for Stanley Kramer—an embarrassing development for some Hollywoodites who made book she would never don movie grease paint again. It wasn't Mary's cold feet that delayed the film—just a script rewrite.

Errol Flynn has more than

Hollywood Writer Back On Job Following Vacation

By ROB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Picture postcards to picture people: Having collected the last leg of my vacation on the sunny sands of Balboa, I am catching up with the movie news again. I think I'll exercise the vacationist's privilege and toss a few postcards to people who have been making the headlines. Howard Hughes—So you've sold out your interest in RKO, eh? Well, I hope this doesn't mean that you and your sneakers are walking off the Hollywood scene. We need you. Not that you have contributed anything to the art of the cinema, but columnists must have colorful characters to write about.

Trick Sign Costs Clients

EUGENE (AP)—A Eugene attorney, who said he was responsible for a "trick sign" that greeted Sen. Richard Nixon on his campaign stop here last week, has lost a $500 a month legal account. The Tromp-McKinley Insurance Agency said it had taken the account away from Charles Porter and his partner, Keith Shelton, at the request of three Republican clients. Porter, a director of the Lane County Democratic Central Committee, said he was responsible for the signs which said "No Miss Costs for Nixon—Just Cold Cash" and "Shh!—Anyone Who Mentions the $16,000 is a Communist." The signs referred to an expense fund which the GOP vice presidential nominee had accepted earlier from his California supporters.

Embezzlement Count Filed In Theft

PORTLAND (AP)—Harley G. Olson of Longview, Wash., was indicted by a federal grand jury Friday on a charge of embezzling $16,000 from the State Bank at Rainier, Ore. Olson worked at the bank last January. William N. Ritchey was accused in another indictment of breaking into the Umatilla, Ore., postoffice June 22 with intent to commit larceny.

Black Butte Timber Scorned

BREND (AP)—Some 9 1/2 million board feet of timber went unsold here Friday when the U. S. Forest Service held an auction for timber atop Black Butte. Lumbermen said they did not bid on the timber because they would have had to build 6.4 miles of access road at an estimated cost of $18,000 a mile. The timber, mostly old growth and beetle-infested, is located on top of the volcanic cone at the headwaters of the Deschutes River. The Forest Service said no further attempt would be made to sell the timber.
