

Large Tea Is Event Of Early Fall

S o c i e t y

By MILLY
RAMSBY

FALL WAS USHERED IN ... a few days early, when Mrs. Dick B. Miller Sr. and Mrs. W. Ray Lamb were hostesses at a beautiful tea in the Pelican Party Room September 17.

The outstanding decorations were an artistic blending of magnolia leaves, clusters of grapes, including their vines; arranged on a large silver tray with small shiny bright red apples sparkling in reflected candlelight. Talisman roses in a distinctive bouquet completed the picture which greeted the 150 guests who shared the hospitality of the hostesses.

Assisting at the tea table were Mrs. William Hagelstein, Mrs. Elton Thompson, Mrs. John Houston, Mrs. John H. Martin, Mrs. Loren Palmerton and Mrs. Warren Hunt, Mrs. Charles Larkin, Mrs. John Cox, Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Charles Rugh served the punch.

In the picture, upper left, Mrs. Hagelstein serves Mrs. Kate Peyton, left, and Mrs. Melvin Miller. To the right, the hostesses, Mrs. Lamb, left, and Mrs. Miller. Lower picture includes Mrs. John Cox, Mrs. Lloyd Derby, center, and Mrs. Charles Larkin, serving.

Photos by Kettler

Harold & News
Klamath Falls, Oregon

Reames Golf and Country Club Buffet Dinner Dance

COZY CHAT ... Mrs. Charles Mack and Mrs. Truman Runyan at the buffet dinner dance.

THEY ENGINEERED THE PARTY ... September 27 ... Women's Auxiliary annual fund raising project. From the left, Mrs. Greer Drew, president; Mrs. Charles W. Fyock, chairman reservations and ticket sales; Mrs. H. O. Juckland, general chairman; Mrs. John McCulloch and Mrs. Haarbey Bechen, general arrangements; (Mrs. Bechen is also secretary-treasurer). Mrs. Dick Reader and Mrs. John Shaw, hors d'oeuvre table.

"MEN OF DISTINCTION" ... heretofore billed as "Two hombres on a burro" ... are really two noqudniks Elbert Stiles, left, and Delos Mills evincing extreme glee over one of their plots. Greer Drew in background, and John Shaw back of him, engrossed in their work.

IN THE GROOVE ... Frank Tucker and Bob Mast were the main event before the buffet dinner hour.

FAMILY GROUP ... Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Kesterson at either end of the davenport ... his sister in the middle, and her husband, James Skeel facing them.

Reames Photos by Floyd