RECENTLY MARRIED COUPLE TO MAKE HOME IN COOS BAY

A candlelight ceremony, September 6, 8 p.m., in Free Methodist Church, united Laura Mary Crumrine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Crumrine, and Chester R. Bridges, son of Mrs. Jesse (Madge) Bridges, and the late Mr. Bridges, Newberg, Oregon, in marriage. The Reverend Virgil Dexter, Portland, read the service in the presence of a large group of invited friends and relatives.
Mrs. Pierre Pont, organist, accompanied Mrs. Roy Buell, soloist.
White gladioli and chrysanthemums with greenery in front of an inverted shallow vase of many lighted tapers formed the background for the wedding.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of white crepe, floor length, trimmed with a touch of rhinestones. A crown of stephanotis held the fingertip veil of illusion net, and she carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid tied with white satin streamers and stephanotis.
Mrs. Harley Hyatt attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a dress of pink satin, and carried a nosegay of pink roses and sweet peas.
Bridesmaids were Barbara Asher and Gaynell Bridges. The former was dressed in orchid net over matching taffeta, and she carried a nosegay of orchid sweet peas. Gaynell was in blue net over taffeta, and her bouquet was of yellow and white sweet peas. All wore ribbons to match their frocks.
Rosanne Hyatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hyatt, was flower girl. The pretty little niece of the bride was in an orchid pink floor length dress with puff sleeves and she carried a basket of pastel peonies.
Martin Bridges, uncle of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Harley Hyatt and Jackie Bridges.
Mrs. Crumrine, mother of the bride, chose a navy blue crepe dress with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.
