Inches seem to disappear from waist and hips when you slip into this clever casual! The magic is perfect proportioning for shorter-waisted, fuller figures! Saves alterations, too! In gingham, faille, or wool you'll love its flattery! Pattern B172: Half Sizes 14 1/2, 16 1/2, 18 1/2, 20 1/2, 22 1/2, 24 1/2. Size 16 1/2 takes 4 1/2 yards 35-inch; 3/4 yard contrast fabric.

This easy-to-use pattern gives perfect fit. Complete, illustrated Sew Chart shows you every step. Send thirty-five cents in coins for this pattern to Marian Martin, care of Herald and News, Pattern Dept., P. O. Box 6740, Chicago 80, Ill. COMPLAINANT IN RIVERA CASE—Pic. Arthur Gater places a protecting arm around his wife, Janet, 22, outside Chicago's Felony Court. She appeared in the court as complainant against Jim Rivera, rookie outfielder for the Chicago White Sox, charging the 30-year-old ball player with raping her in her apartment. Rivera was held for the grand jury with bond set by the court at $5,000.

Marion Davies Throws Party For Cry-Crooner Johnny Ray

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Marion Davies, once movieland's most fabulous hostess, will toss a $25,000 party tomorrow night for Johnny Ray, a singer she must have heard but never has met.

The soiree gives every indication of being the biggest social affair in Hollywood in years. The acceptance list numbering 500 already—and growing—reads like pages from the movie almanac.

Miss Davies has talked with Ray on the phone and she knows his bride, the former Marilyn Morrison. Mrs. Ray is the daughter of Charlie Morrison, owner of the Mocambo. But what brings Ray to town, ironically, is an engagement at Ciro's, the Mocambo's rival for Sunset Strip night life trade.

Ciro's signed Ray for a crying engagement at the first inkling of Johnny's romance with Morrison's daughter.

Capt. Horace Brown, Miss Davies' seafaring husband, will be at her side receiving guests in her spacious Beverly Hills home. Some of them will be Joan Crawford,

Erskine Johnson Reports Hollywood Laugh Parade

BY ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD (NEA)—The Laugh Parade: A movie writer who had been plagued for years by movie cycles is the pet hero of Will Gould, who just sold a brilliant yarn, "Counterpunch," to Producer Harry Sherman. All his life, it seemed, the writer had been hearing producers scream about "too many psychological films," "too many psychological films," and "too many" others.

Finally this writer came up with a talking-dog story.

"This fido," the writer told a producer, "makes a horse's neck outta Lassie on account he can converse in 10 different languages, catch left-handed and sing like Eric Pinza."

"Great," said the producer. "We'll make millions. This dog sounds sensational. What kind of a hound is he?"

"A boxer," said the writer.

"No good," quoth the producer derisively. "We've had too many tight pictures."

A young just-in-the-blue-chips actor was writing so many checks to "cash" that he was called on the carpet by his business manager.

"Look," said his financial guardian, "I'm supposed to help you save money. But you're writing checks so fast I can't keep track of them. Just what are you spending your money on?"

"Well," said the young actor, "I spend some of it on girls, some of it on liquor and some I just waste."

Two Hollywood glamor girls were discussing the "cattiness" of a third doll.

"I didn't know she was such a cat," said one.

"Dahling, where have you been?" said the other. "Why the best TV offer she's had to date has been from 'Zoo Parade.'"

A movie star's tot turned down an invitation to spend the night at
