NEW RAINBOW FOR GIRLS WORTHY ADVISOR IN MALIN

MALIN — Barbara Cornett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Cornett, was installed September 12 as Worthy Advisor of the Malin Rainbow Assembly for Girls.

The open installation was held at the Broadway Hall in Malin before a large crowd of friends, relatives, Masons, Eastern Star and Rainbow members.

Large lavender colored sashes were placed at either side of the presiding officers chair in the East and large baskets of Gladioli were arranged attractively about the assembly room.

Entering the room first were the following installing officers: Installing Worthy Advisor, Jean Rajmus; Installing Chaplain, Betty Smallie; Installing Recorder, Jeanne Parker; Installing Marshal, Joanne DeMerritt; Installing Musician, Betty Bunnell; Mother Advisor, Agnes Schreiner and Hostess, Emma White.

A short welcome address was made by Hostess Emma White and the gavel was then handed to Jean Rajmus, who acted as installing officer.

Following the welcome address the newly appointed and elected officers entered and were seated in two semicircles in the center of the assembly room.

First to be installed was the new Worthy Advisor, Barbara Cornett, who was escorted to the altar, where the beveled crown was placed upon her head by outgoing Worthy Advisor Jean Rajmus.

Officers installed in service with Barbara were: Worthy Associate Advisor Elizabeth McVey; Charities, Patti Smith; Hope, Darla Sarutski; Faith, Martha Beaudry; Drill Leader, Jacquetta Saunders; Chaplain, Wanda Best; Musician Barbara Havlina; Love, Delores Steward; Religion, Pearl Otoman; Nature, Janet Elmore; Immortality, Ruth Kalina; Fidelity, Carol Weatherly; Patriotism, Barbara Sawyer; Service, Barbara Bunnell; Confidential Observer, Joyce James; Outer Observer, Jean Loveless; and Chief Director Kathleen Wilson.

Honored Guests escorted and seated in the East were: Doris Wallen, Worthy Advisor of Klamath Falls Assembly; Patti Smith, Grand Religion, of the Grand Assembly of Oregon; Mrs. Ethel Hamilton, District Deputy of Rainbow for Girls in Oregon; and Hazel Bowman, Worthy Matron of Prosperity Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Honoring outgoing Advisor, Jean Rajmus, a drill team consisting of seven girls, dressed in floor length sooms, entered the room, approached the east, and with appropriate verse and a gift, "Aloha" was then sung by Barbara Cornett.

Jean announced that her project of buying officers jewelry had been accomplished and a successful dance was held after graduation in the spring, a reception for the district Deputy, a food sale, a camping trip to Medicine Lake and a slumber party were part of the year's program.

New Worthy Advisor has chosen as her theme, Service, and her main project will be to raise money through various ways to help toward the new M. O. Lodge Hall.

Special entertainment was furnished by Dianne Micka with a tap dance to the tune of "Dark Town Strutters Ball," accompanied by Mrs. Rudy Payer at the piano; and the "Lord's Prayer," beautifully sung by Mrs. Ab Herringshaw to her own accompaniment.

Mrs. Agnes Schreiner, Mother Advisor, was called upon to make the following awards: Merit Badge, Katherine Micka; Red Bar, Artie Micka; Carolyn Fargo, Lynette Lyon and Lucile Weber; Red Orange Bar, Diane Micka; Orange and Yellow Bar, Joyce James; Green, Barbara Bunnell and Joanne Parker; Blue, Kathleen Wilson; Blue and Indigo, Delores Steward; Indigo, Betty Bunnell; Barbara Havlina, and Wanda Best. Pot of Gold awards, the highest in Rainbow work, were awarded to Barbara Cornett, Patti Smith, and Pearl Otoman.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Jerry Rajmus, assisted by Mrs. Lucile Rajmus.

The refreshment table was centered with a large cake with the Rainbow insignia and the names Jean and Barbara in the frosting.

Pouring were Mrs. Agnes Schreiner and Mrs. Carlo Cornett.
