Rubber Contest

MADISON, Wis., (AP) — Illinois and Wisconsin, who have fought to a complete standstill in a scorching football rivalry that started in 1895, will collide before a sell-out 51,000 Saturday in a pivotal game of the Big Ten title race.

The winner will be tabbed a strong favorite to continue on to the championship.

Illinois, defending titlist, will be ineligible for a return trip to the Rose Bowl, but the Pasadena junkie plus the championship will look mighty close to the Badgers should Wisconsin win.

Each school has won 12 games and there have been four ties since the series began. But not since 1932 has either team put two consecutive victories together.

Wisconsin should win for the Illini took last year's game 14-10.

Bums Back in Charge After 5-3 Win Friday

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP) — It appears to be unsafe to write the Dodgers out of this World Series.

Going into today's fourth game at the stadium holding a 2-1 lead and with their magnificent rookie, Joe Black, ready to give it another whirl, the National Leaguers were back in the driver's seat, fully recovered from the severe trouncing the Yankees gave them in the second contest.

Serious doubts were expressed that the Dodgers would heal in time to get back in the play-off. They slugged easy Ed Lopat from the hill in yesterday's line 3-3 comeback. Again they looked like a great ball club in every respect, and it was the Bombers' turn to look a good deal less than terrific.

BRILLIANT
Pee Wee Reese showed the huge throng of over 60,000 why the National League considers him to be as brilliant a shortstop as there is in the business. The old geezer, known as "Pee Wee," showed a new pitching class in the pinches when they were needed. It was quite an exhibition.

Reese played himself a tremendous game. The old marlin champion from Louisville sparked the Dodgers offense with his three hits, one of them a perfect bunt which set up the team's first run.

Lopat's failure to puzzle the National Leaguers only served to prove once again that they eat up southpaws. They murdered them all season, and one may feel quite certain that Stengel will not show them another in the current series.

terrible."

There was considerable argument whether Yogi should have been charged with a passed ball. Many observers, including this one, thought that young Tom Gorman, who had just relieved Lopat, cut loose a wild pitch, but the official scorers saw it otherwise.

Whichever it was, Berra looked like a fellow playing blind man's bluff as he searched the premises for the pellet while Reese and Jackie Robinson came tearing across the plate. Of course, Andy Patko followed with a single to right field which would have scored them anyhow, but no one will ever know whether he would have made the hit if the wild goings-on had not unsettled Gorman.

MARTIN WRITHES IN PAIN—Billy Martin, Yankees' second baseman, drops to ground in pain after fouling pitch off his left knee in fourth inning of third Series game at Yankee Stadium. Dodgers Catcher Roy Campanella and Umpire Larry Gooch watch the injured player. He remained in game after aid from trainer.

TAKING PEG FROM BERRA, second sacker Martin, Yankees, futilely tries for tag as Dodger Duke Snider steals second, kicking up plenty of dust. Action occurred in second inning of third World Series game at Yankee Stadium. Umpire is Pinelli.

Clout Gave Mize No Kick

By TED MEIER

NEW YORK (AP) — Big Johnny Mize, the only major leaguer who has hit homers in every big league park, wallowed his first World Series round tripper Friday.

It didn't mean a thing to "The Big Cat."

"It was just another hit," he explained in the Yankee clubhouse after his ninth inning pinch-hit four-bagger against Brooklyn. "If there had been someone on base it might have meant something. As it is I got a bigger kick out of my pinch-hit against the wall in Ebbets Field three years ago."

Brooklyn is "out to shoot the works" as Dessen plans to come back with bullpen artist, Joe Black, who subdued the Yanks, 4-2, in the opener Wednesday.

"We believe in getting there first with the biggest, if possible," Dessen said. "Black is strong and willing. We feel we can win with him again and come back with Carl Erskine."

YANKS SAIL
The Yankees appeared disconsolate in their dressing room as chances for their fourth straight victory in the World Series grew dimmer.

The crest-fallen Berra, displaying a badly swollen forehead, his left hand that bled at the finger nail, took the blame himself for the pinch that had eluded him in the ninth inning.

He was dazed and confused by the sudden pain and lost track of his own tracks while Reese and Robinson scamped home. It was disclosed that Berra had suffered a split finger.

"I did it myself. It's my fault," muttered the stocky catcher when Manager Casey Stengel suggested that Gorman might have thrown a pitch that Berra was not expecting. "It wasn't any cross-up. I knew what was coming."

Stengel, who plans to come back with his ace, Allie Reynolds, simply admitted that the Dodgers outplayed the Bombers.

"In the long run they played the best game. They won it themselves," he added.

The Yankee skipper said that if Berra couldn't play today, he'd use Charley Siders.

Loosing pitcher Ed Lopat disclosed that he threw everything he had—sliders, curves and screwballs, but "I was missing with my slider. I wasn't as sharp as I should be."

The Yanks were mystified at Preacher Roe's stuff. The crafty southpaw, although shaky at times, was effective in the pinches.

Asked what Roe had, Mickey Mantle, who failed to connect safely after collecting five hits in the first two games, answered, "Dunno, but he sure must have had something."

Both camps reported their first rank players ready, UCLA is especially optimistic, with left half Paul Cameron ready to start for the first time. The triple-threat is considered on of the west's chief bidders for All-America selection.

New York — The Brooklyn Dodgers scored two runs in 9th inning on passed ball by Yogi Berra to beat the New York Yankees, 5-3, behind southpaw Preacher Roe to take a 2-1 lead in the World Series.

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — A record crowd will see Cuba's Kid Gavilan, the champion, meet New York's Billy Graham tonight.

"This time I'm sure I can stop him and drop him," said Graham. "I want no doubts this time."

He was referring to split decisions which gave Gavilan the decision in two of their three previous fights. One of them in New York Aug. 29, 1951, was for the title "and I won that one," Graham said. Many boxing writers agreed.

A Cuban judge and a Cuban referee are to be named sometime before the fight. The third official will be Nat Fleischer, of New York.
